INTERCESSORS WITH INSIGHT ON THE WALL ON PASSOVER

Pastor Jeff Daily, CEO National Day of Repentance.

Called a special time of prayer on Passover with the sounding of the shofars at 7:03 pm Jerusalem time.

The Lord spoke to me to unite with Pastor Jeff and have a free conferencing call with our intercessors. I used our new means to reach all we have phone numbers for on Tuesday afternoon and we ebled to thousands more to join us Wednesday for our Call. Needless to say our prayer warriors came forward. I invited Brother Apostalos, Michigan Prayer Leader and Brother Jim, the Shofar Man to lead our Call.

We opened with the Word God gave Prophet Jeremiah Johnson gave in March on Its Supernatural with Sid Roth It is truly God's Word to us concerning the issues of the coronavirus outbreak today. Nationwide, the prayer warriors joined in sounding shofars at 12:03 pm EST 7:03 pm Jerusalem time.

The anointing was unmatched.

Thank You, all who prayed with us. Apostalos led us in an opening prayer of repentance and decrees. Powerful. Then, Pastor Jim led us in these prayers as we sounded our shofars.

LOOK AT THE SNAKE TO BE HEALED

APRIL 9, 2020 | KAREN HARDIN

Lord, we ask you to forgive us and we humble ourselves before you. We can no longer say we didn't know. The evidence is everywhere of lifestyles, abuse, and sin that is a stench to you. Lord, we ask you to forgive us, cleanse us, and cleanse our land. Sweep over our nation and your holy fire and purify our hearts. Lord, we pray for revival. Why would God have the Israelites look at a bronze snake lifted up on a pole in order to be healed?

Have you ever struggled with that story in Numbers 21? It is where the Israelites complained to God and Moses (again) about the food they were eating. As a result, venomous snakes suddenly appeared in their midst and began to strike. People were dying. In order to be healed, those that had been bitten had to look upon a bronze snake lifted up on a pole in order to live. That story has always messed with me. But as I was reading the other morning, the Holy Spirit brought it back to my remembrance. I believe it pertains to the day in which we live.

As a quick refresher:

They traveled from Mount Hor along the route to the Red Sea, to go around Edom. But the people grew impatient on the way; they spoke against God and against Moses, and said,

"Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the wilderness? There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food!" Then the Lord sent venomous snakes among them; they bit the people and many Israelites died. The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we spoke against the Lord and against you. Pray that the Lord will take the snakes away from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

The Lord said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live." So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, they lived. (Num 21:4-9) So why would God require those who were bitten to look at the bronze snake, rather than something more reflective of Him?

It was that He required them to look at their sin. The significance that this is Holy Week shouldn't be lost on us. This is a time when we look at the Cross and the price Jesus paid as He took our sin upon Him. We are also called to reflect on and repent of any sin in our lives. And while biblically the serpent typically represents Satan, John 3:14 tells us that lifting the serpent up on a pole was a prophetic act looking toward Jesus' crucifixion. Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the wilderness, so the Son of Man must be lifted up (Jn 3:14).

The serpent represented the sin, grief, and sorrow that Jesus would bear for us. And just as we have to look to the Cross, and look at the sin Jesus bore for us, we must now look at the sin that has been tolerated in our land.

I remember when my grandmother was in her upper years. She never left her home. She didn't like to watch the news because it was negative. I was her caregiver. I remember mentioning to her one time a news event that revealed intense corruption. "That's enough!" she interrupted me. "I don't want to hear it!" My normally soft-spoken grandmother was firm in her resolve. It was easier to turn her head than to look at what was taking place in the world around her.

I know we have all heard family, friends, or even ourselves say, "I just want to get back to my normal life. I don't want to have to deal with this anymore." Sure, we all do. But let me encourage you, we can't turn our heads from the evil that is coming to light. And when sin abounds, God's hand is lifted and opens the door to enemy attack. We can no longer refuse to look at and acknowledge the sin we have tolerated in our midst.

The more I research, the more my eyes are opened to the horrible and insidious things that have been occurring in our nation and the world—all right under our noses. I am tempted to look away. It would be easier to ignore it and let my life and thoughts go back to "normal," but I can't. And neither should you.

We have all been "bitten" and have to be willing to look at the "bronze snake on the pole" if we want to be healed. We have to be willing to look at the sin—and repent individually and as a nation.

We are all in various places of awareness to what has transpired not only in America but around the world. The horrors are undeniable:

- Pedophilia rings of high-ranking government officials and Hollywood elites have operated for years.
- Two million children are sex-trafficked each year (over 300,000 in the U.S.)
- Over 60 million babies have been aborted since Roe v. Wade legalized the murder of infants in the womb in 1973.
- Vaccines are made up of aborted fetal tissues which runs through the veins of almost every American citizen born from 1963 and after.
- American government officials bullied leaders of other nations to force them to promote and legalize LGBTQ laws and abortion or else financial assistance would be withheld.
- Justices across our land became judicial activists, overturning the rights of the people and called evil good and good evil.
- America's educational system was hijacked in order to brainwash and manipulate our children to reject God, their parents, and their God-given identities.

