LIBERALS EXPLOITING ANOTHER GRAVE TRAGEDY IN FLORIDA IT IS A LUCRATIVE BUSINESS

This time using our youth.
This time we are fighting back! Praise God!

Do you remember the tragic death of Travon Martin? Liberal lawyers from Miami and Tallahassee with the help of his parents, Obama Justice dept. and Eric Holder raised over $5 million exploiting this tragedy to incite discourse and racism I know because the tragedy happened ten minutes from my home. The black attorneys were on the media night and day here in Florida. Holder was busing in mobs from across the nation to sow discord and raise up civil unrest.

Tragedy #2: Pulse nightclub, more bloodshed. God and Christ not allowed. More millions raised. Gay flag flew over Orlando. Broward County....Parkland, Fla Tragedy #3: Again, Parkland is only a couple of hours from my home. This horrific attack could and should have been thwarted. Why wasn't it? Could one reason be because the schools have become God-free, gun free zones?

As I watch the propaganda in the media it is perplexing. Where is the truth? It is not there! South Florida is full of churches, Christian TV stations and Christian broadcasters. To date there has been no mention of Christians or pastors involvement of this outpouring of evil. All reporting and outcries are directed to the government for answers or intervention. It appears the Communist take over of nation has succeeded. Jesus Christ, His Commandments, His Word, His leaders are totally absent when it comes to life or death situations. There has been no mention of Christian counselors or mentors. This has grieved my spirit overwhelmingly. There are over 100 socialist clubs on college campuses promoting Communist Manifesto.

Because of the isolation of God's people we have turned our education and youth over to radical liberal indoctrinators. Our work is ahead of us. This ministry stands alone in many ways. We do not just prophecy and get excited. We are calling laborers into the harvest. Our prayer warriors are also facing reality and reality is; "our children are lost". We can not just stand by and watch while our teens are being seduced into the world of the god-less and pro death, anti American, anti Christ, mobs being funded and organized to bring down the President we elected nor replace our U S Constitution with the UN/Communist/Islamic Manifesto.

Throwing in the towel would appear to be the easy route. We cannot! There is a God! There is Savior! There is an Eternity! There is a Hell!

Look at how the youth are being exploited after another tragedy. We must get Bibles and Bible teachers to our youth. God has given us a plan. We need financial support to train disciples and be there for them. Churches should call on schools and tell them they will be there for troubled teens. Why don't they visit the school. Go through the process to get approved to help with dysfunctional souls? Our Laws, the media and most educators don't allow God in the mix. Shame on God's people.

This just proves our need for informed, anointed, united, focused intercessors. God gave Connie; IWI -OR a verse last week. It is awesome and we must stand on it.

John 3:19 John 3:19, "This, then, is the judgment: The light has come into the world, and people loved darkness rather than the light because their deeds were evil."

What does John 3:19 mean?

The opening verses of the gospel of John refer to Jesus as "The Light," which is an important concept in Hebrew culture (John 1:4–9). Light reveals truth, and exposes what was hidden. This, according to verse 19, is the reason why many people reject Jesus. His life, and His teachings, expose every single person as a sinner Romans As it is written, there is none righteous, no, not one.

There is none righteous as Adam was, in a state of innocence; for all have sinned, and are filled with unrighteousness, and are enemies to righteousness; none are righteous by their obedience to the law of works; nor are there any righteous in the sight of God, upon the foot of their own righteousness, however they may appear in their own eyes, and in the sight of others; nor are any inherently righteous, for there is none without sin, sanctification is imperfect; nor is it, either in whole or in part, a saint's justifying righteousness; indeed there is none righteous, no, not one, but those who are justified by the righteousness of Christ imputed to them.

Romans 4:7

"Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered."

Many people would prefer to hide in darkness, rather than be exposed by the light (John 1:5; John 8:12). It's crucial to remember that those who are saved are not "better" than those who reject Christ—they are simply sinners who confess and believe (1 John 1:6–7).

