PRESIDENT TRUMP: "You are not alone!"

62 million of us are watching corruption rule our Congress and Senate. Our voices are muted by bullies, but we are here. Our nation's sovereignty, freedom and U.S Constitution is under siege. Licensed to lie is what the democrats feel is their duty. Most Americans are overwhelmed and just copping out that are paying attention. This can no longer continue. The godless have learned how to win elections. The freeloaders and liberals are now "one." Doing the right thing, standing for what is best for this nation based on Biblical values is not the priorities of the majority of elected officials. Christians can no longer ignore the wicked in authority.

Our prayer teams are vital. The disrespect of our President, Oval Office by RHINOs and democrat members of Congress is a disgrace. Their reasons invented to investigate him and his family MUST CEASE. We must hold these Saul Alinsky comrades accountable for abuse of power. Our President MUST NOT STAND ALONE. Look at grass roots foundation of the sabotaging of our President. We must get to the root of the matter. Meet the 13 Republicans who rebuked Trump over his national emergency.

President wants to fund a wall at the U.S - Mexico border

Posted Feb 26, 2019 7:27 PM

Democrats are targeting Washington Rep. Jaime Herrera Beutler in 2020. The congresswoman was among 13 Republicans who voted for the Democrats' disapproval resolution Tuesday evening. Thirteen Republicans rebuked President Donald Trump on Tuesday, supporting a Democratic effort to block his national emergency declaration to fund a wall at the U.S.-Mexico border.

A resolution of disapproval to overturn Trump's move passed the House by a vote of 245-182, with almost every Democrat and 13 Republicans supporting the measure. Trump declared a national emergency earlier this month when Congress failed to meet his request of $8 billion for a barrier along the southern border. Here are the 13 Republicans who pushed back on the national emergency declaration: Michigan Rep. Justin Amash The five-term congressman was the only GOP lawmaker to co-sponsor the disapproval resolution, arguing that the national emergency declaration usurped Congress' constitutional role. Amash blasted fellow Republicans who decried executive overreach under former President Barack Obama, saying in a tweet, “If your faithfulness to the Constitution depends on which party controls the White House, then you are not faithful to it.” Inside Elections with Nathan L. Gonzales rates his 3rd District race as Solid Republican. Trump carried the seat by 9 points in 2016, and Amash won re-election last year by 11 points. The DCCC did not list Amash as one of its 2020 targets.

He is once again a top Democratic target after defeating self-funder Scott Wallace by nearly 3 points last fall. Inside Elections rates his re-election race Tilts Republican.

Wisconsin Rep. Mike Gallagher

Gallagher said recently that he was concerned with the precedent a national emergency would set. Trump carried his 8th District by 18 points in 2016, and Gallagher easily won a second term last year. Inside Elections rates his race Solid Republican.

Washington Rep. Jaime Herrera Beutler

Herrera Beutler announced earlier this month that she did not support Trump’s move to declare a national emergency, saying it set a “dangerous precedent.” She is a DCCC target this cycle after winning a fifth term last fall by 5 points against college professor Carolyn Long. Trump carried the 3rd District, which includes Vancouver, by 7 points in 2016. Inside Elections rates the race Likely Republican.

Texas Rep. Will Hurd

Hurd is the only Republican representing a district along the U.S.-Mexico border. The three-term lawmaker said during a recent appearance on CBS’ Face the Nation that a national emergency to secure funding would set a “dangerous precedent” and infringe on Texas ranchers and farmers. Hurd, a former CIA agent, represents the expansive 23rd District, which stretches from San Antonio to El Paso, and backed Clinton by 3 points in 2016. Hurd narrowly won re-election in November, defeating former Air Force intelligence officer Gina Ortiz Jones by half a point. Inside Elections rates his re-election race a Toss-up.

South Dakota Rep. Dusty Johnson

The freshman Republican, who was a telecommunications executive before running for Congress, is the at-large member for a state that Trump carried by nearly 30 points in 2016. Inside Elections rates his re-election Solid Republican.

