GoFundMe Donations For Kavanaugh Accuser Skyrocket After Mention In Testimony — $700,000 to manufacture sex crime to destroy conservative judge. Democrats new procedure: Guilty until proven innocent. The facts and truth don't matter! Lawyers testified they are working pro bono.

GoFundMe donations for Christine Blasey Ford have skyrocketed since she mentioned the campaigns during Thursday's hearing before the Senate Judiciary Committee. Just two of the 17 accounts on the crowdfunding site relating to Ford have brought in nearly $700,000.

Answering questions concerning the funding for her legal team and travel since the allegations became public, Ford mentioned that she'd be collecting money donated to her from GoFundMe accounts. "I'm aware that there's been several GoFundMesites," she said. "I haven't had a chance to figure out how to manage those because I've never had one."

One such account dedicated to Ford "jumped from about $179,000 to $305,000 and counting merely 30 minutes later, according to the publicly displayed funds counter," reported MarketWatch on Thursday. Those numbers have since spiked further. One account has collected over $475,000 for Ford's legal fees and another has brought in over $200,000 for the accuser's "security costs." During the testimony, Ford's lawyers Michael Bromwich and Debra Katz said they were working pro bono and disclosed that they had paid for their client's polygraph test after Ford said she did not know who paid for it.

Witchcraft, mind control, thought projection, indoctrination at root of exploiting sexual abuse.

the co-author of a 2008 study that – get this – examined the use of “hypnosis to “assist in the retrieval of important memories” and to “create artificial situations” for treatment. Which begs the question as to the role of such hypnosis in the memories of Ford’s evidence-free accusations of Kavanaugh and his buddy Mark Judge, (Sean Davis @seanmdav). A 2008 academic study co-authored by Kavanaugh accuser Christine Blasey Ford cited the use of hypnosis to “assist in the retrieval of important memories” and to “create artificial situations” to assist in treatment.

One study on hypnosis cited by Ford and her co-authors specifically stated that patients who undergo hypnosis therapy are “highly suggestible and easily subject to memory contamination.

Read and keep in mind she is a professor and this is how she indoctrinates our youth. God forbid! Did she lie to the senate??? Will she be prosecuted??? Christine Blasey Ford, a California woman who has accused Supreme Court nominee Brett Kavanaugh of attempted rape in the 1980’s, co-authored an academic study that cited the use of hypnosis as a tool to retrieve memories in traumatized patients. The academic paper, entitled “Meditation With Yoga, Group Therapy With Hypnosis, and Psychoeducation for Long-Term Depressed Mood: A Randomized Pilot Trial,” described the results of a study the tested the efficacy of certain treatments on 46 depressed individuals. The study was published by the Journal of Clinical Psychology in May 2008.

While the paper by Ford and several other co-authors focused on whether various therapeutic techniques, including hypnosis, alleviate depression, it also discussed the therapeutic use of hypnosis to “assist in the retrieval of important memories” and to “create artificial situations” to assist in treatment. Ford’s paper cited a controversial 1964 paper on the use of hypnosis to treat alcoholics and claimed that “hypnosis could be used to improve rapport in the therapeutic relationship, assist in the retrieval of important memories, and create artificial situations that would permit the client to express ego-dystonic emotions in a safe manner.” The study by Ford and her co-authors also used “self-hypnosis”.

Israel/Nasty Women to Reap the Whirlwind

1 “Put the trumpet to your lips! An eagle is over the house of the LORD because the people have broken my covenant and rebelled against my law.

2 Israel cries out to me, ‘Our God, we acknowledge you!’

3 But Israel has rejected what is good; an enemy will pursue him.

4 They set up kings without my consent; they choose princes without my approval. With their silver and gold they make idols for themselves to their own destruction.

5 Samaria, throw out your calf-idol! My anger burns against them. How long will they be incapable of purity?

6 They are from Israel! This calf—a metalworker has made it; it is not God. It will be broken in pieces, that calf of Samaria.

7 “They sow the wind and reap the whirlwind. The stalk has no head; it will produce no flour. Were it to yield grain, foreigners would swallow it up.

begin to waste away under the oppression of the mighty king.

