NEWS AND EVENTS

Thank You to Diana Bursztyn, Vivian Perez and family for making another unbelievable cooking class this past Thursday.

Thank You to Rabbi Benyaminson for coming to speak this past Wednesday.

Live From Israel, Rabbi Aryeh Leib Salfer will be giving a chassidut shiur via telephone on Thursday September 10, at noon in the Doresh beit medrash.

Mazel Tov to Prof. Ben on his Birthday this past week.

Rabbi Salfer is now offering a weekly shiur (for men) on the topic of relationships, with a focus on those between men and women. The basis of the shiur is a discussion of the Biblical foundation of each of the gender characteristics of men and women. For those who want to know why men will be men and women will be women, this shiur is for you. Held every Thursday, 8:00 PM, at Beit David Highland Lakes Shul.

THE POWER OF TODAY

By Rabbi Shmuel Berkman

“Lend ear and listen :On this day, you become a nation”

Right as the Jewish people are about to enter the land of Israel, Moshe addresses us and tells us that “on this day” we become a nation of Hashem. One second, we were taken out of Egypt and given the Torah almost 40 years earlier. God, therefore, had taken us as his nation decades before. Why then does Moshe find it fit to begin his charge by saying “on this day”? What does today have to do with it?

Many commentators explain that Moshe is trying to emphasize that we should appreciate Torah each day as if “today” is the day that it was given on Sinai. Let’s explore another approach.

The Talmud tells us that if a person is careful to say “shema” every morning and evening but one evening he neglects to say, it is as if he has never said “shema” before. How is it possible that by simply missing one night one could erase all that he had done for years before?

The Dubno Magid relates the following parable: Long before the invent of cell phones, satellite communication and even walkie talkies, when a commander would send his troops to war, he would station soldiers along the way between the command station and the battle field. The idea was that in order to properly relay messages to and from the battle front, each stationed soldier would have to remain in his place so he could both still see to soldier before him while still being seen by the soldier behind him. If one soldier would move, the entire chain of communication would be broken.

Each day we “charge” our connection with Hashem by saying “shema”. We plug back into the connection that began thousands of years ago. Just like if one soldier would move from his spot the commander’s communication is broken, so to if a person neglects to say “shema” he has broken his chain of connection and will have trouble fully “charging” like he would be able to had the connection never been broken.

Similarly, Moshe tells the Jews: “today you become a nation” because each day we have to reconnect to Torah and mitzvos in order to keep the strong connection that we forged at Har Sinai. If for one day we don’t appreciate this connection, the chain becomes broken. Each day we consider it as if “today” is the day that the Torah has been given. Today is a very important day!

KADDISH

By Eliyahu Levin

Why do we say the same special Kaddish that mentions Moshiach for Siyumim and Funerals?

Because a Siyum is the celebration of reaching a goal in learning, which helps bring Moshiach, and when a person has passed away it is as if they have reached their intended goal in life in serving Hashem and that also helps to bring Moshiach.

The Music Experience

By Hershel Glick (Spring Valley, NY)

This past Sunday evening the eiruv committee of Miami Beach had their first annual dinner. The organizer is the chavrusa of my Rebbe, Rabbi Bukspan. So he asked Rabbi Bukspan if he knows any musicians, he said he had a student in his class who plays the drums by the name Abie Gornish. At five thirty Abie and I left to go down to Temple Moses in Miami Beach, with Avi Weiss to drive us. We got there at five forty five, to set up and at six o'clock Abie started playing and I helped him with the sound equipment. He played till 7 o'clock and we left. We would like to thank Rabbi Bukspan and Avi for giving me this opportunity.

Meet: Simmy Zuckerberg

By Editorial Staff

This school year in Yeshivas Doresh we would like to show the diversity of interests and customs of the bochurim and faculty.

Simmy is a 17 year old, litvishe bochur in 11th grade, from Clifton NJ currently in his 3rd year in the Yeshiva. Some of his favorite classes throughout the day include, Nach at night seder, reading with Professor Ben and music with Professor Bill, he is also in the Doresh wind instrument band in which he plays the flute. Next Week read all about Rafi Bausk and Professor Isaac Glickfield.

Kumzitz By Rabbi Bukspan

By Avi Weiss (Detroit, MI)

This past Thursday, the post high school guys and I went down to Miami Beach to Rabbi Bukspan's house, while the rest of the Yeshiva went to the marlins game (read down for article about game). At Rabbi Bukspan's house we had pizza, ice cream, nosh, singing and dancing. We would like to thank Rabbi Bukspan for hosting the post high school guys.

