

Booking Tips

- If you would like the cabin for your group only then you must book all the spots in the respective cabin.
- There are 6 (six) spots in the Ripple Ridge Cabin and 8 (eight) spots in the Lightning Strike Cabin.
- If the availability calendar shows less than 6 spots at Ripple Ridge or 8 spots at Lightning Strike, then someone else has already booked some of the spots. You are welcome to book the remaining spots and share the space with the other guests.
- The system will only allow bookings to be made up to one year ahead. 365 days.
- Bookings of more than one day are limited to a maximum of five consecutive days.
- Consecutive day bookings can be made with the first day being up to 365 days ahead. Example; if the current date is November 1st, You may book for November 1st the following year. You may also book up to four more consecutive days past this date. So, Nov. 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th. (Leap year may affect this rule)
- The system will automatically send out emails to confirm your reservation.
- Print out the booking invoice to take with you to the cabin as proof of your reservation.
- Print out the parking pass to be displayed in your vehicle dashboard at the parking area.