11 “Though Ephraim built many altars for sin offerings, these have become altars for sinning.

12 I wrote for them the many things of my law, but they regarded them as something foreign.

13 Though they offer sacrifices as gifts to me, and though they eat the meat, the LORD is not pleased with them. Now he will remember their wickedness and punish their sins: They will return to Egypt.

14 Israel has forgotten their Maker and built palaces; Judah has fortified many towns. But I will send fire on their cities that will consume their fortresses.”

My Friends, leading this prayer ministry is one of the most important things I have ever done. Watching God over the years has made me bold, informed, insightful, anointed, and determined to challenge Satan’s take over of our families, education, courts, government, and women.

Only through prophetic praying have we come to be one of the most anointed, insightful, patriotic, prayer networks in our nation. We not only talk to God and pray the Will of the Father, He talks back and intervenes in supernatural ways. We bear fruit!! Praise God! Years ago, God called me to lead prayer teams to understand and bind the feminist takeover of our nation. Their foundation is Communism. Their ability to use women to remove God, prayer, Biblical moral values has been very successful. To promote abortion and cover up ill responsible, unaccountable sexually active women by deceiving America concerning women’s rights took root.

The church remained silent. The murder of the unborn and babies born out of wedlock became federally funded. The people of God remained silent. Today, we are taken for fools. Seeds of the sixties that came out of Woodstock mud and orgies, and drug tents stand to accuse and judge Judge Kavanaugh for throwing ice in a bar! Can you believe they have no one challenging their behavior in college. Bill and Hillary led the hippies’ move to bring family values to a demise. They took our true biblically based family values hostage and now consider those of us who refused to be indoctrinated undeserving of freedom. We must be harassed if we do not remain silent.

My question is, Can You be a Christian and a Democrat? The liberal mobs have hijacked the democrat party. Many Christians have no clue what they are voting for when they vote to support the Democrat/Progressive/Socialist party.

5 Reasons Socialism Is Not Christian

By Julie Roys , CP Op-Ed Contributor | Jul 12, 2016 7:45 AM

Gallup found that 69% of those under 30 said they would be willing to vote for a socialist presidential candidate. I understand why Millennials are wary of the current system. Here’s why: Though it may sound compassionate and Christian, it’s actually antithetical to everything Christianity teaches.

1. Socialism is Based on a Materialistic Worldview

According to socialists like Bernie Sanders, the greatest problem in the world is the unequal distribution of wealth. His website declares: “The issue of wealth and income inequality is the great moral issue of our time, it is the great economic issue of our time, and it is the great political issue of our time.” This betrays a fundamentally materialistic worldview, which is the basis of socialism.

To socialists, all that really exists is the material world. In fact, Karl Marx, the father of socialism/communism, invented the notion of dialectical materialism — the belief that matter contains a creative power within itself. This enabled Marx to eliminate the need for a creator, essentially erasing the existence of anything non-material. To socialists, suffering is caused by the unequal distribution of stuff — and salvation is achieved by the re-distribution of stuff. There's no acknowledgment of spiritual issues. There's just an assumption that if everyone is given equal stuff, all the problems in society will somehow dissolve.

2. Socialism Punishes Virtue Socialists want to distribute wealth to individuals according to their need, regardless of virtue. As Karl Marx, famously said, “From each according to his ability, to each according to his needs.” However, whenever any institution provides aid, it runs the risk of removing God-designed rewards and consequences. It can punish those who are industrious by making them pay for those who are not. And, it can reward those who aren't industrious by giving them the fruits of another man's labor. This is precisely what socialism does.

Interestingly, Marx mooched off others his whole life, and failed to provide for his wife and children.

The Bible teaches that aid should be tied to responsibility. First, anyone who refuses to work should be refused aid. As 2 Thessalonians 3:10 says, “The one who is unwilling to work shall not eat.”

Next, no one should be given aid whose family can provide for him. In fact, the Apostle Paul said that a man who fails to provide for his family is “worse than an unbeliever.” (1 Tim. 5:8) The church also required widows receiving aid to have “a reputation of good works.” (1 Tim. 5:10) So, even in dispensing aid, the church rewarded virtue and discouraged vice. Unfortunately, socialism does just the opposite.