Kentucky Rep. Thomas Massie

Massie often votes with the most conservative lawmakers, although he is not a member of the hard-line House Freedom Caucus. Trump carried his safe Republican seat by 36 points in 2016. Massie tweeted Tuesday, “There is a crisis at our border, but it’s not an emergency when Congress doesn’t spend money how the President wants.”

Washington Rep. Cathy McMorris Rodgers

The former House GOP conference chairwoman bucked her party after voicing concerns about a Democratic president using national emergency powers to advance his or her agenda. McMorris Rodgers was not listed as a DCCC target in 2020 after fending off former state Senate Majority Leader Lisa Brown by 10 points last year. Trump carried her 5th District by 13 points in 2016. Inside Elections rates the 5th District race Solid Republican.

Florida Rep. Francis Rooney

The sophomore Republican represents a safe GOP seat that Trump carried by more than 20 points in 2016. Rooney, a former ambassador to the Vatican, won re-election last fall by nearly 25 points. Inside Elections rates his 2020 race Solid Republican.

Wisconsin Rep. Jim Sensenbrenner

The longtime congressman recently said that Trump's declaration sets a "dangerous precedent" for future administrations. Sensenbrenner is from a safe Republican seat that Trump carried by 20 points in 2016.

New York Rep. Elise Stefanik

Stefanik often sides with moderates in the GOP conference and hasn't hesitated to buck the president and party leadership. She voted against her party's tax overhaul in 2017. Democrats have tried targeting her upstate New York seat, but she easily won a third term last fall, defeating her Democratic opponent by 14 points. She's not a Democratic target in 2020, and Inside Elections rates her re-election Solid Republican.

Michigan Rep. Fred Upton

Upton won a 17th term by less than 5 points last fall, and Democrats are once again targeting his suburban seat in 2020 amid speculation that the former chairman of the Energy and Commerce Committee might decide to retire. Trump carried his 6th District with just over 50 percent of the vote in 2016. Inside Elections rates the race Likely Republican.

Oregon Rep. Greg Walden

Walden broke with his party in recent votes to open the government and said recently that he objected to a president acting outside his spending authorities. A former National Republican Congressional Committee chairman, Walden is not a DCCC target. Trump carried his district by 20 points in 2016 and Inside Elections rates his race Solid Republican.

Dems block 'born alive' bill to provide medical care to infants who survive failed abortion
By Caleb Parke, ReFox News

Sasse on pro-life bill defeat: A baby has dignity and worth. Nebraska Sen. Ben Sasse weighs in on the defeat of his pro-life bill to protect abortion survivors. Senate Democrats on Monday blocked a Republican bill that would have threatened prison time for doctors who don't try saving the life of infants born alive during failed abortions, leading conservatives to wonder openly whether Democrats were embracing "infanticide" to appeal to left-wing voters. All prominent Democratic 2020 presidential hopefuls in the Senate voted down the measure, including Bernie Sanders of Vermont, Kamala Harris of California, Cory Booker of New Jersey, Kirsten Gillibrand of New York, Amy Klobuchar of Minnesota and Elizabeth Warren of Massachusetts. The final vote was 53-44 to end Democratic delaying tactics -- seven votes short of the 60 needed.

ABORTION SURVIVOR: SENATE DEMS ARE 'WILLING TO SACRIFICE LIVES LIKE MINE TO KEEP ABORTION-ON-DEMAND'

Three Democrats joined Republicans to support the bill -- Joe Manchin of West Virginia, Bob Casey of Pennsylvania and Doug Jones of Alabama. Three Republicans did not vote, apparently because of scheduling issues and plane flight delays -- including Kevin Cramer of North Dakota, Lisa Murkowski of Alaska and Tim Scott of South Carolina. The Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act would have required that "any health care practitioner present" at the time of a birth "exercise the same degree of professional skill, care, and diligence to preserve the life and health of the child as a reasonably diligent and conscientious health care practitioner would render to any other child born alive at the same gestational age." Senate Democrats just voted against legislation to prevent the killing of newborn infant children. The Democrat position on abortion is now so extreme that they don't mind executing babies

AFTER birth.

