Scout Elf Fun Facts

You can tell Scout Elves apart from other elves at the North Pole because they arrive with their very own storybook and in their official solid red jumpsuit.

The Scout Elves are Santa's most trusted helpers, who visit families around the world and tell Santa children's wishes and messages.

The most popular way elves return to their families' homes is with a welcome breakfast!

On average, Scout Elves travel 4,000 miles from the North Pole to their homes every single night!