3. Socialism Endorses Stealing Barack Obama once defended his socialist policies to a little girl by saying, “We've got to make sure that people who have more money help the people who have less money. If you had a whole pizza, and your friend had no pizza, would you give him a slice?” That sounds pretty Christian, right? What Christian wouldn't endorse sharing your abundance with someone who has nothing?

However, Obama wasn't endorsing people voluntarily sharing their wealth with others; he was endorsing the government forcibly taking a piece of the pie from one person and giving it to someone else. Put another way, that's saying that if you have three cars and your neighbor has none, the government has a right to take your car and give it to your neighbor. That's not Christian; that's stealing! But, socialists don't believe in private property.

And, some Christian socialists actually assert that the Bible doesn't either. That's preposterous. Both the Old Testament and New Testament unequivocally affirm private property. We can't even obey the eighth commandment to not steal, unless we accept the notion of private ownership. Nor, can we steward our money as the Bible commands if the state owns our money, not us. So, for an economic and political system to be Christian, it must protect private ownership and allow individuals freedom to allocate their resources according to their conscience.

4. Socialism Encourages Envy and Class Warfare

Socialists demonize the rich, blaming all of society's problems on them. Bernie Sanders once posted to his Facebook Page: “Let us wage a moral and political war against the billionaires and corporate leaders on Wall Street and elsewhere, whose policies and greed are destroying the middle class of America.”

Here, Sanders is mimicking Karl Marx, who viewed history as a series of class struggles between the rich and the poor — and advocated overthrowing the ruling class. Scripture strongly warns the rich and powerful not to oppress the poor. In fact, Proverbs 14:31 says, “Whoever oppresses the poor shows contempt for his maker . . .” But, Sanders — and other Leftists, including Hillary Clinton — go far beyond decrying specific acts of injustice. They basically condemn an entire class of people simply for possessing wealth. And, they encourage those who are poor to overthrow them. In fact, Clinton once said the U.S. economy required a “toppling” of the wealthiest 1%.

The rich are not causing all the problems in American society. People like Bill Gates are not acquiring wealth by stealing from the masses. They're creating great products, which produce wealth, and actually provide jobs for many people. But, even if they were exploiting the poor, nowhere does Scripture support the have-nots demanding money from the haves.

Instead, it teaches that we should not covet (Exodus 20:17) and should be content in all circumstances (Phil. 4:11-13).

5. Socialism Seeks to Destroy Marriage & Family

A little known fact about socialism is that, from its beginning, it has sought to destroy marriage and family. Grove City Professor Paul Kengor explains this in detail in his book, Takedown: From Communists to Progressives, How the Left Has Sabotaged Marriage and Family. Essentially, what socialism seeks is for the state to replace the family. That way, it can indoctrinate children in its Leftist way of thinking, and remove from them any notions of God and religion.

Friedrich Engels, co-author with Marx of the “The Communist Manifesto,” once wrote that the society he envisioned would be one where “the single family ceases to be the economic unit of society. Private housekeeping is transformed into a social industry. The care and education of the children becomes a public affair.” Similarly today, Bernie Sanders calls for a “revolution” in childcare and for the government to provide early childhood education beginning with children as young as six-weeks-old.

And, he’s a proud supporter of gay marriage — what Kengor calls “communism’s Trojan Horse” to secure the final takedown of traditional marriage. To socialists, what Bernie describes is a utopia. But, to Christians, it’s a dystopia. That’s because there’s nothing Christian about socialism — and there’s absolutely no way Jesus would ever support it.

Democratic socialism

Democratic socialism is a political philosophy that advocates achieving socialist goals within a democratic system, as opposed to Marxist–Leninist-inspired socialism which is viewed as being non-democratic in practice. Democratic socialists oppose the Soviet economic model, rejecting the authoritarian form of governance and highly centralized command economy that took form in the Soviet Union in the early 20th century. Democratic socialism has promoted as economic alternatives to capitalist systems public property through a democratically elected government of major industries, utilities, and transportation systems; some limits on the conversion of public resources to private property; governmental regulation of the economy; extensive publicly financed assistance and pension programs; and self-management and democratic management in companies sometimes including wider schemes of market socialist, participatory and decentralized planned economy.

