We just completed our fifth week's Call for salvation of souls' revival in America.

Each week on Wednesdays at noon we are bringing the vision for soul winning back to the forefront of our lives. God has given us a special team of prayer warriors to pray in faith believing. They are so anointed and nationwide. The names are adding up, praise the Lord.

These are the Scriptures leading us and I want you to quote them aloud today as you see God's heart. This is the example the Lord spoke to me for us to follow. So many times I feel so inadequate, and pray for a major break through to get our message and warnings out. Then, the Holy Spirit lifts me up and reveals to me how just one candle will dispel darkness if it is lit.

God spoke to me to pray for one hour on Wednesdays for souls to come into the kingdom - 40 days for 40 weeks, ending the week of the election. Please read carefully the following and let hope soar in you. He is the same God yesterday, today and forever.

August 8 – 11 we are having a conference in Branson, MO including praying over the Wilson Creek battleground of the civil war on the anniversary of its onset. We must avenge the blood of the innocent that took place in 1861-1864. Facing the truth of America's history is part of our mission as intercessors.

During my research of the history of the civil war I discovered prayer preceded it. We have never been taught this. We just celebrated black history month. After visiting this national park and learning the truth, it was evident that the American blacks do not know their history. That will change after our prayer rally in August. We will educate some of the most powerful intercessors in America and get the truth out via our website, television ministry, and Youtube, insightusa and Facebook/fayeusa.

The following is what happened spiritually because one man took a stand and acted against the evil doers.

America's greatest spiritual awakening. How Revival Started in the Marketplace?

Is there a Jeremiah Lanphier among you?

This is a record of something God did 130 years ago in New York City. It illustrates how God has started every harvest time in history, through the concerted prayer of his people. Toward the middle of the last century the glow of earlier religious awakenings had faded. America was prosperous and felt little need to call on God. But in the 1850s .

Secular and religious conditions combined to bring about a crash. The third great panic in American history swept the giddy structure of speculative wealth away. Thousands of merchants were forced to the wall as banks failed, and railroads went into bankruptcy. Factories were shut down and vast numbers thrown out of employment. New York City alone having 30,000 idle men. In October 1857, the hearts of people were thoroughly weaned from speculation and uncertain gain, while hunger and despair stared them in the face.

On 1st July, 1857, a quiet and zealous business man named Jeremiah Lanphier took up an appointment as a City Missionary in down-town New York. Lanphier was appointed by the North Church of the Dutch Reformed denomination. This church was suffering from depletion of membership due to the removal of the population from the down-town to the better residential quarters, and the new City Missionary was engaged to make diligent visitation in the immediate neighborhood with a view to enlisting church attendance among the floating population of the lower city. The Dutch Consistory felt that it had appointed an ideal layman for the task in hand, and so it was.

Burdened so by the need, Jeremiah Lanphier decided to invite others to join him in a noonday prayer-meeting, to be held on Wednesdays once a week.

He therefore distributed a handbill:

Accordingly at twelve noon, 23rd September, 1857 the door was opened and the faithful Lanphier took his seat to await the response to his invitation .. Five minutes went by. No one appeared. The missionary paced the room in a conflict of fear and faith. Ten minutes elapsed. Still no one came. Fifteen minutes passed. Lanphier was yet alone. Twenty minutes; twenty-five; thirty; and then at 12.30 p.m., a step was heard on the stairs, and the first person appeared, then another, and another, and another, until six people were present and the prayer meeting began. On the following Wednesday, October 7th, there were forty intercessors. Thus in the first week of October 1857, it was decided to hold a meeting daily instead of weekly.

