ORDINANCE OF THE TOHONO O'O'ODHAM NATION
(Charter of the Tohono O'odham Community College)

Ordinance No. 98-01

The Tohono O'odham Community College is hereby established by the Tohono O'odham Nation pursuant to Article VI, Section 1(e), of the Nation's Constitution as an exercise of the Nation's sovereign right of self-government and its authority to foster the general welfare and education of Tohono O'odham and others.

CHARTER of the
TOHONO O'O'DHAM COMMUNITY COLLEGE

1.0 ARTICLE 1: NAME, PURPOSES, LOCATION AND PLACE OF BUSINESS, INITIAL DESIGNATED AGENT. The name, purposes, location and place of business, and the initial designated agent of this Nation's entity shall be:

1.1 Name. The name of this Nation's entity is Tohono O'odham Community College (hereinafter "the College").

1.2 Purpose. The College is organized for the purpose of conducting any and all lawful affairs relating to the operation of a successful institution that will serve as the Tohono O'odham Nation's center for higher education, research, culture and tradition. The College is organized as an enterprise of the Nation and shall have and may exercise all those powers set forth herein, effective on the date all Trustees of the Board are appointed and approved as provided in Article IV of this Charter. The College shall have the same tax status and immunities under federal law as the Nation.

1.3 Location and Place of Business. The principal place of business and the office of the College shall be at such place within the territorial jurisdiction of the Tohono O'odham Nation as the Trustees may from time to time authorize, with approval of the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council.

1.4 Initial Designated Agent. The name and address of the initial designated agent of the entity is: Chairperson, Tohono O'odham Nation, P.O. Box 837, Sells, Arizona 85634.

2.0 ARTICLE 2: MISSION

2.1 The mission of the College will be to establish and operate an institution that will serve as the Tohono O'odham Nation's center for higher education, research, culture and tradition, granting post-secondary degrees and certificates, especially that of the Associate Degree, and/or enter into agreements with public or private agencies to offer higher education on the lands of the Tohono

O'odham Nation, and to generally coordinate and regulate all higher education on the lands of the Tohono O'odham Nation.

2.2 Ancillary. To do everything necessary, proper, advisable, or convenient for the accomplishment of the purposes herein above set forth, and to do all things incidental thereto or connected therewith, which are not forbidden by law, this Charter for the College or the Constitution of the Tohono O'odham Nation.

3.0 ARTICLE 3: SEAL

3.1 The seal of the College shall bear the full name, "TOHONO O'ODHAM COMMUNITY COLLEGE" and the figure "1998."

4.0 ARTICLE 4: BOARD OF TRUSTEES

4.1 Powers. The affairs of the College shall be managed by the Board of Trustees ("the Board") of the College. The Board shall act only as a Board of Trustees and the individual Trustees shall have no power as such.

4.2 Direction of purposes and exercise of powers by the Board of Trustees. Subject to applicable laws and regulations of the Tohono O'odham Nation or the United States, the Board shall direct the purposes and exercise the following powers and duties:

4.2.1 The Board shall exercise full power and shall be responsible for:

a. the formulation of all things necessary or desirable as incident to the establishment of the College's organization (the mission and vision of the College), specifying key goals, and ensuring management implements strategies which attain these goals; and

b. the hiring, evaluating, and removal of the College President; and

c. the quality of education provided in the College; and

d. the financial health of the College; and

e. the effectiveness and the efficiency of the Board itself, and the training and evaluation of individual Board members; and

f. the custody and management, operation, inventory and maintenance of all lands, buildings and facilities and other assets set aside therefore by the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council, or otherwise acquired; and

g. the taking of any and all usual necessary and convenient actions incidental thereto including, should it be deemed advisable or desirable, the borrowing of funds, and the making of contracts or commitments necessary to the functioning of the College.

4.2.2 The Board of Trustees shall function in much the same capacity as an elected Board of Directors of a chartered, public service corporation, and shall be responsible for making investment decisions, subject to the limitations contained herein or in any advance of funding; for the establishment and maintenance of effective operating policies for implementation within the first year of operation; the selection of management personnel; and for continued supervision of performance.

