

PPSP Family Connection Tool

Name List the names of the parents in document who you are providing peer support to.	Information What information is that parent concerned or interested in? This should be both in terms of their system experience as well as other areas (politics, etc.).	Community Describe elements about this parent's community which can include geography, affiliations, associations or other memberships.	Experience Describe elements of this parent's history including system history, experiences with their child's challenges or any other items.	Other Use this box to list other items of interest.

PPSP Family Connection Tool

Name List the names of the parents in document who you are providing peer support to.	Information What information is that parent concerned or interested in? This should be both in terms of their system experience as well as other areas (politics, etc.).	Community Describe elements about this parent's community which can include geography, affiliations, associations or other memberships.	Experience Describe elements of this parent's history including system history, experiences with their child's challenges or any other items.	Other Use this box to list other items of interest.

Key: After you have completed the list use these lines to identify where you can build connections among the parents you are supporting.

	Use a double line to identify those parents who you think have common ground that you could connect them with one another.
	Use a dashed line to identify those parents who you think you would need to get more information from before making a connection.
	Use a dotted line for those families that you think don't have any natural connections.