

Near you

NEWS FROM YOUR SUBURB

GOT A HOT NEWS TIP?

Phone: 9231 5200, Email: stirlingtimes@communitynews.com.au

TUART HILL

Toga time: Frederico Achilli, Cameron Krsnanac and Annelise Hill in best Roman garb.

A Rome around time

SERVITE College has taken a little break through time with their "Roman Day" celebrations.

Teachers and students of have taken to the Colosseum and donned togas in a gesture to appreciate the past and to learn for the future.

CITY BEACH

Open water race underway

The 2013/14 Swimming WA Open Water Series moves to City Beach on Saturday, November 16, with hundreds of swimmers expected to converge for the 1.25, 2.5 and 5 kilometre races. The eight-part series, which started on Saturday at Cottesloe Beach with close to 400 swimmers, will run for six months at various Perth beaches.

CHURCHLANDS

Jenny Maloney, Bernadette Brooke-Smith, Geoff Miller, Haaron MacLaren and Frank Maloney. Picture: Marcus Whisson

Seasoned masters of fitness

THE Newman Churchlands Masters Swimming Club will launch its 2013-14 season next week.

The club of about 45 members aged from 25 to 90 trains on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings from 6.30-7.30pm and Sundays from 9am-10am at the Newman College pool.

Geoff Miller and Frank

Maloney joined about 25 years ago and agreed it was a great way to keep fit and socialise.

Mr Miller said his three children attended Newman College and he had always been involved in surf life saving, so he decided to sign up.

Mr Maloney has a similar story, saying he followed some Scarborough Surf Life Saving friends to the club after becoming unfit and wanting to get back in to shape.

The club has coaches to provide advice on technique and provides DVDs to its members.

There will be a 'live a life' event on Monday, November 18 from 6.30pm.

For more information, call Jenny Maloney on 9345 0421 or email redhead52@optusnet.com

SCARBOROUGH

Get set for glamour

THE Turkish Consulate of WA will hold its third Republic Ball in Scarborough on Saturday and will be celebrating 90 years since the founding of the Republic of Turkey in 1923.

Melbourne Turkish Band Grup Ezgi will perform and there will be traditional Turkish dancing and art exhibitions will entertain guests.

Turkish delight at the Republic Ball.

The Ball, at Rendezvous Hotel, is expected to set the tone for more Turkish cultural events by the Turkish Australian Culture House Inc and the Turkish Consulate of WA over the coming year, leading into the 100-year anniversary of the Gallipoli landing.

To purchase tickets visit www.turkishaustralianculturehouse.net.au or call 0478 221 284.

Big hearts make a big difference

We're looking for people with the heart and the commitment to become early learning educators in their own home. You'll receive all the training you need to start a rewarding career and your own business of home. You can enjoy flexible working hours and the knowledge that you are making a big difference to the children in your care. Wanslea has been committed to the care and development of children and their families for over seventy years and we'll be there to support you every step of the way. If you'd like to make a difference as an early learning educator please call 9245 2441 for more information or visit wanslea.au