4.2.3 The Board of Trustees shall exercise its authorized powers in the best interests of the Tohono O'odham Nation, the College and its students, within the limits of responsible business judgment, fiscal due diligence and with the stipulation that it shall not incur contract obligations in excess of the ability of the College to make payment on the due date. The Board shall appoint, through formal action and such action shall be recorded in written form, two persons, at least one of whom shall be the Chief Financial Officer, who shall be authorized for a specific term to execute all checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, contracts, notes, bonds or other evidence of indebtedness, financial instruments and similar documents on behalf of and in the name of the College. No contract or other transaction between the College and any one of the Directors, Officers and/or employees of the College or an elected official or employee of the Nation or any District, or between this entity and any corporation, partnership, firm or other legal entity in which one or more of the foregoing persons has a financial interest, directly or indirectly, shall be valid for any purpose, unless the entire interest of such person(s) is fully disclosed to the Board and the proposed contract or transaction is approved by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the entire Board who have no interest in the transaction. Under no circumstances are these appointees authorized to bind the entity through contract or otherwise, absent prior formal consent, recorded in writing, by the Board. Such appointments may be revoked at will through formal Board action.

4.2.4 Copies of the written minutes of each meeting of the Board of Trustees shall be kept on file in the office of the College and shall be available to the public for inspection at all reasonable times.

4.2.5 The Chairperson of the Board of Trustees shall, after the completion of an annual fiscal and management audit, make a formal oral and written report to the Chairperson of the Tohono O'odham Nation and to the Tohono O'odham Council, not less often than annually and within 120 days of the close of the fiscal year, and in such report shall include a summary of the budget which the Board has approved for the coming fiscal year and an audit of the prior fiscal year.

4.2.6 The Board of Trustees shall establish in written form, within 180 days from the date the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council approves a Board of Trustees, management and administrative systems, including but not limited to purchasing, accounting, grants and contracts, equipment, personnel, institutional development and/or direct mail fund raising campaigns, financial aid, registration and student policies and procedures for implementation within the first year of operation, giving usual and essential latitude to the College President and the President's delegated employees, but establishing limitations on amounts which may be expended without specific approval of the Board. The Board shall provide copies of all policies and procedures to the Legislative Council, the Chairperson and Vice-Chairperson of the Nation and to each of the Districts within thirty calendar days of acceptance of same by the Board.

4.2.7 The management and administrative systems, described at Section 4.2.6 herein, shall be continuously monitored by the Board through internal reviews and audits and the Board shall have ultimate responsibility to ensure that these systems serve the best interests of the students, the College and the Nation.

4.2.8 Any and all policies and procedures shall be adopted through formal Board action and may be amended from time to time by such action.

4.2.9 The Board shall establish and implement sound accounting and financial systems in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as set forth in Tohono O'odham Legislative Council Resolution No. 94-339.

4.3 Enumerated Powers. Subject to approval by the Tohono O'dham Legislative Council where required and to all applicable laws and regulations of the Tohono O'dham Nation and the United States, and solely in furtherance of the limited purposes set forth in Section 4.2 above, the Board shall have the following powers:

4.3.1 Facilities. The Board shall exercise full authority and shall be responsible for the custody, management and operation of all College property and facilities set aside therefor by the Tohono O'dham Legislative Council, or otherwise acquired; for the lands which have been set aside by the Tohono O'dham Legislative Council with direction to the College to plan, develop and/or operate such lands for College purposes; and for taking of any and all usual, necessary and convenient actions incident thereto.

4.3.2 Capacity to Act. To have the capacity to act and direct the President and employees of the College to act in the same capacity as that of natural persons, but to have authority to perform only such acts as are necessary, convenient or expedient to accomplish the purposes set forth in Section 4.2 above, and such are not repugnant to laws and regulations applicable to the College.

4.3.3 To appoint officers and agents. To elect or appoint officers, agents, teachers, curriculum developers, auditors, and such professional consultants as in the opinion of the Board may be needed from time to time, and to define their duties and fix their compensation. The Board, at College expense, shall require bonding and investigation of all officers, agents or employees responsible for the handling or safeguarding of funds, property or other assets of the College.

4.3.4 To deal in personal property, generally. To acquire (by purchase, exchange, lease, hire or otherwise), hold, own, manage, operate, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, exchange, sell, deal in and dispose of, either alone or in conjunction with others, personal property and interests therein, and commodities of every kind, character and description necessary or incidental to the purposes set forth in Section 4.2 above.

4.3.5 To deal in intellectual property. To acquire (by application, assignment,
4.3.6 To execute guaranties. To make any guaranty, respecting indebtedness, interest, contracts or other obligations lawfully entered into by or on behalf of the College, to the extent that such guaranty is made in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Section 4.2 and subject to the limitation on waiver of sovereign immunity in Section 14 herein.

