MAXINE: (shouting) Listen up, everybody! My name is Maxine, and my Bethlehem stable is full!

RILEY: But the camels need water! The goats need a bath! The cattle are lowing! The chickens are squawkin'!

MAXINE: (shouting again above the chaos) And I tell you again—there is no room in the stable tonight! Now please, give Bethlehem some peace!

O LITTLE TOWN OF BETHLEHEM (Redner)

MAXINE: "Listen up, everybody ..."

If the cha - os was not e - nough,

89

if the peo - ple were all — we had — to dis - cuss, but

92

oh, all these an - i - mals. — Whoa, ev - 'ry

95

sta - ble's full, — as if No - ah's big boat de - liv -

97

- ered this o - ver - night. —

100

Oh, we stack them wall to wall, — and 102

whoa, the a - ro - ma from the stalls. — It's 104

not just them it's al - so what they leave be - hind, —

106

we seem — to find by sur-prise. —
