NOTEWORTHY

- Freshman Josh Mooncotch earned his first career hat trick on a night that saw his first career goal and point. Freshman Nick Messina recorded the first multi-point game of his career, and Senior Jack Rooney extended his point streak to eight games.
- The win marks Alabama's first time sweeping a Division-I opponent on the road since the first D-I games in program history at West Virginia (9/11/15-9/12/15).
- Junior Jesse Gordichuk earned his second career shut out on 15 saves in the contest.
- Alabama scored a season-high eight goals and fired a season-high 69 shots to record 40-plus shots on goal for the sixth straight game.
- Senior Sam Messina returned to the ice for the first time since Sept. 16, 2016 after being sidelined with a brain aneurysm. He recorded his first point since that game when he had an assist. It was his first multi-point game since Jan. 30, 2016 against Ole Miss.