The word translated as "evil" here is the Greek ponera. This term not only implies evil, but a sense of drudgery, labor, and effort. Mankind is not just immoral, we work hard at being immoral! And, a life of sin is a hard life John 10:10; King James Bible The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. Isaiah 14:3; King James Bible

And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve.

Context Summary

John 3:16–21 begins with the most easily recognized portion of any holy book on Earth: John 3:16. This is a one-sentence summary of the entire gospel. Still, the verses which follow are just as critical for understanding the Christian message. Christ wasn't sent to judge the world, but to bring salvation. This is an expression of God's incredible love. However, those who do not believe in Jesus Christ are condemned in the eyes of God. Human preference for sin causes many to choose darkness over the Light.

Chapter Summary

John chapter 3 is one of the most important in the entire gospel. Many crucial ideas are explained in this passage, including the role of Jesus as Savior. After the loud, public commotion at the temple, John transitions to a quiet, nighttime discussion. These verses make it clear that Christ—and Christ alone—is the means of salvation for the entire world. This text also states that those who reject Jesus are rejecting God.

Women's March organizers are planning a national student walkout to protest gun violence

By Isabella Gomez and Amanda Jackson

Enough is enough!

Women's March Youth EMPOWER is calling for students, teachers, and allies to take part in a #NationalSchoolWalkout for 17 minutes at 10am on March 14, 2018. Join us in saying #ENOUGH!

The event is the brainchild of EMPOWER, the Woman's March youth branch, and will take place exactly one month after the shooting at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida. It's scheduled to begin at 10 a.m. in every time zone and last for 17 minutes -- one for each victim who lost their life in the massacre.

Much like the original Women's March, the #Enough Walkout started as one Facebook event that is quickly growing to include dozens of schools across the US, from elementary schools to colleges and universities. Parkland, Florida, is listed as one of the communities that will participate in the demonstration, according to a map on the organization's website.

God is answering our Prayers

Leading this ministry in prayer is a full time job. Number one, we must pray according to the will of the Father. That takes much seeking and looking for the truth. We do that weekly and most of our prayer direction is exclusive. God spoke to me over a year ago concerning our campuses and the need for a pure Bible class weekly with the ability to give Bibles to students so as to get the Word of God back in the hands of our youth. It is the Bible that brings healing and truth. It is being slandered and banned in the life of our youth by liberal atheists and replaced with the Communist Manifesto on most college campuses.

So many obstacles have prevented us from doing this but the vision is still ours and the Call remains loud and clear. We continue to pursue this mandate. God spoke to me to go first to the Berkeley, CA campus. We are working on that at this moment.

It appears the devil has the ball and is moving ahead with the take over of our youth, women, and nation. The media is an enabler to the demise of our culture and that is why I stand strong to believe every month for the funds needed to stay in the Christian media as a true voice crying out for God's people to take a stand and act on protecting our freedom to proclaim Jesus as Lord in this nation with no JESUS FREE zones. Thank you for standing with me and supporting me in prayer and donations.

Yesterday, we had our third Wednesday Prayer for Souls free conferencing prayer call. It was so anointed and wonderful prayer warriors joined me nationwide. I read to them the example of what we following with praying for souls to come to Jesus once a week on Wednesdays from noon – 1 PM. This year America will choose who governs this nation in November. We are to pray weekly for a revival of soul winning before the election and for new Believers to register to vote pro life this year. The 40 week, 40 day prayer call is already seeing major answers.

When the massacre of our teens in Parkland happened and the exploitation of the Nasty Women, Dems, Rhinos, and Obama mobs to push gun control, I cringed. The absence of God, the body of Christ and exposure of evil as a spiritual problem overwhelmed me. I cried out to God, "what is the use for me to care,? people's ears are closed to my cry." I was totally without strength and almost felt hopeless.

I thought things through and decided to do just what God was allowing me to do. Then on the Wednesday Call, the anointing was so strong, I knew only God could pour out His spirit and we needed to keep the faith. God is not broke, neither is He ignoring our cries.