Donald J. Trump @realDonaldTrump

This will be remembered as one of the most shocking votes in the history of Congress. If there is one thing we should all agree on, it's protecting the lives of innocent babies. The bill, which exempted the mother involved in the birth from prosecution, also would have required practitioners to "ensure that the child born alive is immediately transported and admitted to a hospital." It prescribed a possible term of imprisonment of up to five years for violations, not including penalties for first-degree murder that could have applied. Other pro-life activists called on the 44 senators who voted against Sasse's bill to resign immediately. Pro-life activists protesting outside of the U.S. Supreme Court during the March for Life in Washington last month. (AP Photo/Jose Luis Magana, File) Tonight, the Senate failed to pass key pro-life legislation that would have guaranteed medical care to babies who survive attempted abortions. The legislation would have effectively criminalized infanticide nationwide, required abortionists to provide lifesaving care, and ensure the surviving babies get admitted to a hospital.

Although the bill would have passed on a simple majority vote, a large pro-abortion minority in the Senate killed the bill. 44 Democrat Senators voted against cloture on the motion to proceed for the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act (S. 130), effectively killing the lifesaving bill.

It is unthinkable that any U.S. Senator would vote to support infanticide and allow medical care to be denied to a living, breathing, helpless human being. It is shameful, and at the ACLJ we are naming each and every Senator who voted against this crucial bill. Despite the measure's failure tonight, it is heartening that it did receive a bipartisan majority of 53 votes, including 3 Democrats: Senators: Joe Manchin (D-WV), Doug Jones (D-AL), and Bob Casey Jr. (D-PA).

Yet, the Senate's failure to support this sensible legislation is truly disheartening.

This should not be a political issue. Infanticide is an issue that is literally life and death, and this bill sought to protect the most vulnerable in our society. Senator Ben Sasse, who introduced the legislation in the Senate, wrote in an op-ed, “Public officials, at all levels and in every party, should be able to condemn infanticide and come to the defense of the weakest members of our society.”

This bill should have been an easy opportunity for Senators to show Americans that they see all life as being worthy and having dignity. Yet, once again, they have failed to defend the most defenseless members of humanity. The Senate showed us tonight where they stand on this issue and we must continue to press them to stand with life at every given opportunity. The abortion lobby has once again moved the “line” on when exactly life should be protected. The radical Left’s new litmus test has moved past “safe, legal, and rare” to supporting outright infanticide. ## FAYE'S PROPHETIC INSIGHT

There are a few of us who see thru the hood winking of American citizens. God is allowing the truth to prevail. Friends, we must discern and pray according to the spiritual insight. What we are up against is the take over of our freedom to worship the Living God thru Jesus Christ , our Lord. The method now being promoted is Socialism. It is being the vehicle to put the accusers to charge RACISM as the excuse to silence and control us. Don't buy the lie or the deceit. The facts are that the end result is to make it illegal to criticize Islam, Allah, Muslims. CHRISTIANITY WILL BE OUTLAWED and that is right around the corner. How do we fight back? Christians must be educated and enlightened. There is no room for compromise. We must pray and believe for lawless Lawmakers who plan and are using their power to mock God out of office. We will send His Word and the wind of God will blow them down.

We need to take note: SPYING ON AMERICANS IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL AND ILLEGAL. THERE MUST BE A CRIME TO INVESTIGATE. IT IS AN ACT OF TREASON TO INVESTIGATE A PERSON OR SPY ON AN INNOCENT CITIZEN. LAWLESS LAWMAKERS HAVE SPENT $30 million funding Robert Mueller and friends for the purpose of removing a President 62 million of us elected.