4.3.7 To make contracts. To enter into, make, perform and carry out or cancel and rescind, contracts for any lawful purposes pertaining to its business necessary or incidental to the purposes set forth in Section 4.2. The Board shall not incur contract obligations in excess of the ability of the College to fully perform when due.

4.3.8 Depository. To designate and approve all depositories used for the deposit of funds of the College.

4.3.9 To approve budgets. To give initial approval to the annual College budget, and to take final approval action with reference to the use of funds under the exclusive control of the College for operating and capital addition purposes.

4.4 Ancillary powers. To have and exercise all powers necessary and convenient to effect any or all of the purposes for which the College is organized.

4.5 No construction of powers as purposes. The powers enumerated herein shall not be construed as purposes but the College shall have and exercise such powers solely in furtherance of, but not in addition to, the limited purposes set forth in Section 4.2 above.

4.6 Membership: Composition, Appointment, Number, Qualifications, Term of Office, Removal.
Composition of the Board. The Board shall be composed of the persons serving at anytime as members of the Board of Trustees of the College as provided in the charter and this Charter herein and as approved by Ordinance of the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council, as amended; it shall select from its own membership a Chairperson of the Board of Trustees and other officers; and it shall adopt such rules as it may determine necessary for the orderly conduct of its business.

Appointment. The board shall be composed of candidates recommended by the Education Committee, the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council, the Chairperson of the Nation and the Districts. Within thirty (30) calendar days of a vacancy on the Board, all candidates recommended thereby shall be forwarded to and reviewed by the Chairperson of the Nation together with the Education Committee. Qualified candidates selected by the Chairperson of the Nation and the Education Committee shall be appointed by the Chairperson of the Nation, and then approved by the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council. No employee of the College, or elected official of the Nation or any District shall be eligible to serve as a Trustee.

Number of Trustees. The Board shall consist of no less than five (5) nor more than eleven (11) persons.

Qualifications. The members of the Board shall be called Trustees and shall have the following minimal qualifications:

a. Shall be a registered member of the Tohono O'odham Nation who,
b. Has sufficient experience, and dedication to higher education to make sound judgments concerning the operation of the College; and
c. Has a minimum of a Bachelor of Arts or Sciences degree from an accredited institution of higher education, except for two Trustees who shall be recognized tribal elders; and
d. Is a recognized professional within their field of endeavor; and
e. Has no adverse finding from a background investigation as conducted by the Elections Office. All candidates for the office of Trustee shall be investigated by the Election Office prior to Term. Trustees shall serve staggered terms. Of the initial Trustees, half shall serve a term of two years, half shall serve a term of three years, and, in the event that there exists an odd number of Trustees, those remaining shall serve a term of four years. Thereafter, all terms shall be for four years. Directors shall be eligible for reappointment upon expiration of their terms of office. The term shall run from the date of confirmation by the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council until subsequent candidates have been confirmed through the process of appointment prescribed in Section 4.6.2 above, or in accordance with the requirements for filling a vacancy as set forth in Section 4.6.6 below, have been satisfied.

Removal, Resignation, Attendance and Vacancies.

(i) Removal. A formal action by a majority of the Board for the removal of a Trustee shall constitute cause for removal. Any Trustee who fails to attend three (3) consecutive properly called and noticed meetings of the Board or who fails to attend two-thirds (2/3) of all Board meetings properly noticed in any fiscal year shall, unless excused from attendance for a justifiable cause, be considered to have resigned his or her trusteeship and may be removed accordingly by the Board through formal action. The Chairperson of the Board shall promptly notify the Chairperson of the Nation concerning any such removal or action.

(ii) Resignation. Any Trustee may resign at any time by giving written notice of such resignation to the Board Secretary. Any such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein, or, if no time is stated, then it shall be effective when received. The Chairperson of the Board shall promptly notify the Chairperson of the Nation concerning any such resignation.

(iii) Vacancies. Any vacancy in the Board of Trustees, either arising from death, resignation, removal, an increase in the number of Trustees, or any other cause, shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the manner prescribed herein for appointment and approval of Trustees.
4.7 Meetings, Voting.

4.7.1 Annual Meeting. A regular, annual meeting of the Board shall be held at 10:30 a.m. on the second Monday of March in each year, or, if such date shall be a legal holiday on the next succeeding business day at the same time, at the principal office of the College, wherever located, or at such time or place as shall be determined by the Board of Trustees and designated in the Notice or Waiver of Notice of the meeting. Notice of such annual meeting shall be provided to each District thirty days in advance. Such annual meetings shall include and allow for participation by the Chairperson of the Nation, the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council, the Districts and the public.

