

Expressions of Interest (EOI) Form

About: The HopBarn is delighted to offer a unique performance opportunity for young musicians aged between 12 and 21 years of age.

The HopBarn will host a special event for young musicians to come and perform their favourite pieces to an open audience.

Whether as a solo artist or as a group, this call out opportunity aims to bring young musicians together to share their musical expertise in a relaxed performance setting.

With one night being dedicated to classical music and more mainstream genres such as jazz, roots, rhythm & blues and alternative; The HopBarn is seeking Expressions of Interest (EOI) from young musicians who are not in professional music training to come and perform.

Dates: Plug In Tune Up will take place on Sunday 22nd September 2019 at 7pm

Please note that whilst the performance times state 7pm, applicants may need to be available during the day for scheduled rehearsals and sound checks

Criteria: The HopBarn welcomes EOI from young musicians who would like the opportunity to perform as part of a collective evening event alongside other young musicians. It is an opportunity to share musical expertise, gain further performance experience and celebrate the richness in musical diversity.

- Applicants must not be undertaking professional music training (Degree level and above) or are currently studying full-time at a recognised music conservatoire
- Applicants must feel that their pieces are rehearsed to a sufficient performance standard
- That the music set offered does not exceed 20 minutes
- Applicants under the tutorage of private music teachers have their consent
- Applicants under the age of 18 have parental consent
- Aside from a Piano, applicants must have access to their own musical instruments
- A basic technical set is provided by The HopBarn for electric instruments, but more specific equipment must be provided by the musician.

The HopBarn is keen to receive applications from musicians who write, compose and perform their own work
