SENIORS BEWARE! COVER-UP! IS IT A DONE DEAL? WILL WE REMAIN SILENT?

Sneaky Globalist Bill Will Gut Social Security

Jayne Ward

The globalist GOP leadership under House Speaker Paul Ryan has introduced a bill that will raid your social security payments and give the money to illegal aliens who have never paid a dime into the system.

Malachi 3:5 "And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts."

WARNINGS FROM FAYE:

The Lord began to reveal to me that senior citizens are in grave danger and we must speak up and wake up before it is too late. Please read this and pass it on to any Social Security recipient you know. WE ARE BEING CONNED IN PLAIN SIGHT by a corrupt Congress.

Our ministry is focused and the prayer warriors watch and pray. We are committed to pulling down strongholds and binding demons and devils over this God-blessed nation. Our prayers and action brings forth much fruit. We pray over Members of the Senate and House of Representatives, individually. However, we have a major prayer call concerning these Lawmakers. They need to be exposed in many ways. The cover up of their evil doings by the media and each other must come to light. There is sooo much deception in reporting that we are being overtaken by the spirit of lies./Leviathan.

Our nation is in a spiritual battle depicted as a political power struggle. Most of our politicians in both parties, are committed to the globalist, godless, United Nations' agenda, not the US Constitution. The religion of the United Nations is the Gaia "Mother Earth" faith---- enemies of the Cross and Jesus Christ. Law-by-law the useless politicians are forcing this Liberalism on us by making laws that force this nation to sin.

Christians have not paid attention nor stayed informed or fought the spiritual battle in prayer and action. My voice is limited because of lack of finances, but we are faithful with what the Lord allows us to have.

The latest issue we are facing is the DACA plan. Watching this as the priority of this year for politicians surprised me after the election we won expressing the will of the people. However, our nation is divided. The Members of Congress are there because we elected them. We also elected President Trump. The President represents the working, prolife Christians, and our Constitution. He is being maligned, slandered, disrespected, accused, sued, just to name some of the demonic attacks. DACA is being forced on him by the liberals in control of our nation. The costs of flooding our nation with foreigners will affect seniors. This is not being reported. In last week's Faye's Facts I reported the law that was just passed in the House; HR 6489. The Lord spoke to me to compare what was taking place.

The new tax cuts are a miracle. God is pouring out His blessings on the hard working people for the first time in years. Companies pay exorbitant millions to the top executives, ignoring the frontline employees of these companies. That was the normal thing to do. So many hard workers have not had a raise or decent job since G. W. Bush was elected. When we look at the facts, our politicians have done little that is in the best interest of the American citizens in years. We must look at what they have done. Also, what they are doing.

First, the Lord brought to my attention how Sen. Rubio demanded a $2,000 per year tax subsidy to children of lower income people including to children of illegals. This could give any given family with more than one child thousands of dollars when multiplied by number of children. Below I am posting the facts about this give away to illegals and Middle East refugees in the US.

All of a sudden I saw my partners receiving Social Security that tell me they get $400- $1,000 per month. None receive additional government assistance. None get food stamps, welfare, tax bonuses at year end. I sat up in bed and said, "God, this is wrong". Why are seniors being targeted by lying Liberals? No one we elected told us seniors would pay for the invasion of this nation. Why not?

I then remembered writing about the raiding of the Social Security Trust Fund by former Presidents and the Congress in recent years. I came to my office and began to seek the truth so we could warn the nation of the attack taking place right now masquerading as a "Love Fest" and duty of America to support illegals as an act of mercy. Nothing could be further from the truth. What is taking place to destroy senior citizens is a spiritual test.

We must get out the facts. The useless members of Congress have made excuses for spending $20 trillion more than what was collected in taxes. They also spent $9 trillion Social Security Trust Funds and average $75 trillion of tax income since George W. Bush was elected. There is little to nothing spent in this nation. The spent billions on personal slush funds. They have imported thousands of Mid-East refugees while paying billions in foreign aid to nations so wicked they had to leave to have freedom or live. They lie to the American people, using each other to fight with so they don't have to do their jobs.

These lazy Con Artists are laughing at those of us paying the cost of their abuse of power. We are paying 100 senators and 455 House members for what? They get $1 – 2 million to use for staff, travel, etc. We are being ripped off big time. It is a trap and we, the people fell in it. They are extorting Pres. Trump with demanding amnesty for millions of illegals. No money for securing our borders.

SENIORS THERE MUST BE AN OUTCRY...

Most of the trillions they wasted, laundered, or mis-spent. They now plan to dissolve Social Security to cover their unconstitutional spending. They have redefined it as 'ENTITLEMENT' reform. We must pray them out of office and justice be served. Also, all criminal acts of politicians must come to light. We must demand Social Security Trust Funds be repaid with interest.