4.7.2 Monthly Meetings. There will be monthly meetings of the Board of Trustees unless insufficient business would not warrant a meeting. The Board Chairperson will have the responsibility of determining whether a monthly Board Meeting is not warranted.

4.7.3 Notice of Monthly Meetings and Agendas. The Trustees will be notified in writing ten days prior to the board meeting; a written, tentative agenda will be included in the notice; the agenda shall be sent with the meeting notification to Trustees, the Chairperson of the Nation, the Legislative Council, the Districts and the public; and the agenda may only be altered by a consensus of Trustees at the meeting. Any Trustee may place an item on the agenda by notifying the Secretary of the Board at least ten days prior to the Board meeting notice requirement. Notice of meetings stating the location, time and date shall be posted at public places within the Nation not less than 5 days nor more than 30 days immediately preceding the meeting, excluding the day of the meeting.

4.7.4 Waiver of Notice. Any meeting of the Board of Trustees and any action otherwise properly taken thereat shall be valid, if notice of the time, place and purposes of such meeting shall be waived in writing before, at or after such meeting by all Trustees to whom timely notices were not sent as provided in this Charter.

4.7.5 Quorum. A majority of the Trustees in office, present in person, or through a telecommunications link when required due to exceptional or emergency circumstances, shall be necessary and sufficient to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of 4.7.6 Action by Majority Vote. Except as otherwise expressly required by law or this Charter, the act of a simple majority of the Trustees present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Trustees. The Board Chairperson has full voting rights in all Board matters.

4.7.7 Voting on Personnel Selections that involve Relatives of Trustees. If an immediate family member (grandparents, parents, uncles and aunts, first cousins, brothers and sisters) of a Trustee applies for a college position, the Trustee member must remove himself or herself from the deliberation on the selection of a relative applying for a college position. The voting on the selection will be by secret ballot. Each Trustee is under an on-going and continuous affirmative obligation to disclose any official matters involving that Trustee's relatives.

4.7.8 Proxy Voting Is Not Allowed. The Board of Trustees shall not permit proxy voting, and no one other than the Trustees shall be allowed to vote on issues before the Board meeting.

4.8 Motions, Minutes, and Records.

4.8.1 An official written record accurately describing the Board discussion and all formal action of the Board shall be maintained in the form of written minutes.

4.8.2 Minutes of all Board meetings shall be made available to all Trustees and to members of the public upon request.

4.8.3 Motions passed by a majority of the Board at a duly constituted meeting and duly recorded in the minutes shall constitute the legal action and legal record of the Board.

4.9 Committees. The Board of Trustees may, by resolution, passed by majority of the entire Board of Trustees, designate one or more committees, each committee to consist of one or more of the Trustees of the College. The Board of Trustees may designate one or more Directors as alternate members of any committee, or may replace any absent or disqualified member at any meeting of the committee. Except to the extent restricted by ordinances of the Tohono O’odham Legislative Council, or Districts, or this Charter, each such committee, to the extent provided by resolution creating it, shall have and exercise all the powers and authority of the Board of Trustees and may authorize the seal of the College to be affixed to all papers which require it. Each such committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Trustees and have such name as may be determined from time to time by resolution adopted by the Board of Trustees. Each committee shall keep regular written minutes of its meetings and report the same to the Board of Trustees.

4.10 Action by Consent. Unless restricted by this Charter or any amendment, any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Trustees or any committee thereof may be taken without meeting if all members of the Board of Trustees or said committee, as the case may be, consent thereto in writing, and the writing or writings are filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Board of Trustees or such committee, as the case may be.

5.0 ARTICLE 5: PRINCIPAL OFFICERS OF THE BOARD

5.1 Number. The principal officers of the Board of Trustees of the College shall consist of a Chairperson, a Vice-Chairperson, and a Secretary.

5.2 General Duties. Officers of the Board of the College shall have the following specific duties and such other duties as may be determined by Board action.

5.2.1 Chairperson of the Board. The Chairperson of the Board shall preside at all meetings of the Board, and shall perform all duties associated with the office of the Chairperson and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to the Chairperson by the Board.

5.2.2 The Vice-Chairperson. The Vice-Chairperson shall act in the capacity of the Chairperson in the absence of the Chairperson. The Vice-Chairperson shall be responsible for any additional duties as designated by the Chairperson of the Board.

