Footnotes

DUCASA broke well and established control in short order, cut over to the rail, had no sooner done so when GUAYANA abandoned a potential pocket journey by tipping into the two path herself, carved out the pace with the aforementioned rival stationed to the outside, rider holding something back in reserve, same as its shadow, got cued up then let out for the drive home, drew out to her largest advantage during the ensuing furlong, squandered much of it in the last eighth, but held on well enough in the final stages to prevail. GUAYANA along the rail for the majority of the straight run leading up to the clubhouse bend, tipped to the outside once the winner settled along the rail, pinning BANANA ANNA out in path three, was patiently ridden prompting the pacesetter for over three-quarters, fell back from upper to midlane to trail by its biggest margin after the top one had been asked for run, readily re-gained that lost ground and then some, but came up short. OAKS (BRZ) got guided over to the rail after the break, rode it, rider atop with a firm grip on the reins to the three-eighths pole, was let out a notch at that station, went onward for another sixteenth then got put to a drive, spun three wide into upper stretch, drifted out nearly two paths thereafter making no headway. BANANA ANNA off the inside throughout, was forced into taking the three path on the first turn after losing position to the second place finisher, remained three wide on the second bend, commenced the stretch slighter wider and tired. MEGAN'S MUSE recovered almost instantaneously after losing its footing at the start, tucked into the two path, failed to respond when put to the whip for the initial time midpoint on the far turn, drifted out towards the six path during the initial portion of the stretch then wound up steadily losing contact with the front runners down the lane.
