

Education & Youth Development

1/3

of Civic Accelerator ventures are focused on creating educational outcomes

of individuals reached by portfolio of edu/youth development ventures

10.9 Million

of individuals mobilized (time, talent, voice, money) by portfolio of edu/youth development ventures

6.9 Million

In the first year following the accelerator, edu/youth ventures increased

of individuals reached by:

665%

of individuals mobilized by:

144%

*Data as of July 2016, collected by the Entrepreneurship Database program at Emory University Semi-Annual Social Enterprise Impact Survey. 67 ventures surveyed from Cohorts 1 - 8. Using 82% of available data for # of individuals reached.

Visit www.civic-x.org to view 60+ more venture stories

Featured Education & Youth Development Ventures

Education & Youth Development

Cohort 8
Opa-Locka, For-Profit

Flying Classroom

Innovation:

A real Magic School Bus offering expeditions around the globe and making it easy for teachers to engage students with STEM+ learning.

Impact to-date:

Expeditions have taken place on 6 continents, 50 countries and several states.

The Henry Ford Learning Institute

Innovation:

Empowers young people to be more innovative and creative in how they think and learn.

Impact to-date:

The HFLI serves 1,900 students and 175 staff members in their four urban Henry Ford Academies.

Education & Youth Development

Cohort 8
Dearborn, Nonprofit

Education & Youth Development

Cohort 9
Atlanta, Nonprofit

The Virtual Scholarship Center

Innovation:

A scholarship preparatory platform that empowers students, counselors and parents to create 4-year college funding strategies.

Impact to-date:

Since inception in 2006, they've helped students secure more than $15 million in private funding sources.

The Prison Scholar Fund

Innovation:

Opens access to postsecondary education and employment opportunities for incarcerated students with financing and mentoring.

Impact to-date:

PSF has directly impacted 114 individuals by creating access to postsecondary education opportunities.

Education & Youth Development

Cohort 9
Seattle, Nonprofit

Visit www.civic-x.org to view 60+ more venture stories