5.2.3 The Secretary. The Secretary shall keep or cause to be kept the written minutes of each meeting of the Board of Trustees of the College and all minutes shall be certified by the Secretary. The Secretary shall ensure that all notices are duly given. The Secretary shall be the official custodian of the seal and all records, reports, statements and other documents required by law to be properly kept and filed; and, in general, shall perform all duties incident to the office of the Secretary, and such other duties as from time to time may be assigned to the Secretary by the Board, or the Chairperson. The Secretary may delegate the recording of minutes and/or shall be provided clerical assistance to perform such duties.

5.2.4 Election, Term of Office and Qualification. The officers of the Board shall be chosen by a majority of Trustees at a duly noticed meeting. The appointment is for the individual's term of service.

5.2.5 Removal. Any officer appointed by the Board may be removed by the Board with or without cause.

5.2.6 Resignations. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board Chairperson or the Secretary; such resignation shall take effect at the time specified therein or if no time is specified, when received.

5.2.7 Vacancies. Any vacancy in any office, because of death, resignation, removal, or any other cause shall be filled for the unexpired portion of the term in the manner prescribed herein for election or appointment to such office. A vacancy in the office of Chairperson shall be filled by the Vice-Chairperson.

5.2.8 Other Officers and Agents. The Board may appoint such other officers and agents as it deems necessary or expedient and may determine their duties, terms, and compensation.

6.0 ARTICLE 6: ADMINISTRATORS OF THE COLLEGE

6.1 Administrators of the College. The Administrators of the College shall provide the day-to-day management and administration of the College, which shall include, but not be limited to, Accounting, Education, Student Services, and Institutional Development and Research. The Administrators of the College shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

6.1.1 A College President who shall have general oversight of all management, operations, facilities and staff of the college;
6.1.2 A Chief Financial Officer who shall have responsibility for Accounting, Finance, Property and Supply, Buildings and Grounds, Maintenance, Human Resources;

6.1.3 A Vice-President of Student Services who shall have responsibility for Registration, Financial Aid, Support Services, and Academic Counseling;

6.1.4 A Vice-President for Education who shall have responsibility for the College Library and Archives, Vocational Education, curriculum development, and all other educational departments necessary for undertaking the College's mission to provide higher education; and

6.1.5 A Vice-President of Institutional Development and Research who shall have responsibility for direct donor mailing campaigns and other fundraising efforts, grants and contracts, management information systems.

6.2 Each Administrator shall have such duties and functions as are provided in this Charter or as the Board of Trustees may from time to time determine. The Board of Trustees shall approve such additional Administrators and their appropriate office and responsibilities, or assistant administrators, as it may form time to time determine. One person may hold any two or more of the foregoing Administrator positions, in the event of a vacancy, except the office of President and Chief Financial Officer.

6.3 Terms of Employment.

6.3.1 The Administrators of the College shall only be hired by formal selection of the Board of Trustees.

6.3.2 Each Administrator shall be employed under a written employment contract specifying the conditions of employment, including where applicable the period, amount of salary, surety bond, leave and amount of liquidated damages.

6.3.3 The President shall be responsible to the Board, while all other Administrators shall be responsible to the President.

6.3.4 Each Administrator shall exercise his or her best judgment in the determination of the ways and means by which general policy set forth by the Board is to be effectuated and execute the policies and manage the College only as authorized and directed by the Board and/or the President.

6.3.5 Each Administrator shall render required reports to the Board and/or the President, and perform all other lawful functions and duties specified by the Board.

6.4 President, functions, duties. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the College and shall have direction of all parts of actual operations and general supervision over the affairs of the College, subject, however, to the authority delegated by the Board of Trustees. In general, the President shall perform such duties as are provided for in this Charter and as from time to time may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees. The functions and duties of the President shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

6.4.1 The President shall be present at all meetings of the Board of Trustees.

6.4.2 The President shall render monthly reports to the Board and perform all other functions and duties specified in this section and pursuant to the employment contract between the College and the President.

6.4.3 The President shall not be a voting member of the Board and shall not be a Trustee or officer of the Board.

6.4.4 The President shall have the full authority and control over all employees of the College, with the exception of the authority reserved to the Board herein, and shall be responsible for the actions of the CFO, all Vice Presidents, managers, department heads or other staff carrying out their assignments.