On the Wednesday Call we began praying to God to reverse the darkness in Parkland. Bring in Rev. Franklin Graham to that school ball field. Give him a salvation message and let your spirit draw these youth to you. Help us get Bibles and tracks to hand out when this happens. Equip us God to do the work of the Kingdom.

Then, a miracle happening! On the day the youth were being bussed to Tallahassee to demand gun control and their message to eliminate the NRA, also, march in DC to push socialist agenda of Dems and Rhinos, a Christian icon goes to be with the Lord. Message changed. To God be the Glory! America is looking up again. God was mocking Satan's move to overtake our Land. It is being reported that Rev. Graham's children and grandchildren are preaching the Gospel world wide.

His former messages were being played for the world and America to hear. How good God is! Bill Hammer with FOX asked a guest, Catholic Cardinal, why the satanic move in Parkland was not being address more.

I shouted. God! your truth will prevail if we faint not. This morning at the CPAC conference, a speech given by NRA president, Wayne Lapiere should be mandatory for every LAWMAKER, PASTOR, AND SCHOOL IN THIS NATION to hear. Following him was VP Pence. More truth. 10,000 attendees and millions watching on television and the Internet.

Friends, we must never quit praying specifically and with faith and action. We must call out those who need to know Christ to the Father. A prayer never prayed is never answered. It is the truth that sets the captives free.

KNOWING THE PURPOSE OF THE WAR IS NECESSARY

The plot of the enemy must be revealed so that we can bind the adversary and loose the angels to do battle taking God's stand. At this time there is a lot of misguiding information in the media and in some prophecies. False security and compromise attitudes. The purpose of the FBI, Rob Rosenstein, Sessions and Mueller, the Rhinos, Dems, Criminals in Congress, liberals, media and witches is to REMOVE PRESIDENT TRUMP FROM OFFICE. The U S Congress has given Mueller another $20 million to manufacture a crime to give justification to impeaching Pres. Trump. Look at how they are paying for this!

Paul Ryan Wants To Cut YOUR Social Security After He Got His

By KJ McElrath

Paul Ryan has made no secret of his contempt for Social Security, which he dismissively calls an "entitlement" (it's not – it's an insurance policy that everyone pays into, at least until they make $127,200). He calls such social programs "the big drivers of our debt," even as Congress approves a massive $80 billion increase in military spending (twice what Trump asked for) and equally massive tax cuts for the wealthy and corporations.

Here's Paul Ryan's dirty little secret – were it not for Social Security, chances are he'd be working for the family business today.

Here's how it happened. During the early to mid-1980s, young Paul was an average kid of an average, comfortable middle-class family. Attending a public high school in his hometown of Janesville, Wisconsin, Paul got an early start in politics, serving as junior class president and student body representative to the local school board. He also managed to hold a part-time job as a grill cook at a local fast food restaurant.

Young Paul's life was turned on its head when he was 16 years old. One summer morning, while his mother was out-of-state visiting family and his brother was working for the city parks department, Paul was home when he received a phone call from his father's secretary, informing him that there were clients waiting. When Paul went into the bedroom, he found his 55-year-old father dead of a heart attack. But here is the kicker. While most families faced with the sudden loss of a breadwinner face extreme financial hardship, young Paul was fortunate. From the day his father died up until his 18th birthday, Ryan received Social Security benefits! It was this "entitlement" that enabled him to go to college, where he earned a degree in economics and political science – so he has no worries about student loan debt hanging around his neck for the remainder of his life (and beyond).

Several media sources reported on this back in 2012, when then-Presidential candidate Mitt Romney was considering Ryan as his running mate. However, people seem to have short memories when it comes to such things. This year, as we head into mid-term elections that may determine whether or not American democracy even survives, it's worth revisiting Ryan's contemptible hypocrisy and his "I got mine – screw you" mentality. It's time to send Ryan back to Wisconsin — and hopefully, a career change (maybe in construction).

