VISIONS 2100: Stories from Your Future

BOOK TOUR – JULY 2016

Visions 2100 shares eighty stories from some of the world's leading environmental thinkers and influencers and tells of their visions of the future world.

Climate Change visions can be scary but foretelling of catastrophe does not inspire the wider community. Storytelling of a better world can mobilise communities and global networks to deliver extraordinary outcomes. The global Visions 2100 Project seeks to recalibrate environmental communications by telling stories of a better world.

Join author John O'Brien and many of the contributors across events in Singapore, Edinburgh, Dublin and London in July 2016