6.5 Vice-President(s). A Vice-President, as appointed by the President, shall be present at the meeting of the Board of Trustees when the President is not present, and shall act on the behalf of the President when the President is not available. A Vice-President shall succeed the President upon the appointment of the Board of Trustees, if the President resigns or leaves his office.

6.6 Chief Financial Officer. The Chief Financial Officer (the "CFO") of the College shall be empowered with the overall financial responsibility to oversee the execution of the financial transactions of the College, and shall maintain all books and accounting thereof with fiscal due diligence. Duties and responsibilities of the CFO shall include, but not be limited to, the following:

6.6.1 The CFO shall work with the President of the College on all matters that affect the College administration and accountability.

6.6.2 In accordance with Section 4.2.3 above, the CFO shall be empowered to sign checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, notes, bonds or other evidences of indebtedness or financial instruments issued in the name of the College, and other legal documents relating to the financial affairs of the College.

6.6.3 The CFO shall be responsible for reviewing, ascertaining and ensuring the requirements of the various grants and contracts that the College handles.

6.6.4 The CFO shall make reports of the finances of the College and other presentations to the Trustees as a whole as deemed necessary by the Trustees and shall also perform such duties as may be assigned by the Board of Trustees and/or the President.

6.6.5 The CFO shall supervise the College's accounting practices including the maintenance of fiscal records, and preparation of financial reports, annual audits and projections.

6.6.6 The CFO shall develop and implement accounting policies, purchasing and contract bidding systems, controls and procedures to assure compliance with applicable law and protection of the College's assets.

6.6.7 The CFO shall supervise the College's functions of accounting, finance and property and supply, buildings and grounds, maintenance, supplies, human resources including design and implementation of policies, controls and procedures.

6.7 Other Administrators. Other administrators approved by the Board of Trustees and/or the President shall, in general, perform such duties as assigned to them by the President or the Board of Trustees.

7.0 ARTICLE 7: GRANTS, CONTRACTS, CHECK, DRAFTS, BANK ACCOUNTS, INSURANCE, VOTING OF SECURITIES, MISCELLANEOUS
7.1 Grants. The Board of Trustees may authorize any two individuals (officers, administrators or agents), in the name and behalf of the College, to make any grants, contributions or otherwise render financial assistance to students or efforts of scholarship as appropriate and in the interests of the College.

7.2 Execution of Contracts. In accordance with Section 4.2.3 above, the Board of Trustees, except as otherwise provided in this Charter, may authorize any two individuals (officers, administrators or agents), at least one of whom shall be the Chief Financial Officer, in the name and on behalf of the College, to enter into any contract or execute and satisfy any instrument, and any such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Any contract or act that shall be approved or ratified by the vote of the majority of the Board of Trustees shall be valid and binding upon the parties. No contract may be entered into without the prior, formal approval of the Board of Trustees or those officer or officers, administrator or administrators, agent or agents so authorized.

7.2.1 No contract or other transaction between the College and any one of the Trustees or College President or staff, or between the College and any corporation, partnership, firm or other legal entity in which one or more of the Trustees or College President or staff has an interest, directly or indirectly, shall be valid for any purpose, unless the entire interest of the Trustee, College President or staff in such corporation, firm or other legal entity is fully disclosed to the Board of Trustees and the proposed contract or transaction shall be approved, ratified or confirmed by the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the entire Board of Trustees who are not so interested.

7.3 Loans. In accordance with Section 4.2.3 above, the Board of Trustees may authorize any two individuals (officers, administrators or agents), at least one of whom shall be the Chief Financial Officer (i) to effect loans and advances any time for the College from any bank, trust company or other institution, or from any firm, corporation or individual (ii) for such loans and advances to make, execute and deliver promissory notes, bonds or other certificates or evidences of indebtedness of the College, and (iii) when authorized to do so to pledge and hypothecate or transfer any securities or other property of the College (excluding leasehold interests) as security for any such loan or advances. Such authority conferred by the Board of Trustees may be general or confined to specific instance. No loans shall be made by the College to any Trustee or officer thereof.

7.4 Checks, Drafts, etc. In accordance with Section 4.2.3 above, all checks, drafts and other orders for payment of money out of the funds of the College, and all notes and other evidences of indebtedness of the College shall be signed on behalf of the College by those individuals appointed by the Board of Trustees for said purpose, and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by this Charter or the Board of Trustees.