- We must demand income equality for seniors instead of funding illegals and refugees.
- We must demand Social Security recipients get raises and yearend bonuses to equal a minimum wage income; $1,600 month or more.
- We must demand retirement pensions of the Congress and Federal Employees --- tax funded --- be on the same scale as Social Security.

"Social Security Reform Act of 2016" (HR 6489) and it was just introduced last week. This bill will lower social security benefits for half of all seniors while increasing payments to the 1.2 million illegal aliens who -- according to the Washington Times -- have stolen the social security numbers of Americans!

Tell the House Ways & Means Committee to reject this incredible rip off bill which steals from the taxpayers and gives the money directly to aliens. Congress has known for five years not that more than one million illegals are filing false tax returns using stolen social security numbers. The feds even have the home addresses of these illegals on their returns -- but nothing is being done to stop them!

If Congress truly wants to fix social security it could be done overnight by booting all of the foreigners off of the program instead of penalizing the hardworking Americans who have paid into the system.

The Facts about DACA

BELOW IS A LIST OF PHONE NUMBERS of the Members of Congress who met with Trump at the White House Tuesday and are said to be meeting again today to hammer out the details of an immigration deal that could get a congressional vote next week.

1. PLEASE CALL ALL MEMBERS FROM YOUR STATE who are on the list.
2. If nobody is from your state, call a Member from your region of the country.
3. If you are really revved up, call anybody else on the list that you've been hankering to try to influence.

We've provided TOLL-FREE numbers for Members we think are especially important in this process. FRIENDS, DEALS ARE BEING MADE AND YOU HAVE TO ACT NOW IF YOU WANT TO BE PART OF DECIDING WHAT THE DEALS LOOK LIKE.

If you are ready to make that call, scroll down, get your number and phone your message that any immigration deal must -- at a minimum -- end Chain Migration and the Visa Lottery, and mandate E-Verify. CHAIN & LOTTERY---helping young-adult illegal aliens (DACA recipients) and further securing the border, but also to ending Chain Migration and ending the Visa lottery.

WE 'REBUKED' TRUMP ABOUT PUTTING MANDATORY E-VERIFY OFF UNTIL LATER

Mr. Trump envisioned, like previous grants of amnesty, would bolster both illegal and legal immigration levels, flooding the American labor market. "Amnesty-now and enforcement/reform-later agreements always fail the American people," Mr. Beck said in a statement. "President Trump must hold fast to his compact with American workers to greatly reduce both the illegal and legal competition from mass migration."

“My name is xxxxx. I know (Sen./Rep. xmxmxmx) is negotiating with the President about an immigration deal. The three most important things are

1. Ending Chain Migration,
2. Ending the Visa Lottery, and
3. Requiring every employer to use E-Verify. Thank you.”

It’s that simple. You can say more. But you don’t have to say any more than that to make a difference. Why are those three the most important actions? IT’S THE NUMBERS.

The DACA amnesty supporters are talking about work permits for 700,000 to 800,000 people.

Ending Chain Migration and the Visa Lottery would reduce lifetime work permits to legal immigrants by at least 3 MILLION in the first decade alone. And mandatory E-Verify not only would stop most future illegal workers but would gradually drive out hundreds of thousands (even millions) of illegal aliens who now hold U.S. jobs from holding them in the future.

You’ll notice that more than half the names on this list have long-time open-borders, immigration-expansionist records. THEY NEED TO HEAR WHAT YOU WANT MORE THAN ANY OF THEM because they may not really understand the depth of what polls say is the majority voter opinion in favor of all three of our top priorities.

Nightmare: DACA Amnesty DREAM Act Will Cost $115 Billion Thanks to Obamacare

Taxpayers in the United States will face a steep bill if the Trump administration signs legislation to extend legal status to so-called “Dreamers,” the illegal aliens who arrived as children and are now protected under the Obama-holdover unlawful executive order known as DACA.

The cost of a legislation to legalize childhood arrivals is likely to be far higher than earlier attempts because of Obamacare’s health insurance subsidies.

The Affordable Care Act subsidizes the costs of health insurance for millions of Americans and would likely foot the bill for many of those whose residency in the U.S. would be legalized by the DREAM Act.

The numbers are striking. The DREAM Act of 2017, the most likely vehicle for extending DACA protections and making them permanent, would raise federal outlays by $115 billion dollars, according to a Breitbart News analysis. Nearly all of that would be paid for by additional deficit spending.

That may come as a surprise to lawmakers. The last time the DREAM Act was seriously considered, the Congressional Budget Office said that the bill would reduce budget deficits by about $1.4 billion over the following decade. But that bill prohibited those it legalized from receiving subsidies toward health insurance until they became permanent legal residents after ten years, while the current version of the bill does not.