- The Church has been silenced and compromised under the false narrative of “separation of church and state” and pastors bullied to trade their voices to speak into relevant issues of society in order to retain non-profit status.

And I could go on...

It's easier to turn away and defend ourselves by saying, “I didn't know and I don't know what to do. I'm simply one person.” We can no longer say that. If we want to be healed, we MUST first look at the bronze serpent that has been lifted up. It is the sin, idolatry, pride, arrogance, fear, and our own selfish desire to live a “normal” life while evil runs rampant around us.

Lord, forgive us that we allowed these evils to happen on our watch. How could we have not known? We were completely asleep at the wheel as we chose our “normal” lives and chose to turn our heads away.

Friends, we can do so no longer. The venomous snakes have been unleashed and the only way for our land to heal is to stare the evil in the face, acknowledge it, and humble ourselves before the Lord in repentance. We can no longer look away. For if we do, healing will not come. Healing requires an action.

There is nothing comfortable about this time in history. But we must recognize that when God brings revelation in an area of our lives that needs correction, it is because

He is ready to deal with it and invites us to allow Him to do the surgery so we can be healed. Surgery is never fun. It is painful. But it is necessary. Necessary for us to live. Necessary for revival.

As we reflect on His death, burial, and resurrection, may we take this time to reflect on the sin that we have tolerated and determine that it can remain no longer. In Revelation, the Lord revealed the areas of sin that caused the Church to have its lampstand removed:

- You have forsaken the love you had at first (Rev 2:4).
- Do not be afraid of what you are about to suffer (Rev 2:10).
- There are some among you who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to entice the Israelites to sin (Rev 2:14). (This was about exchanging obedience to God for prominence and financial gain. In doing so, Balaam gave insight to a government leader how to entice God's people into greater sin.)
- They tolerated Jezebel, “she misleads my servants into sexual immorality and the eating of food sacrificed to idols. I will make those who commit adultery with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways. I will strike her children dead. (Rev 2:20).
- I know your deeds; you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead. Wake up! (Rev 3:1).
- See, I have placed before you an open door that no one can shut. I know that you have little strength, yet you have kept my word and have not denied my name (Rev 3:8).

- I know your deeds, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were either one or the other! So, because you are lukewarm—neither hot nor cold—I am about to spit you out of my mouth (Rev 3:15-)

But you are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, His own special people, that you may proclaim the praises of Him who called you out of darkness into His marvelous light; who once were not a people but are now the people of God, who had not obtained mercy but now have obtained mercy.

Beloved, I beg of you as sojourners and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts which war against your soul, having your conduct honorable among the Gentiles, that when they speak against you as evildoers, they may, by your good works that they observe, glorify God in the day of visitation. 1 Peter 2: 9-12

Repentance Takes Power Away From the Enemy

Dear Friends,

As we begin to celebrate Palm Sunday here is an excellent article today from Intercessors for America: “How to Take Power Away from the Enemy. “

It highlights the gift of repentance. Repentance drains power from the enemy.

As you and I take extra prayer time to repent daily we in effect worship Him as did those on Palm Sunday----- laying down our “clothes on the road” as the Lord Jesus made His triumphal entry into Jerusalem. (Mark 11:7-8). I believe those “clothes” can represent our old sin strongholds, the old “smelly T shirts” the Lord urges us to remove, to become more holy, more like Him, part of His royal priesthood. He calls us to be zealous to repent; He offers to dine with us to support that process; He urges us to become overcomers to sit with Him on His throne as He overcame and sat on His Abba Father’s throne. (Revelation 3: 19-21).

Search our hearts, God, and show us if there is any way in us that is not pleasing to You.

In 1986, David Wilkerson received a prophetic word for America:

“I see a plague coming on the world, and the bars, churches and government will shut down. The plague will hit New York City and shake it like it has never been shaken. The plague is going to force prayerless believers into radical prayer and into their Bibles, and repentance will be the cry from the man of God in the pulpit. And out of it will come a third Great Awakening that will sweep America and the world.”

Earlier this week, I came to face to face with my own sin. Through God’s mercy He showed me a few specific things I had done that were sinful. I felt horrible about them and was humbled. I confessed these sins to God, and agreed with Him that they were sins (1 John 1:9). I also confessed them to a close friend, know that when we confess our sins to one another, and pray for each other, we are healed. (James 5:16)

The next morning I was reading the daily reading in the Pray for America Bible.