7.5 Bank Accounts. The Board may establish and maintain such bank accounts as may be necessary and convenient. The Board shall in accordance with Section 4.2.3 above, authorize any two individuals (officers, administrators or agents), at least one of whom shall be the Chief Financial Officer, to serve as joint signatories on all bank accounts and shall notify the Legislative Council and the Chairperson of the Nation within thirty (30) days of such appointments. Such appointments shall be for a fixed term and shall be revocable at will through formal Board action.

7.6 Deposits. The funds of the College not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the order of the College in such bank, trust companies or other depositories as the Board of Trustees may select or as may be selected by any two individuals (officers, administrators or agents), at least one of whom shall be the Chief Financial Officer, to whom such power may from time to time be delegated by the Trustees through formal Board action in accordance with Section 4.2.3 above.

7.7 Insurance. The College shall maintain appropriate liability and property insurance for its operations and facilities sufficient to protect the interests of the College, and the Nation. Such policies shall designate the Nation as an additional named insured. The College shall maintain workers' compensation insurance, unemployment compensation insurance, fidelity bond or employee theft and dishonesty insurance covering the President and employees, Trustees and officers who handle funds or property, and such other forms of insurance as the Board deems appropriate.

7.8 Voting of Securities Held by the College. Stocks and other securities owned by the College may be voted, in person or by proxy, as the Board of Trustees may authorize from time to time.

7.9 Gifts. The Board of Trustees may accept on behalf of the College any contribution, gifts, request, or devise for the general purposes or for any special purpose of the College.

7.10 Indian Preference in Employment and Contracting. The College shall comply with all provisions of the Nation's Tribal Employment Rights Ordinance, Ord. No. 01-85, including the following requirements:

7.10.1 The College shall give preference to qualified Indians, with first preference to local Indians, in all hiring, promotion, training, lay-offs and all other aspects of employment; and 7.10.2 The College, when awarding contracts in the amount of $5,000 or more for supplies, services, labor and/or materials in which the majority of work will occur within the Nation, shall give preference in contracting to qualified entities certified by the Tohono O'odham Employment Rights Commission as 51% or more Indian owned and controlled, with a first preference to qualified entities that are 51% or more owned and controlled by local Indians.

8.0 ARTICLE 8. COMPENSATION OF OFFICER AND BOARD OF TRUSTEES

8.1 Compensation of Officers. Salaries or other compensation of the officers may be fixed from time to time by formal action of the Board of Trustees provided that, such salaries and compensation shall not be excessive in amount and shall be for services which are reasonable and necessary for performance of the College's purposes.

8.2 Compensation of Trustees. Trustees shall be reimbursed for expenses incurred in attending meetings and performing duties of the Board and the Board may, at its discretion, set a reasonable fee to be paid to its members on a per-meeting-attended or other basis. Such fixed sum, expenses and compensation shall not be excessive in amount and the services performed therefore, must be reasonable and necessary for the College's purposes.

9.0 ARTICLE 9: BOOKS AND RECORDS, FINANCIAL TRANSACTIONS, MISCELLANEOUS

9.1 Books and Records. There shall be kept at the principal office of the College correct and current books of accounts of all the business and transactions of the College, which shall be kept on file in the offices of the College and shall be available for inspection at all reasonable times by authorized representatives of the Tohono O'odham Nation, and the Districts. The accounts and records of the College shall be audited by an independent Certified Public Accountant within 120 days of the close of each fiscal year. The results of such audit shall be included in the reports by the Chairperson of the Board of Trustees to the Chairperson of the Tohono O'odham Nation and the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council.

9.2 Fiscal year. The fiscal year of the College shall be determined by formal action of the Board of Trustees.

9.3 Inventories. An annual physical inventory of assets shall be taken by the President prior to the completion of the annual audit and at such other times as may be directed by the Board of Trustees. A copy of the inventory shall be furnished to the Treasurer of the Tohono O'odham Nation, or the Chief Financial Officer of the Nation in the absence of an appointed Treasurer, within 120 days of the close of the fiscal year and when requested.

9.4 Budgets. A budget of the College for each ensuing year shall be prepared by the President prior to the commencement of the fiscal year of the Board of Trustees. The President and the Board shall discuss the budget at a Board meeting prior to the commencement of the fiscal year. The budget must be approved by the Board no later than the last month of the fiscal year for each ensuing year. The budget shall govern expenditures for the ensuing fiscal year. Pending approval of the budget, expenditures may be made for normal operations at the same rate as the previous year. Capital investment items shall be shown separately from operating items in the annual report. The President shall be responsible for enforcing the budget and will compare actual results against the budget quarterly and as necessary. Amendments to the approved budget may be made with the approval of the President and the Board.