The DREAM Act of 2017, sponsored by Democrat Senator Dick Durbin and Republican Senator Lindsay Graham, would extend legal residency and a path to citizenship for at least 3.3 million people, according to the Migration Policy Institute. These include 1.8 million illegal aliens who would be immediately eligible, plus 1.5 billion who would become eligible in the near future by doing things such as enrolling in school.

Unlike the Senate DREAM bill from 2010 and Obama's DACA executive order, the current DREAM Act does not exclude those who benefit from the new immigration status from receiving health insurance subsidies under the Affordable Care Act.

This is a very expensive proposition. The individual mandate will be a powerful incentive for the newly legalized immigrants to obtain health insurance, and many will do so through the subsidized Obamacare marketplaces. The experience of California suggests that something like 79 percent of those getting the new legal status will turn to the subsidized individual market for insurance

Obamacare includes a health insurance premium tax credit available to households with income from one to four times the official federal poverty level. This means that the tax credit subsidies are available to individuals earning between $12,060 and $48,240. A family of four is eligible obtain tax credits if its income is below $98,000. It's likely that this means substantially all those legalized by the DREAM Act are eligible for subsidies. According to U.S. Berkeley's

Labor Center, 68 percent of DACA program enrollees in California were low-income and eligible for California's state-run medical insurance subsidies. The median annual income of current DACA aliens is $32,000, according to an August 2017 survey by Tom Wong of UC San Diego (undertaken for the liberal think tank Center for American Progress and other immigration advocacy groups). The median age is estimated to be around 25- years-old. Around a quarter of DACA aliens have a child born in the U.S.

According to the Kaiser Family Foundation, a single person living in San Jose, California with an income of $32,000 would be eligible to receive a premium tax credit of $1,048 in 2017. The numbers vary by geography because health insurance costs vary widely by geography. A single person in Brooklyn with $32,000 of income would be eligible for an annual tax credit of around $2,666. But San Jose is likely more representative due to the high concentration of DACA aliens in California. Using the San Jose figure, current DACA aliens alone would likely be immediately eligible for around $838.4 million in Obamacare subsidies this year.

Because DACA aliens have children and some are married, that figure does not fully account for the cost of their DREAM Act Obamacare subsidies. Add in one child for every four DACA enrolled aliens and the cost rises to $1.16 billion in tax credits. Even if we add a spouse to each DACA parent earning the same $32,000 of income (a very generous assumption), the immediate cost of Obamacare subsidies to DACA aliens is still around $1.16 billion.

Over time DACA workers will see their pay rise, more will get married, and they will have more children. For purposes of forecasting the cost of amnesty, assume a fairly representative DACA household would be in San Jose, have $64,000 of income that rises a healthy three percent each year, and include two adults and two children.

Nearly 80 percent will seek health insurance through the Obamacare marketplace, and Obamacare subsidies for these households would be around $7,073 per household in the first year.

Percent each year over the cost of the next ten years, producing a cumulative rise of 84 percent. So after 10 years, the representative household would earn $83,500 and be eligible to receive an Obamacare subsidy of $8,230. Even if the cost of health insurance subsidies remained level, after 10 years, this same family of four would receive $4,477 of subsidies after ten years. To be conservative, let's put the average cost of annual subsidies at the average of the two figures: $6,354.

Multiplied across 800,000 DACA households less the 21 percent expected to receive employer-based health care, the annual federal budgetary cost is around $4 billion or $40 billion over 10 years.

The Dream Act of 2017, however, extends legal residency to far more aliens than the current DACA program. If we include 79 percent of the 1.8 million immediately eligible, the cost would rise to $91.5 billion over a decade. Including that share of the larger 3.3 million figure would push the 10 year cost of Obamacare subsidies to the DREAM households to around $167 billion.

This means we're looking at a budgetary cost of around $165 billion over 10 years, almost all of which would be added to federal debt. That leaves us with $115 billion of federal debt over a decade from the DREAM Act. They might call it the DREAM Act, but in terms of the federal budget, it is a nightmare.

The Honorable Steven Mnuchin
Secretary, US. Department of Treasury
1500 Avenue, N.W.
Washington, DC. 20220

Dear Secretary Mnuchin:

The Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs has conducted extensive oversight on the damage caused by our unsecure borders. Thankfully, we now have an Administration committed to securing our borders. Under the Obama Administration, however the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) continued to provide a significant incentive for illegal immigration by failing to prevent the issuance of billions of dollars in fraudulent overpayments of the Additional Child Tax Credit (ACTC) to illegal aliens. The Committee learned in recent testimony that the IRS, under Commissioner John Koskinen, allows these fraudulent overpayments to persist. I am writing to respectfully ask that the Treasury Department review the refusal to prevent fraudulent overpayments of the ACTC to illegal aliens.

