

JOURNEY OF FAITH CHURCH

PRIVACY STATEMENT

1 OVERVIEW

Your privacy is of the utmost importance to Journey of Faith Church (JOF). Because we gather certain types of information about our members and guests/visitors, hereafter referred to as ministry participants, we feel you should fully understand our policy and the terms and conditions surrounding the capture and use of that information. This privacy statement discloses what information we gather and how we use it.

2 INFORMATION JOURNEY OF FAITH CHURCH GATHERS AND TRACKS

Journey of Faith Church gathers three types of information about ministry participants:

a. Information that ministry participants provide through optional, voluntary submissions. These are voluntary submissions to receive our electronic newsletters or advertising related to upcoming events, or request reserved seating for special events.

b. Information that ministry participants provide when making donations or contributions. Journey of Faith Church does not collect credit card information. We utilize a third-party organization to collect electronic payments for financial donations and contributions. At most, Journey of Faith Church may collect your name and the amount of the online donation or contribution. Some services, festivals and events, hereafter referred to as church activities, may be recorded and/or photographed. Images of people attending or participating in these church activities may be used and shown in our resources and for other promotional purposes (both print and online). Through attending church activities, you agree to Journey of Faith Church using your image. Your name may or may not be associated with your image. If you wish to opt-out of having your image used, you must inform the photographer/videographer prior to attending the church activity from being included in the photograph/video. Journey of Faith Church cannot control the use of any photographs/videos taken by other participants using their personal devices and posted on their own social media sites.