9.4.1 All budgets shall contain: (i) the estimated income and expenditures for the ensuing year by office, division or sub-entity; and (ii) any additional information required by the Board.

10.0 ARTICLE 10: LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Liability and Indemnification. In the absence of criminal conduct, fraud or bad faith, the Trustees of the College shall not be personally liable for its debts, obligations or liabilities; and the College shall indemnify any Trustee, officer or employee of the College or any former Trustee, officer or employee, for reasonable expenses actually and necessarily incurred by him or her in connection with the defense of any civil action, suit or proceeding in which s/he is made a party by reason of being, or having been such Trustee, officer or employee except in relation to matters as to which s/he shall be adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable for gross negligence, willful misconduct in the performance of duty, or otherwise acting beyond the scope of his or her duties. The College shall also indemnify any such Trustee, officer, or employee for reasonable costs of settlement of any such action, suit or proceeding if it shall be found by a majority of the Board, other than Trustees involved in the matter or controversy (whether or not a quorum exists), that it is in the best interest of the College and the Nation that such settlement be made and that such Trustee, officer or employee was not guilty of gross negligence, willful misconduct or other conduct beyond the scope of his or her duties. Such indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights which such Trustees or officer may be entitled, under this Charter, or amendment thereto, agreement, vote of Board of Trustees or members, or otherwise. Anything contained in this Article to the contrary notwithstanding, the College shall in no event indemnify any person otherwise entitled to such indemnification if such indemnification would constitute "self dealing" as defined in Section 4341 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.

11.0 ARTICLE 11: AMENDMENTS OF CHARTER.

11.1 Amendments by Board of Trustees. This Charter or any one or more of the provision(s) thereof, may be amended at any duly constituted annual, regular or special meeting of the Board of Trustees, by two-thirds vote of the Trustees present at such meeting, by changing, altering, suspending, supplementing or repealing the same, if at least five (5) day written notice is given of intention to alter, amend, or repeal or to adopt new by-laws at such meeting.

11.2 Change of Place of Annual Meeting. No amendment of this Charter changing the time and place for holding any annual meeting of the Board of Trustees for the election of the Trustees shall be made within thirty (30) days preceding the holding of any such meeting.

12.0 ARTICLE 12: DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION

12.1 Dissolution by Legislative Council. The College can only be dissolved by action of the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council and pursuant to a plan of dissolution approved by the Legislative Council. Dissolution proceedings shall be initiated by the adoption of a Resolution by the Legislative Council expressing the Council's intent to dissolve the College. The College shall continue in existence during dissolution proceedings to permit the winding up of the College's affairs.

12.2 Powers and Duties of the Management Board 12.2.1 Within 60 days after the date the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council adopts the Resolution prescribed in subsection 12.1, or such other period of time as may be fixed in such Resolution, the Management Board shall submit a plan of dissolution for review and approval by the Legislative Council. The plan of dissolution shall include an anticipated timeframe for execution of the plan and provide the following:

a. The form and procedure for giving notice of the intent to dissolve to every known creditor of the College;

b. an identification of College cash and accounts receivable and steps for collecting such assets;

c. an inventory of all of the College's personal property and other assets identifying which, if any, of the authority's personal property is to be distributed to the Districts in kind, and the methods for disposition of all other assets;

d. an identification of College liabilities and obligations and steps for satisfying or discharging such debts and obligation;

e. an identification of uncollected or unasserted claims and liabilities of the College and steps for making adequate provisions of such claims;

f. steps for identifying and distributing the remainder of the College's assets, both in cash or in kind, to the Nation after all claims have been satisfied or otherwise provided for; and

g. any other acts required to liquidate the College's assets and wind up the College's business.

12.2.2 The College, during dissolution proceedings, shall have only those powers and duties which are authorized in an approved plan of dissolution and are necessary to wind up the College's business.

12.3 Notice of Dissolution. The Management Board shall notify the Chairperson of the Nation and the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council in writing when, in accordance with an approved plan of dissolution, all debts, liabilities and obligations of the College have been paid and
1. discharged, or adequate provision has been made therefor, and all
2. remaining property and assets of the College have been distributed.

12.4 Dissolution. The College shall be dissolved upon formal acceptance of the notice of dissolution by the Tohono O'odham Legislative Council, and this Charter shall be repealed.
