

AGENDA

SUSTAINABLE PLANNING FOR NORTHERN VILLAGES, GRANULAR MATERIAL AND CONSTRUCTION ISSUES

January 23rd 2018: Information Sessions

Participants: Regional Organizations, Experts and Ministry Representatives

9h00-9h30: Introduction

- Welcoming word and introduction to the meeting purposes and planned agenda
 - Presentation of all participants and their objectives pertaining to the meeting
-

9h30-17h00: Presentations & Questions

9h30-10h45

- Presentation by Veronique Gilbert (KRG environment): Overview of Granular Material Issues in Nunavik
 - Presentation by Francine Chagnon (MDDELCC regional office): Regulation respecting pits and quarries
-

10h45-11:00: Break

11h00-12h00

- Presentation by Caroline Vigneault, MTQ: Long term planning of granular material needs and example of quarry management in general
-

12h00-13h15: Lunch Break

13h15-15:30

- Presentation by Michel Allard, Professor and researcher at the Center for Northern Study: Maps of permafrost conditions and potential for construction: tools for sustainable development of Nunavik communities
 - Presentation by Guy Robichaud, SHQ: Foundations for building on permafrost
 - Presentation by Geneviève Vachon & Myriam Blais, Architects and Professors, École d'architecture, Université Laval: Nordic dwellings oriented otherwise: Urban and architectural approaches for culturally appropriate and sustainable development
-

15h30-15h45: Break

15h45-17h00

- Presentation by Tina McCallum (KRG Land-Use Planning): Land Use Planning: What is it good for and where do we start?