Bill Clinton's $3 Trillion Raid on Social Security

BY ADMIN

03/06/2000

Once again, Bill Clinton is trying to outdo Congress in protecting Social Security. Two years ago, he challenged the Congress to save 60 percent of the surplus for Social Security. In this year's budget, Clinton is proposing a "Social Security solvency lock-box" that is intended to secure every dollar of the Social Security surplus for Social Security.

While this plan may conjure up images of stacks of cash waiting in Fort Knox for the Baby Boomers to retire, the reality is that his plan leaves the vault empty when the program begins to run large cash deficits in just 14 years.

There is only one place to put the Social Security surplus - in the Personal Retirement Accounts of hard working Americans Clinton's lock-box plan is nothing more than a scheme to use more than $3 trillion in Social Security surpluses to buy down federal debt. In exchange, the Social Security trust fund gets another $3 trillion worth of IOUs.

As most Americans are also learning, there are only three ways to deal with this financial crisis: raise taxes, cut benefits, or borrow more money. These options will be the same regardless of how many IOUs are in the Social Security trust fund or how much debt is retired over the next decade.

The bottom line is that adding $3 trillion in IOUs to the Social Security trust fund, as the president's plan would do, can make the system look healthier on paper, but it does not create any real assets that can be drawn down to cover the system's shortfalls.

If American workers were allowed take the money Clinton wants to use to buy down debt, and invest it in their own personal retirement accounts earning, say, 8 percent annually, they would own nearly $6 trillion in assets by the time Social Security goes into deficit in 2014; and, they would own $56 trillion in assets by the time the trust fund runs out of IOUs in 2034.

Say President George W. Bush "borrowed" $1.37 trillion of Social Security surplus revenue

Bush financed those projects by plundering Social Security's retirement coffers, and you've got yourself a popular meme. "Bush spent every dime of Social Security surplus revenue that came in during his presidency. Bonds,

'borrowing,' and Bush. For about 50 years, Social Security was a "pay-as-you-go" system, meaning annual payroll taxes pretty much covered that year's benefits checks. Then in 1982, President Ronald Reagan enacted a payroll tax hike to prepare for the impending surge of retiring baby boomers, and a surplus began to build.

By law, the U.S. Treasury is required to take the surplus and, in exchange, issue interest-accruing bonds to the Social Security trust funds. The Treasury, meanwhile, uses the cash to fund government expenses.

Second, Bush didn't exclusively spend on the war, which has an estimated cost of $1.7 trillion. Other big costs include the financial bailout in 2008.

PRAYER POINTS

Rebuke the devourer! Call forth this prophetic word:

GOD HAS NOT FORGOTTEN YOU!

A Word by Lana Vawser

Last night I had a dream that had many layers to it but I felt the Lord wanted me to release part of the prophetic word contained in this dream. In the dream I began to boldly prophesying "GOD HAS NOT FORGOTTEN YOU!"

Instantly the sense surrounded me of the encouragement of God to those who feel like they have been overlooked, those who feel like they have been forgotten by the Lord and those who feel like they have not been seeing the fruit of the labors. I want to prophesy over you today that the Lord has not forgotten you. I prophesy over you in the name of Jesus Christ that your best days are upon you and the Lord is setting the stage for your greatest days of breakthrough, divine connections, networking, suddenly moments and fruitfulness.

Many of you have been feeling like your land has been dry, you have sowed for SO long and you have not seen the fruit of your sacrifices and the seeds of obedience, but friends, the Lord has NOT forgotten you.

In the dream after I prophesied about not being forgotten, the presence of God so strongly in the room, I opened my mouth and decreed: "You are NOW moving into your greatest days of seeing the GREATEST DEMONSTRATIONS of the FAITHFULNESS OF GOD that you have ever seen before."

Where the enemy has attempted to keep you in darkness, where the enemy has whispered to give up on your promises or give up hope on the breakthrough, the Lord is BREATHING HOPE on your breakthrough. He is breathing LIFE on your dry bones. He is breathing LIFE on the PROMISES that even YOU have FORGOTTEN.

The Lord is calling many of you out of the caves of HIDING. Where you have felt forgotten and like nothing is ever going to shift, the Lord is TURNING THE LIGHTS ON. He is turning the LIGHTS ON YOUR PROMISES by His faithfulness and His truth. He is bringing you back into the light. No longer will you be tormented and crushed by the heavy feeling that the Lord has forgotten you, the EXACT OPPOSITE is about to be demonstrated.

The Lord is about to show you how He is PRESENT with you, how He is FOR YOU and how He has NOT FORGOTTEN YOU and about to release to you blessings in acceleration and increase bigger than you have even imagined. (Ephesians 3:20, Amos 9:13-15)

Pray for hidden things to come to light and every criminal act of Members of Congress to be revealed and justice to be served.

Pray for funds to come forth for our ministry to reach out. I am praying to inherit an oil well so we can do the work of the Lord in our nation. Agree with me.
