What are we looking for?

We are looking for college students to produce a military history project relevant to St. Louis County, Minnesota veterans.

- (1) A research paper that may address a historical event in St. Louis County, Minnesota, related to a conflict, a war, events on the home front, or that tells the story of a county veteran.
- (2) Minimum of three (3) / maximum of ten (10) double-spaced pages;
- (3) Research papers must include a bibliography;
- (4) Research papers must include the list of sources secured from the Albert J. Amatuzio Research Center (part of the St. Louis County Historical Society).

A minimum of one resource from the Albert J. Amatuzio Research Center must be referenced. Curatorial staff and the VMH Program Assistant are available to assist applicants with possible ideas for research, by appointment: Monday - Friday from 10 AM to 3 PM. Please call 218-576-3114 or 218.733.7500 to make an appointment. If you have specific research questions, you can email them to: samantha@thehistorypeople.org or to jay@thehistorypeople.org.

The research paper will become the property of the Veterans Memorial Hall Program/St. Louis County Historical Society. Based on the quality of the research paper, the St. Louis County Historical Society reserves the right to publish it on its website.

I have read the eligibility requirements, am eligible to participate and agree to the terms. In addition, I am aware that the research paper will become the property of the St. Louis County Historical Society and may be published online.