Democratic socialists hold that capitalism is inherently incompatible with the democratic values of liberty, equality, and solidarity; and that these ideals can only be achieved through the realization of a socialist society. Democratic socialism can be supportive of either revolutionary or reformist politics as a means to establish socialism. The modern history of democratic socialism goes back to early to mid 19th century socialist thought and movements associated with the label “utopian socialism” as well as a socialist republican movement such as Chartism.

There is considerable controversy among scholars regarding Karl Marx’s attitude toward democracy, but two lines of thought developed from Marx: one emphasizing democracy and one rejecting it while other socialists rejected Marx. In the United Kingdom the Fabian Society was formed and it tended to emphasize “the democratic elements of democratic socialism: electoral success, the rational presentation of their position (in innumerable publications), careful study of the current social situation, and gradualism.”

Another important source of inspiration was Eduard Bernstein’s proposal of “evolutionary socialism” which argued that socialism could be achieved by peaceful means through incremental legislative reform in democratic societies as opposed to revolutionary socialism. The 20th century saw the ascendance of socialist, labor, and social democratic parties in Europe who started to be elected in democratic elections to form governments in their countries.

The terms “democratic socialism” and “social democracy” have significant overlap and during the late 20th century those labels started to be both embraced, contested and rejected due to the emergence of developments within the world’s left such as eurocommunism, the fall of eastern communist governments, the Third Way, the Latin American Pink tide, and the rise of anti-austerity movements in the late 2000s and early 2010s motivated by the Great Recession. This last development contributed to the emergence of politicians such as Jeremy Corbyn in the UK and Bernie Sanders in the US who assumed the label democratic socialist to describe their rebellion against “Third way” and centrist politicians within the UK Labour and US Democratic parties respectively.

Democratic socialism is distinguished from social democracy on the basis that democratic socialists are committed to systemic transformation of the economy from capitalism to socialism whereas social democracy is supportive of reforms to capitalism. In contrast to social democrats, democratic socialists believe that reforms aimed at addressing social inequalities and state interventions aimed at suppressing the economic contradictions of capitalism will only see them emerge elsewhere in a different guise. As socialists, democratic socialists believe that the systemic issues of capitalism can only be solved by replacing the capitalist system with a socialist system; by replacing private ownership with social ownership of the means of production.

EXPAND, it is time to take the new land”

There is supernatural provision and empowerment of the Spirit upon you. You have been prepared in the pressing. There’s now a new land of expansion and positioning upon you. Do not fear that it’s beyond your capacity, that is the perfect place to be!! You are going to experience a whole new level of His empowerment and provision. You’re entering a new land of explosive favor and manifested miracles.

Sept 29, 2018:

I had a vision and saw weights and concerns surrounding many of God’s people and as God’s people focused on them I saw heavy sandbags attaching to their feet, heart and hands.

Such a heaviness and inability to SOAR came upon them. I then saw Jesus appear and I heard Colossians 3:2: “Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth.” The Lord spoke about being intentional to focus on HIM and what HE has said. As I watched I saw many of God’s people turn in repentance and place their eyes back on Him and His goodness and faithfulness. As I looked at Jesus I could see promises that He has spoken over the very concerns that weighed God’s people down, were all contained IN HIM!

As God’s people intentionally focused and meditated on Jesus and what He has said, the weights and concerns didn’t get bigger, they got smaller and started to shake, shift and turn. The shoots of “new life” started bursting forth within these areas of weight and concern and they began to turn. Trusting Him and not worrying released such a joy within their hearts that was founded in Him and His words that they began to soar again and the power of God brought breakthrough and joy shifted the atmosphere.

The areas that have tried to weigh you down, turn away from looking at them and look at Jesus and what He has spoken, as there’s a major shift and breakthrough beginning to grow and flow.

PRAYER POINTS

Mocking God can no longer be tolerated. I will continue this subject next week. God’s people must seek and stand with truth in November. Ignorance is no excuse for standing with evil doers.