This is the truth. Email from Dottie in Leesburg. Light piercing the darkness

The Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School shooting has renewed calls for increased gun control, but Baltimore Ravens tight end Benjamin Watson is first advocating for a renewed value in faith and human lives.

During an interview on Fox News' "The Story with Martha MacCallum," Watson explained that while suspect Nikolas Cruz must be held accountable, America, as a culture, is one that "gravitates towards violence" and needs to change.

He added that while it's "easy" to put the blame on guns or a law that needs to be changed, we also need to identify "where we've gone wrong and be willing and have the courage to fix it."

The NFL player acknowledged the hardships Cruz endured during his life, and the outspoken Christian pointed to faith. When you take faith out of the public arena, when you take God out of there, people suffer," he said. "Whether you believe you're a Christian or not, those principles really carry us through."

Watson noted that he spoke to his father and found that people of his generation have noticed a correlation between the removal of God from the public sphere and suffering. He explained that it's less about identifying as a Christian and more about "understanding that because of who God is and because of his love for us, we respect all life."

The NFL player called the negative way we treat each other on a daily basis the "underlying foundation" of instances such as the Florida shooting. In the wake of tragedy, people are quick to turn to prayer, and while Watson said that's wonderful, he explained it's not enough to think of God only in times of need.

"We cannot come to God as some cosmic vending machine whenever we have a problem," he said. "We need to be submitting to him daily in our lives."

He criticized taking prayer and God out of schools and moving toward a society that doesn't listen to God and instead does "what we think is best." Just as people trust God in times of turmoil and struggle, he also called on people to trust him in times of peace.

People were crying out, hearts broken, hearts laid open. You knew many were asking God to forgive them for not being the Fathers, the Mothers, the mentors, the equippers and disciple makers He created them to be.

This repenting was heart wrenching and sincere! You knew that this was real and people were going to change and seek help to learn to be the Fathers, the Mothers, the mentors, the equippers and disciple makers God was calling them to be.

IN MEMORIAL TO BILLY GRAHAM

By Sara Shayanian

Evangelist Billy Graham died Wednesday at age 99 at his home in Montreat, N.C. Memorial services will begin Saturday.

World-renowned evangelist Billy Graham will lie in the U.S.

Capitol for two days before his formal funeral next week. Graham, known as "America's Pastor," died Wednesday at age 99. House Speaker Paul Ryan and Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell asked Graham's son, Franklin, in a letter to allow people to pay their respectsto the celebrated evangelist. Graham's viewing in the rotunda will occur Feb. 28 and March 1. He is the first to lie in honor at the Capitol since civil rights icon Rosa Parks in 2005. His body was transported from his home in Montreat, N.C., to an Asheville funeral home. On Saturday, he will be moved from the Billy Graham Training Center at The Cove in Asheville to the Billy Graham Library in Charlotte, where there will be an arrival ceremony.

Graham will lie in repose inside the Graham Family Home place on the Billy Graham Library grounds on Monday and Tuesday. His casket will remain closed. Viewing will be open to the public from 8 a.m. to 10 p.m. each day.

A private funeral service is scheduled for March 2. Some 2,300 invitations will go out. The evangelist will be buried beside his wife, Ruth McCue Bell, at the foot of the cross-shaped brick walkway in the Prayer Garden on the library grounds. Mark DeMoss, a spokesman for the Billy Graham Evangelistic Association, said invitations to Graham's funeral will link be extended to President Donald Trump and other former U.S. presidents, with whom Graham often consulted.

"It was Mr. Graham's explicit intent his funeral service reflect and reinforce the gospel message he preached for more than 60 years," DeMoss said at a news conference. "He personally approved the planning and details of this service some years ago." Graham had suffered from symptoms of Parkinson's disease and had been losing strength, hearing and eyesight, DeMoss said, "He was not, in recent times certainly, was not taking phone calls and entertaining guests other than family members," he said. "It has been quite quiet in recent months and the last couple of years really."
