

I See Satan Fall Like Lightning...
The Problem of Evil,
The Persistence of Good, and
The Promise of the Kingdom of God

"I saw Satan fall like lightning..." -- Luke 10.18

The problem of evil raises many questions -- especially among people of faith.

What, exactly, is evil? How do we understand its power and presence in the world today -- especially if we believe, as Scripture teaches, that God is good? Where did evil come from? Why does it even exist? How does the witness of the Bible inform and enlighten our understanding of evil as a force and problem in the world today?

Evil represents an intriguing and troubling phenomenon -- from its first mention in Genesis to the description of its ultimate fate in the closing chapters of Revelation. Come and be a part of our discussion about how we face evil from the perspective of our Judeo-Christian faith.