Marlins Game

By Aryeh Marder (Lakewood, NJ)

This past Thursday the high school bochurim and I went to a baseball game. It was the Miami Marlins against the Pittsburgh Pirates at Marlins stadium. There was a lot of great pitching, catching and batting at the game. In the top of the second inning the Pirates got a homerun, then in the top of the fourth the Pirates got another homerun. Finally in the bottom of the seventh inning the Marlins got a homerun to make the score 2-1. In the bottom of the ninth, the game ended with the score 2-1, and the marlins almost getting a run. Thank you to Bonnie Schwartzbaum and the Kosher Food Bank for sponsoring the tickets and Professor's Ben and Bill for driving us to the game.

Doresh Protesting

By Editorial Staff

This past Monday the Yeshivas Doresh high school students went to protest against the Iran deal by Congresswoman Debbie Wassermann Schulz's office in Aventura. The protest started at 5:30. First Mr. Robert Weneck, Master Of Ceremonies of the event and President of News Media Consulting Inc., started off by saying that he met President Truman, Truman asked him to make a promise to him, "No matter who is in the White House, that Israel would always have a strong voice, so that we would always have a strong ally in the middle east that we could trust". After Mr. Weneck introduced Rabbi Lipsker, of the shul of Bal Harbour to say the prayer for all armed forces in Israel and the United States, that are serving across the world. Then they called up the Mayor of Aventura, Ms. Enid Weisman to sing the National Anthem. They then called up Mr. Mike Pregent founder and director of Veterans against the Deal and former intelligence officer. They are representing over 36 years of veteran's who've lost their limbs and their lives because of Iran and their allies. First Mr. Pregent got up and explained how it was a terrible deal. He then said that he had brought some friends from his organization, first he introduced Staff Sergeant Robert Bartlett, he told us how he got injured in 2005 from an IED, and about his army experience. Mr. Pregent then called up the second guest speaker Staff Sergeant Brian Mast who is a Republican candidate running for Congress in Florida's 18th Congressional district. And he told us how he served in the United States armed forces for 12 years, Brian's service also included the honor of serving under the elite Joint Special Operations Command (JSOC) as a bomb disposal expert, and even sacrificed his own legs while disarming an IED to make sure the United States and Israel were safe. He spoke to us about his experience and how he saw his brothers and sisters being blown up and limbs torn off sort of like himself from Iran's own attacks, or giving money to the Taliban, and several other terrorist groups and countries. Mr. Weneck then spoke about the deal again and about how we need a different deal. Dr. Martin Karp who is on the school board of Miami-Dade county public school district 3 and organizer of the protest then spoke about what Chamberlain did in 1938, he skipped all the obvious signs about Hitler yemach shemo vezichro (may his name be erased), so in 2015, Obama is also ignoring the signs of Hassan Rouhani the Iranian President. And this is part of the reason they had a Holocaust that killed millions of people in the first place. So to if Iran gets nuclear weapons there will be another Holocaust. We then went over to Mr. Weneck to thank him, after that we went to Sergeant Bartlett to thank him, we then went to Sergeant Mast and thanked him. We then took a picture with Sergeant Mast, Sergeant Bartlett and Mr. Damon Rosen their unofficial photographer. After that we went back to the Yeshiva. We would like to thank Rabbi Lipsker, Mayor Enid Weisman, Sergeant Bartlett, Sergeant Mast, Mr. Rosen and Mr. Pregent for making this protest a success and thank you to Dr. and Mrs. Karp for arranging the protest and to Professor's Ben and Tyler for driving us and Rabbi Salfer for letting us go.

Motzoi Shabbos Speaker

By Rafi Bausk (Long Island, NY)

This past Motzoi Shabbos we had Rabbi Cash, one of our esteemed Rabbeim speak in the Yeshiva. First Rabbi Cash started by saying, "you should stand up to be seen and sit down quickly to be appreciated". He then said that he learned this from his brother in law at Sheva Brachos and has been saying it ever since. He then started his speech. Imagine a man has two dreams, the first one he comes before Hashem and Hashem asked him did you make time to learn torah, the man said yes. Then he asked were you honest in your business, the man said yes again. Then he asked were you kind to people, the man said yes. Did you make a parnassa to support your family, the man said yes. Then Hashem said if you actually do these four things, you did your purpose on the earth. In the second dream the man saw himself in front of the kotel, and he was complaining. I was never able to be a brain surgeon, or play piano, or have a good business on ebay etc. Then he hears a voice come down from Heaven that says, didn't I tell you all the four things in life you need. I didn't tell you to be a brain surgeon, or piano player. You only have to do these four things, and you will be successful. Then Rabbi Cash compared all the four things you need in life, to things we can do in Yeshiva. We would like to thank Rabbi Cash for speaking this past Motzoi Shabbos.
