Footnotes

COME DANCING was forced out at the break, one of four members constituting the right flank that were all affected by a wayward SPECIAL RISK, recovered in short order and secured a forward position, kept an eye on the front runners from the three path on the turn, began to cut into the deficit after the second fraction had been posted on the board, swung into the stretch, confidently ridden and well within striking distance of the top, was near the three-sixteenths marker when the rider went to work, appeared to poke a head down in the front by the start of the final furlong, steadily added to the lead, crossing the wire under a hand drive. SPEIGHTY GIRL shook free and cut over to the rail, set the splits, with AUDRIQUE being the main source of pressure, positioned to the outside just off her hind quarters, saw the winner add herself to the pace picture during the final jumps of the run around the bend, came under assault from the last-named foe at the three-sixteenths marker, fell back by a sliver a sixteenth later, held on well thereafter to secure second. AOIFE went over to the rail approaching the end of the backstretch, left it after reaching the five-sixteenths pole, fanned wider and wider during the initial portion of the stretch until six wide, went on rally for the show award. MY GOLDEN ROSE made it over to the rail soon after the start, was asked to pick up the pace after more than halfway around the turn, got put three wide at the head of the stretch, lacked the needed late response. INITIATE bumped and carried to the outside in the shadow of the starting gate, left the midway point on the turn three wide, was towards the six path with a furlong remaining, rallied midly to mostly improve position. AUDRIQUE prompted the pace two wide, was briefly between rivals late on the bend, gave way. DUCRU tipped out to be two wide after riding the rail down the backstretch, tired after going a half. LA DOLCE LUNA pinched a few strides after the field had been sent on its way, was three wide at the half mile pole, shifted inward past the three-eighths pole, made it over to the rail in time to cut corner into the lane, had no rally. SPECIAL RISK came out after bobbling at the start, was corrected but not before making some contact with its next door neighbor and igniting additional crowding and bumping that involved a total of four of her fellow rival, sat parked out four wide on the turn, made into the stretch and gave way in the final furlong. TIME TO FLIRT was bumped into and carried over by a stumbling SPECIAL RISK, departed the backstretch towards the two path, backed away during the run around the bend, wandered out into path seven from upper to midstretch then backed away even more.