Within six months, ten thousand business men were gathering daily for prayer in New York, and within two years, a million converts were added to the American churches.. (LORD, DRAW THOUSANDS TO PRAY WITH US ON WEDNESDAYS)

Undoubtedly the greatest revival in New York's colorful history was sweeping the city, and it was of such an order to make the whole nation curious. There was no fanaticism, no hysteria, simply an incredible movement of the people to pray. (DO IT AGAIN LORD)(From J. Edwin Orr, The Light of the Nations pp. 103-105)

THE LAYMAN'S PRAYER REVIVAL 1857-58

By Oliver Price

Hell Corner, New Hampshire was a stronghold of sin. The Layman's Prayer Revival sweeping all over America invaded this wicked village and turned some hardened sinners to God. America's moral recovery was under way.

In 1858 in great cities and small towns all over America, people were assembling every night for prayer. In fact, you could travel by horse and buggy from Omaha, Nebraska to Washington, D.C. and expect to find churches packed for prayer wherever you might stop for the night. This prayer movement began in the fall of 1857 and was known as the Layman's Prayer Revival because there were businessmen (rather than ministers) who were leading.

This movement of prayer invaded even the village of Hell Corner, New Hampshire. Prayer, of course, was unheard of in this stronghold of sin. However, one day a man unleashed a volley of profanity so outrageous that even the citizens of Hell Corner were shocked. Jokingly, somebody said, "We need a prayer meeting here in Hell Corner." To everyone's amazement plans got underway for a village prayer meeting. Finding someone to lead it proved to be quite a challenge. One notorious backslider tried to lead, but he broke down while praying. So they went to a nearby town and found a deacon who came to lead a prayer meeting in this citadel of evil. God answered prayer and four hardened men became Christians. Soon prayer gave birth to a group of godly believers proving that the gates of hell cannot prevail against the fervent prayers of people who trust the Almighty.

This prayer movement had its roots in 1856 when a Methodist named William Arthur published a book of fiery sermons which closed with a prayer pleading with God to “Crown this nineteenth century with a revival of pure and undefiled religion...greater than any demonstration of the Spirit ever vouchsafed to man.” His prayer was answered when the greatest revival in American history began the next year.

Before the prayer awakening there was a major spiritual decline. Churches were sliding downhill. Thousands of Americans were disillusioned with Christianity. William Miller, a New England farmer, had captured nationwide attention with his prediction that Christ would return on October 22nd, 1844. When nothing happened, many abandoned their faith.

American’s moral recovery began when Jeremiah Lanphier, a concerned layman, started a noon prayer meeting for New York businessmen. Only six people came to the first prayer meeting on September 23, 1857 on the third floor of the “Consistory” of the Old Dutch Reformed Church on Fulton Street. By spring daily prayer meetings sprang up in many locations and daily attendance grew to 10,000. America’s greatest spiritual awakening was underway.

During the Layman’s Prayer Revival, the owner of a hardware store in New York urged businessmen at the Fulton Street prayer meeting to always set a holy example. A well-known manufacturer followed him to his store and confessed that he had cheated him for years and wanted to pay back all he had stolen.

When the news spread that there were daily prayer meetings where sinners were welcomed, prayed for, and encouraged to turn to Christ, some hardened criminals were saved. A notorious criminal nicknamed “Awful Gardiner” surprised everyone when he found Christ through the prayer meetings. He was not alone.

Hundreds of people who had always spent their nights in the gates of hell came to the prayer meetings that had begun in the evenings. Thousands forsook crime and became devoted followers of Christ. Crime and vice drastically declined. Wealthy people generously helped the poor whom they regarded as their brothers and sisters.

Ships coming into New York harbor came under the power of God’s presence. On one ship a captain and thirty men were converted to Christ before the ship docked. Four sailors knelt for prayer down in the depths of the battleship North Carolina anchored in the harbor. They began to sing and their ungodly shipmates came running down to make fun, but the power of God gripped them and they humbly knelt in repentance.

“Do you have to stop business at noon and go to a prayer meeting?” A customer from Albany asked a New York City merchant. “Yes, I must. Why don’t you go with me?” The customer went with him and received Christ. He returned to Albany and started prayer meetings there.

