A Certificate of Registration is awarded when an Assessor has affirmed the competence of a test user in sufficient Module Sets to comprise a full qualification in test use. This certificate is only valid whilst the above named maintains an entry on the Register of Qualifications in Test Use (RQTU). Qualification at this level is subject to re-validation every six years. The RQTU can be accessed by members of the public at www.psychtesting.org.uk wishing to check on the validity of a Certificate of Registration.

The holder agrees to abide by the Code of Good Practice for Psychological Testing and to maintain their competence as outlined by the British Psychological Society.
