

The Travelling History Company

For School holidays

Heritage for Enquiring Minds

Family Historic Outings for Summer 2017

We also arrange bespoke trips at a time and location to suit you.

2nd August Stanton Drew - Heading just south of Bristol, we step back into the Bronze Age at the country's second largest but little known stone circle complex.

25th August, Blaise Estate - Prehistory on the doorstep;
this outing takes you on a journey from the Neolithic up to Roman times along the banks of Hazel Brook and Kingsweston Hill.

14th August - Crickley Hill and Great Witcombe Roman Villa in the Cotswolds.
Explore this fantastic prehistoric and Roman landscape with us.

Bring a picnic, enthusiasm and the dog. Our outings are designed to engage, inspire and educate old and young alike. Enjoy the fresh air, the Great British landscape and our fabulous weather. We charge just £5.00 per person, U5's free.

Please visit our website for more information.

www.thetravellinghistorycompany.com