Sometimes God speaks through His Word in a gentle whisper, and other times it's a loud shout! That morning, it was a shout, so I would not miss it:

Prove by the way you live that you have repented of your sins and turned to God. (Luke 3:8 NLT) Of course, we must acknowledge and confess our sins, but that is not all. We need to change, to repent. In my case, I need to change. My changed life proves that I have repented. The opposite is also true—if my life doesn't change then it is evidence that I have not truly repented. Those of us who have raised children are well aware of the difference between sorrow about sin and sorrow about consequences. I was, and am, sorry for my sin. Now, God requires change.

As I kept reading, I felt very strongly that this is not just a message for me, but it is a message for many Christians at this time. And so do many intercessors who have contacted our office, urging us to call for repentance. Irene wrote, "Repentance is where we take the power away from the enemy.

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land. (2 Chronicles 7:14-15 NIV)

Our first thing we have to do is repent (turn from their wicked ways)."

So, we are doing what intercessors have urged us to do. We are asking everyone to ask God to reveal any sin, then confess, repent, and prove the repentance by change. We all need the Lord's help to do this!

God warns us about what will happen if we ignore His correction, the prodding of the Holy Spirit in our lives about our sin. Verse 8 continues: Don't just say to each other, 'We're safe, for we are descendants of Abraham.' That means nothing, for I tell you, God can create children of Abraham from these very stones.

At the time that John the Baptist preached this sermon, there were people who were descendants of Israel, who claimed spiritual blessings and the favor of God because of their heritage. God did indeed create children of Abraham in a surprising, astonishing, and blessed way, and many of us are the result.

Let's not claim spiritual blessings when our lives are inconsistent with God's Word. Let's press into Him, confess our sins, and repent, and let our lives prove our repentance. Let's pray for fruitful lives that are bearing good fruit for God.

The response of the crowd to John seems very appropriate in this time of fear and stockpiling: Even now the ax of God's judgment is poised, ready to sever the roots of the trees. Yes, every tree that does not produce good fruit will be chopped down and thrown into the fire." The crowds asked, "What should we do?" John replied, "If you have two shirts, give one to the poor. If you have food, share it with those who are hungry." (Luke 3:9-11)

One of the many blessings of repentance is that God produces good fruit through us. The fruit of lives surrendered to Christ is desperately needed right now. And sharing food with those who are hungry is an apt suggestion for us now. We are always grateful when intercessors share with IFA what the Lord is impressing on their hearts. Let us know what the Lord has been showing you-leave a comment. (Judy McDonough is Intercessors for America Communications Director.)

Prayer:

“Heavenly Father, in Jesus ‘ Holy Name, I want to take power away from the enemy. I want to prove by the way I live that I have removed sins and have turned to You. I confess my personal sins, and my families’ sins, and the sins of this nation. We, Your church, Your Bride, have turned from You. We have not removed old sin strongholds replacing them with Your Word and Your Way. Please forgive us as Your Bride. I repent, LORD; may many others repent. May Wisdom and courage surface to use Your spiritual weapons, including a day of repentance, among each of us, Your Bride, in this invisible battle against the pandemic. May the oil of the Holy Spirit be lit in the lamps of our leaders giving them wisdom and courage to call for such a Day, as did earlier Presidents. May the gift of repentance flow freely in this and in many other nations. May we fear You more than fear the reaction of men. In Jesus’ Holy Name, the name above ALL names, Amen and Amen.”

WORD FROM FAYE

FROM JEREMIAH JOHNSON IS THERE A RAT IN THE WHITE HOUSE? Prophetic Dream on 3/30/20 Last night in my dream, I found myself at a White House briefing with Donald Trump, Mike Pence, and Dr. Anthony Fauci. The President was making an announcement to the United States regarding COVID-19. As he began to encourage the people with a message of hope and promise, suddenly, Dr. Fauci turned into a big rat the size of a human being. Alarmed, I ran to the side of the stage and saw a line of men dressed in fine clothes, many of them not American, who were standing behind the doctor handing him large sums of cash. God spoke to me immediately in the dream and said, “Even now, there is a plot to turn the President into a political puppet when I have given him a prophetic anointing to decree with authority. The month of April will determine the re-election of Donald Trump as there is a satanic agenda being loosed upon the USA to cripple the economy and turn the people against the Preside.

AFTER OUR PASSOVER PRAYER THE LORD SPOKE TO ME THAT ANGELS WENT TO WHITE HOUSE AND SET TRAPS TO CATCH THE RATS UNAWARES. WE CURSED THE VISUS AND COMMANDED IT DIE.. WATCH GOD!! PLEASE SOW YOUR BESST SEED THIS WEEK TO HELP ME.