WE ALLOWED THIS BY OUR SILENCE. Look at the facts and insight from Rush. We are getting to the root of the matter. We will educate and pray accordingly. Our nation is sick. We must be healed. However, God is waking us up. We will stand against evil doers.

RUSH LIMBAUGH: BARACK OBAMA WANTS BACK IN WHITE HOUSE

'Look, this is the guy that put God reverb on his microphone at public appearances. Barack Obama simply cannot believe that Americans voted for a president who would destroy his progressive legacy. And so he's going to try to go back to the White House in 2020. That's according to talk-radio host Rush Limbaugh. Limbaugh on his show Thursday cited a headline about Obama quietly coaching 2020 Democratic candidates. "Do you remember when I said, when predicted Obama would not be leaving Washington, that he would be hanging around and that whenever anything. ... No matter who won, but especially if a Republican won," Limbaugh said. "He'd hang around and whenever any attempt to unravel any of his agenda items was underway, he would make tracks to the nearest camera and start attacking it, and that the media would be totally supportive. Well, that hasn't quite happened. But he has stayed in town, and he is... He and Valerie Jarrett and some others are 'Quietly Coaching 2020 Democrat Candidates Behind the Scenes,'" Limbaugh said. But the talk host said he thinks "something else is going on."

DECLARE GOD'S WORD AND WATCH HIS ENEMIES FALL
FEBRUARY 21, 2019 | BY WANDA ALGER, IFA FIELD CORRESPONDE

Those who are being used of the Lord to sound the alarm are often ridiculed, mocked, or totally ignored by the mainstream media. The challenge we have faced is to see through the confusion in order to see God's plan at work. As believers continue to pray for those who report the news in the secular arena, we can be encouraged by a story in the Old Testament that sheds light on God's higher purpose and strategy.

In 1 Kings 22:13-37, the story is told of how God PLACED A LYING SPIRIT into the prophets of King Ahab's court, specifically so he would be "enticed" to listen – and thus be destroyed. Ahab had continually ignored the voice of the Lord and was rebellious in his heart. Because God saw the force of Ahab's false prophets at work, He used their own self-interest and greed against them. The King's ego led him to believe the false narrative and he went into battle without the Lord's blessing.

Only one prophet, Micaiah, discerned the true voice of the Lord and warned Ahab not to go. Going against all the other false prophets, he risked his life to be faithful to God's word. It so enraged Ahab, he sided with his court and marched straight into a death trap. Just ONE WORD from a true prophet of God was all that was needed to institute God's plan, and those who opposed Him were destroyed.

Scriptures tell us that God hardens hearts in order that HIS power might be seen (Rom 9:17). Even as we pray for hearts to be softened towards the Father's will and heaven's plan, God sees those whose hearts are unregenerate and fixed against Him. He uses their own self-inflated importance and pride to accomplish His purposes.

We can take courage in this because God's enemies WILL be destroyed. As only He can do, His strategy draws them right into a corner with no way out. Those who speak truth will be vindicated and God's plans will succeed. It doesn't matter how big the secular media giants are; God's Word is bigger. Even as we watch the false prophets of the day lie and manipulate the facts for their own gain, a trap is being set. God is pulling the strings and determining the outcome. Our part is to continue to pray and intercede for truth to be heard and God's will to be done.

To the watchmen of the hour God says, "Declare My Word! Report the truth! Do not fear the enemy or those who prophesy against Me. Do not retaliate, but let My Word accomplish its purposes. Yours is to sound the alarm and trust My plan."

God wrote the playbook and He is making His moves. The enemies of God will not prevail. Though their reports may be outrageous, and their godless rants filled with contempt, it is the prayers and proclamations of God's prophetic people that will signal heaven's response for justice. The strategy is simple: Trust in God. Declare His Word, and watch His enemies fall. It will be their own deception that will take them down. For this reason, God sends them a powerful delusion so that they will believe the lie and so that all will be condemned who have not believed the truth but have delighted in wickedness. (2 Thessalonians 2:11-12 NIV)