In March of 1858 a religious journal reported that “The large cities and towns from Maine to California are sharing in this great and glorious work. There is hardly a village or town to be found where ‘a special divine power’ does not appear displayed.”

In Chicago 2,000 men met at noon for prayer in Metropolitan Hall. In Jayne’s Hall in Philadelphia 4,000 were meeting. An elderly philanthropist named John Crozer wrote in his diary, “I have never, I think, been present at a more stirring and edifying prayer meeting, the room quite full, and a divine influence seemed manifest. Many hearts melted, many souls devoutly engaged.”

In December of 1857 in Utica, New York attendance at a weekly union prayer meeting increased so rapidly that by the third meeting the main floor and the balcony of the First Presbyterian Church were filled with deeply burdened people. Then daily prayer meetings were started each morning.

One night when Dr. John L. Girardeaux dismissed the prayer meeting for spiritual awakening at Anson Street Presbyterian Church in Charleston, South Carolina, no one left. The congregation stayed until midnight while the Lord powerfully worked. Eight weeks of nightly meetings followed reaching crowds numbering from 1,500 to 2,000. Many turned to the Lord.

The New York Observer published a report from Waco, Texas of a mighty moving of God. “Day and night the church has been crowded during the meeting...Never before in Texas have we seen a whole community so effectually under a religious influence ...thoroughly regenerated.”

The power of prayer touched every aspect of business. There had never been a higher tone of honor. The Bible became the standard. Any business that injured the community was regarded as wrong. People in every kind of business began to be more honest, truthful and conscientious.

At least three thousand came to Christ in Newark, New Jersey. In many smaller towns scarcely any unconverted people remained. In Haverhill, Mass., the Spirit deeply moved the crowded daily prayer meeting. Sometimes half of the assembly silently wept. One pastor found at least one person in every home in his congregation deeply concerned about their relationship with God.

An unsaved man went to the prayer meetings on Fulton Street in New York hoping someone would help him. But none did. Then one day he heard a mother’s request for her son’s salvation. He discovered that note was from HIS OWN mother! Soon afterwards he found Christ. In Kalamazoo, Michigan a woman turned in a request for her husband’s salvation. One man responded, “Pray for me. I’m that man.” Four more men did likewise. A wealthy young New Yorker was born again at a noon prayer meeting. Upon returning home he read from the Bible and knelt to pour out a fervent prayer for his wife and sister.

His wife and his sister knelt beside him and wept as they also received Christ. One man disowned his daughter when she confessed Christ. However, when he fell deathly sick, he sent for her and asked her forgiveness. She shared Christ with him. Within three days her father, mother, two brothers, and a sister entered the family of God.

March of 1858 the voice of prayer and praise to God was heard beginning at 8:30 every morning in the halls of the New York state capitol. Six people began a prayer meeting for the Legislature. By the fifth day two rooms were filled and interest was growing. In 1858 in Louisville, Kentucky 1,000 attended the daily union prayer. One writer exclaimed, “The Spirit of God seems to be brooding over our city, and to have produced an unusual degree of tenderness and solemnity in all classes.” An amazing work of grace was changing the city.

Some of the leading business men of Boston were attending prayer meetings. An unusual number of people who had lived wicked lives also came. One writer said, “Publicans and sinners’ are awakened, and are entering the prayer meetings of their own accord. Some of them manifest signs of sincere repentance.”

March - New York, America (Jeremiah Lanphier)

At the beginning of 1858 that Fulton Street prayer meeting had grown so much they were holding three simultaneous prayer meetings in the building and other prayer groups were starting in the city. By March newspapers carried front page reports of over 6,000 attending daily prayer meetings in New York, 6,000 attending them in Pittsburgh, and daily prayer meetings were held in Washington at five different times to accommodate the crowds.

Other cities followed the pattern. Soon a common mid-day sign on businesses read, 'Will re-open at the close of the prayer meeting.'

By May, 50,000 of New York's 800,000 people were new converts. A newspaper reported that New England was profoundly changed by the revival and in several towns no unconverted adults could be found!

