

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*Michael S. Berry, ChFC of MSF Companies to Speak at The Rohe Levy Financial Premium Finance Symposium

Newtown, CT – August 6, 2018 - MSF Companies are pleased to announce that Michael S. Berry, ChFC, company Founder and Managing Member, is a featured speaker at the Rohe Levy Financial Premium Finance Symposium. He joins fellow industry experts for two days of educational and inspiring content for insurance professionals and their partners.

Michael will be leading a session entitled, "Wealthcare in Healthcare: Bridging the Gap between Financial Services and the Healthcare Industry." This session will discuss a premium finance case study as well as how the physician marketplace views and uses premium finance.

"We are honored to be a part of such a great event. Doctors are a unique marketplace. Having a program designed specifically for them to increase their supplemental income and potentially exit their practice is invaluable," stated Michael S. Berry.

Rohe Levy Financial and Insurance Services, Inc. is hosting the Symposium from August 5-7, 2018 at the Cosmopolitan Hotel in Las Vegas, NV. The event will cover the legal, banking, and carrier sides of premium finance. At this industry leading event, attendees will learn how insurance products relate to premium finance. MSF Companies and Rohe Levy Financial and Insurance Services, Inc. are both Owner-Firms of Lion Street, Inc., a national network of fiercely independent financial advisor firms.
