Pride Cape Breton is proud to welcome Chantelle Butts (they/them) as the 2019 Pride Parade Grand Marshall. Chantelle represents all that it means to give back to the LGBTQIA2+ community on Cape Breton Island. Being born and raised in Glace Bay, Chantelle recognized that there was a huge opportunity for education and advocacy.

After completing the Bachelor of Community Studies program at CBU and then going on to complete the Bachelor of Social Work program in Maine, Chantelle returnedhome to Cape Breton and hit the ground running with their work in the community. Chantelle currently holds the position of Community Outreach Worker at CaperBase; working with middle school and high school students helping to facilitate Gender and Sexuality Alliance programs, Headstrong groups, and providing supportive counselling. "Chantelle is such a strong figure in the lives of so many LGBTQIA2+ youth on Cape Breton Island. The work they do in the community is so necessary and vital. The Pride Board couldn't be more proud to have Chantelle as the 2019 Grand Marshall," says Amy MacNeil, Co-Chair - Pride Cape Breton.

In their spare time, Chantelle volunteers to provide LGBTQIA2+ training and resources for teachers and staff throughout the Cape Breton Victoria Regional Centre for Education. A passion project for Chantelle has been "Diverse Directions" (a partnership between CaperBase and Schoolplus.) This program was created, with colleague Kelsey MacLeod, out of a need for summer programming for queer youth in the CBRM. Diverse Directions youth have been participating in the Pride Parade for the last four years and in 2019 will have groups from Glace Bay, Sydney, and one for older youth ages 18-24 all walking with and supporting their "gay mom" as Grand Marshall.

"I am humbled and honored to be the 2019 Grand Marshall at the Parade," says Chantelle. Chantelle currently resides in Glace Bay with their soon-to-be wife, Naomi, and their three cats (Simon, DeeDee, and Theo) and Max the bunny rabbit.

Community is everything.