In 1858 a leading Methodist paper reported these features of the revival: few sermons were needed, lay people witnessed, seekers flocked to the altar, nearly all seekers were blessed, experiences remained clear, converts had holy boldness, religion became a social topic, family altars were strengthened, testimony given nightly was abundant, and conversations were marked with seriousness.

Edwin Orr's research revealed that in 1858-59 a million Americans were converted in a population of thirty million and at least a million Christians were renewed, with lasting results in church attendances and moral reform in society.

THE IMPORTANCE OF SOULWINNING

By Dr. R. B. Ouellette | February 08, 2012

BECAUSE GOD COMMANDS IT

Soulwinning is not an option. It is not a spiritual gift. It is not a church growth program. It is a clear, unequivocal, unavoidable command of God.

BECAUSE THERE IS A HELL

Psalm 9:17 still says, "The wicked shall be turned into Hell and all the nations that forget God." Revelation 21:8 still says those without Christ will have their part in the lake that burns with fire and brimstone.

BECAUSE WE KNOW HOW TO ESCAPE HELL 1

Corinthians 15:34 says: "Awake to righteousness and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame"

BECAUSE THERE IS A HEAVEN BECAUSE IT GLORIFIES GOD

John 15:8 says: "Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples." There are those who say that our prime motivation is not to win people to Christ but to glorify God. I do not disagree with them, but I must remind them that the Bible clearly says God is glorified when we bring forth much fruit.

BECAUSE IT PERPETUATES TRUTH FOR THE NEXT GENERATION

The Lord Jesus tells us that believers are like wheat and unbelievers are like tares. Wheat must be planted every season. It never regenerates itself. Weeds grow automatically. It takes nothing for wrong to prevail and evil to predominate. It takes great effort for righteousness to be perpetuated.

BECAUSE IT DEMONSTRATES THE POWER OF GOD BECAUSE OUR HANDS WILL BE STAINED WITH THE BLOOD OF THE LOST WE DON'T TELL

"When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him no warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his wickedness.

Daniel 12:3, "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever."

WHY SHOULD A CHRISTIAN BE A SOULWINNER?

It is Commanded

Matthew 28:19-20, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen."

The Example of the Disciples

Mark 1:17-18, "And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of men. And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him."

It Glorifies God John 15:8

"Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples."

It Delivers Souls From Hell Ezekiel 3:17-18

"Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand."

There are Crowns and Rewards 1 Thessalonians 2:19 "For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?" Daniel 12:3, "And they that be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever."

BIBLE EXAMPLES OF SOULWINNERS

God could have used angels to spread the gospel but He didn't. He chose to use you! God uses people to bring people to Jesus. Samuel led Saul to the Lord. David spoke of soulwinning in Psalms 51:13. Andrew brought Peter to Christ. Philip brought the Greeks to Jesus and also won the eunuch in Acts 8. Jesus was constantly winning souls. He won Nicodemus by telling him of the second birth in John 3.

He won the women at the well by talking to her about the living water. Then she brought the entire town to see Jesus. Jesus led Zachaeus to salvation in a tree. In the country of the Gadarenes Jesus won the soul of the devil-possessed maniac. The maniac, once saved, published the gospel throughout the region. Even while Jesus was at the point of death He won the thief on the cross. The book of Acts is the account of the early Christians soulwinning house to house and witnessing to individuals and groups as the Lord allowed.

VICTORY OVER SIN: 1 John 4:4, "Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world."

LIVING FOR OTHERS: Philippians 2:4, "Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others."

"Let the redeemed of the Lord say so" says the Psalms. God has given us a voice to use to spread the good news of salvation.

funds has gone towards silencing victims of rape by high-level government officials.

Rep. Jackie Speier told MSNBC that the U.S. House of Representatives alone has spent at least $15 million to settle sexual misconduct lawsuits in the last decade.

