ABOUT GOLDEN BELL

Golden Bell is a Christian campground owned by the Colorado District Church of the Nazarene, located in Divide, CO. Golden Bell is a venue for children and youth camps as well as retreats with a wide range of adventure activities for entertainment and team building. We have been blessed with a matching grant for 2018 and hope to reach the goal of $100,000 through generous donations and fundraisers like this tournament. Please consider making an additional tax-deductible donation when you register. You will be provided a receipt for your donation on August 20.

Tournament Details

At 8,500 feet, you can escape the heat and enjoy a cool day on this mountain course. This tournament is loaded with prizes and promises a great day of golf for all participants. This also includes a four-person scramble, range balls, and lunch.