Thefreethoughtproject.com reports: “We really need to reform the entire Office of Compliance process,” Speier said. “Right now it takes about 90 days for you to file a complaint, and before actually going through the mediation, you have to sign a non-disclosure agreement and then you are not represented by counsel, but the harasser is represented by the House of Representatives general counsel.” Lawmakers should be called out.

- Between 1997 and 2017, Congress paid $17 million in settlements
- The money comes from a fund set up to handle settlements within the US Treasury

(CNN)Two things have become painfully clear on Capitol Hill this week: Lawmakers and staffers say sexual harassment is “rampant” -- but even members of Congress have no idea just how widespread the problem is.

So far, there’s been little specific data to help illuminate just how pervasive sexual harassment is on Capitol Hill, but one figure has emerged: the total that the Office of Compliance, the office that handles harassment complaints, has paid to victims. On Thursday, the Office of Compliance released additional information indicating that it has paid victims more than $17 million since its creation in the 1990s. That includes all settlements, not just related to sexual harassment, but also discrimination and other cases.

An OOC spokeswoman said the office was releasing the extra data “due to the interest in the awards and settlement figures.” The OOC has come under fire in recent days for what lawmakers and Hill aides alike say are its antiquated policies that do not adequately protect victims who file complaints.

CNN has also learned that during the current Congress, no settlement payment approval requests have been made to the congressional committee charged with approving them.

Paul Ryan orders mandatory sexual harassment training for members of staff

Here’s what we know -- and what we don’t know -- about that money:

When was this money paid out?

According to a report from the Office of Compliance, more than $17 million has been paid out in settlements over a period of 20 years -- 1997 to 2017. How many settlements have there been?

According to the OOC data released Thursday, there have been 268 settlements. On Wednesday, Rep. Jackie Speier, the California Democrat who unveiled a bill to reform the OOC, announced at a news conference Wednesday that there had been 260 settlements. The previous tally did not include settlements paid in 2015, 2016 and 2017.

Where did the settlement money come from? Taxpayers. Once a settlement is reached, the money is not paid out of an individual lawmaker’s office but rather comes out of a special fund set up to handle this within the US Treasury -- meaning taxpayers are footing the bill. The fund was set up by the Congressional Accountability Act, the 1995 law that created the Office of Compliance. How many of the settlements were sexual harassment-related?

It’s not clear. Speier told CNN’s Wolf Blitzer on Wednesday that the 260 settlements represent those related to all kinds of complaints, including sexual harassment as well as racial, religious or disability-related discrimination complaints. The OOC has not made public the breakdown of the settlements, and Speier says she’s pursuing other avenues to find out the total.

In its latest disclosure, the OOC said that statistics on payments are “not further broken down into specific claims because settlements may involve cases that allege violations of more than one of the 13 statutes incorporated by the (Congressional Accountability Act).”

Who knows about the settlements and payments? After a settlement is reached, a payment must be approved by the chairman and ranking member of the House administration committee, an aide to Chairman Gregg Harper, a Mississippi Republican, told CNN.

A source in House Speaker Paul Ryan’s office told CNN that Ryan is not made aware of the details of harassment settlements. That source also said that the top Democrat and Republican on the House administration committee review proposed settlements and both must approve the payments. What do these settlements tell us about the scope of the sexual harassment problem on Capitol Hill? And the number of settlements reached may not be indicative of how widespread sexual harassment is, as many victims chose not to proceed with OOC’s process for handling complaints.

In response, Todd said, “If the taxpayers are involved, don’t we have the right to know?” “I think you do have the right to know,” Speier replied. “But right now, under the system, you don’t have a right to know.”

The congresswoman, who is a member of the House Intel Committee, then added that the sum of those taxpayer-funded settlements is not small, and has been building up over the last decade. “We do know there is about $15 million that has been paid out by the House on behalf of harassers in the last ten to 15 years,” she said.

When Todd pressed for details, Rep. Speier said that she could not reveal how many members of Congress were involved, or who they were, because of the heavy non-disclosure agreements surrounding the cases.

One glaring example of a member of Congress who was both a rampant sexual predator and a pedophile, was former House Speaker Dennis Hastert. Although he is an admitted child rapist, Hastert was instead sentenced to prison for illegally structuring bank transactions in an effort to cover up his sexual abuse of young members of a wrestling team he coached. He was set free after just 15 months, and has since demanded that one of his victims return $1.7 million in hush money.

The allegations about conduct that former staffer Winsome Packer said occurred from January 2008 to February 2010 — which the Broward-Palm Beach county congressman has repeatedly denied — wended their way through the legal system and congressional ethics process for years.

These are just a few examples of what corrupt members of Congress are covering up. They are trashing out u s Constitution by wasting trillions of dollars in unconstitutional spending.

We must fight for our Social Security Pensions and bring down the evil doing of people we elected to Congress and to the Presidency. Now is the time to do that.

VIP SOCIAL SECURITY UPDATE

Carol is editing my book....Social Security is not and Entitlement soon to be published. In order to confront the raiding of the$ 2.8 trillion in the Social Security Trust Fund by Congress. Thank God, funds came in to start our national campaign on behalf of those on Social Security receiving less than $1,000 per month, who, unlike illegal aliens and refugees, get NO federal subsidies or year end tax credits.

In the book you will see how former Presidents and Congress give themselves full pay for life, etc. as well as federal employees major pensions as they do not pay into Social Security. This is unconstitutional but who is watching????

We are making a high end spot to alert seniors of our campaign recruiting them to join us and demand all SS funds be repaid, all seniors be given a minimum wage month pension, all members of Congress be on Social Security like the rest of us. It is going to take funds to get this message out and we are believing God to touch those He has blessed to sow seeds into the well being of the widows and fatherless.

Please write me a note if you are one that receives less than $1,000 per month, each. Give me your name Address, phone number and if you are working another job. It is important for you to do this.

PRAYER POINTS

When the wicked are in authority, the people mourn!

Your Spiritual Authority

A solid understanding of spiritual authority is vital to build your faith when casting out demons, healing the sick, and exercising your authority over the powers of darkness.

When we have been given authority to cast out demons, but instead we pray that God brings the demon out instead, we are basically asking God to do something that He gave US the tools to do ourselves! Jesus told US to cast out demons! Nowhere in the Bible does it tell us to ask God to cast out demons! Mark 13:34, "For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch."

How authority works

Authority doesn't beg; authority doesn't ask; authority commands! We are not told to ask God to cast out demons, we are told to do it ourselves! We are not told to beg demons to come out, we are told to CAST them out!

Matthew 8:8-9, 13, "The centurion answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldst come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. For I am a man under authority, having soldiers under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it... And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour."

Authority is exercised through our spoken word. The power of life and death are in the spoken word: Proverbs 18:21, "Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof."

Take authority over every hidden criminal act of members of congress or federal agency leader, especially DOJ, FBI, SPECIAL COUNSEL, MUELLER OR LIBERAL LAWYERS CONGRESS HAS FUNDED TO CREATE A CRIME TO REMOVE PRES. TRUMP FROM OFFICE.

QUOTE THESE SCRIPTURES OVER PAUL RYAN, MITCH MCCONNELL, JEFF SESSIONS, AND ANYONE ELSE THE HOLY SPIRIT BRINGS TO MIND. It is very clear that the ultimate reason the Bible instructs us to intercede on behalf of our leaders is so that they might come to the saving knowledge of Jesus Christ. "This (our intercession) is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior, who desires all men to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth" (1 Timothy 2:3-4).

God's desire is that as many people as possible be saved before He returns. He commands "all men everywhere to repent" (Acts 17:30), so that they might escape the eternal wrath of God at the judgment.

Praying for those in authority means that we are constantly asking that the Lord will open their hearts to the truth of the Gospel message, and receive Christ as their Savior.
