

TaLK Prospectus 2017

I. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Teach and Learn in Korea (TaLK) Program invites young, adventurous college students and recent graduates to teach English to elementary school students living in the rural areas of South Korea. Funded by the Ministry of Education (MOE), the TaLK Program aims to cultivate a strong desire to learn English through the use of innovative and engaging classroom teaching methods designed by our own scholars. While teaching, participants will have the opportunity to learn about the many facets of Korean culture and find time to travel to distinct regions of the Korean peninsula. TaLK is the perfect program for those who aspire to lead the next generation and who seek to gain personal and professional enrichment through teaching.

II. ELIGIBILITY

1. Nationality

- Citizens of Australia, Canada, Ireland, New Zealand, South Africa, the United Kingdom or the United States of America
- Overseas Koreans who are permanent residents in one of the aforementioned countries

V. BENEFITS

1. Monthly Stipend (subject to Korean tax withholding*)

Payment of the monthly stipend - a fixed amount of 1,500,000 Korean Won (KRW) - will be provided starting at the end of the first month that scholars teach. The month of orientation will not be financially compensated, but instead, housing, training and meals will be covered by the TaLK Program.

2. Settlement Allowance (one-time payment)

A fixed amount of KRW 300,000 is given generally within one month after arrival at the elementary school.

3. Housing or Fixed Monthly Rent

The POE will decide the type of housing for each scholar. Monthly housing settlement (a fixed fee of KRW 400,000) may be provided instead, if a scholar wishes to make his or her own housing arrangement before his or her arrival in Korea. Any fees, charges, taxes and expenses incurred in using the apartment shall be borne by the scholar.

4. Entrance Allowance & Exit Allowance

The Entrance/Exit allowances of KRW 1,300,000 will be provided during the awarded Scholarship Term.

5. Medical Insurance Coverage

All TaLK scholars are provided the Study Abroad Health Insurance Plan during the TaLK scholarship period. Each POE reserves the right to choose the type of insurance plan for their TaLK scholars and the scholars must adhere to the decisions made by their POE.

100% reimbursement is not applicable under the Study Abroad Health Insurance Plan. Medical insurance coverage does not begin until the school registers their scholars for an Alien Registration Card (ARC).

6. Vacation & Sick Leave

Term Length	Per 6 Months
Vacation Days (Per Term)	7 Business Days

Vacation leave must be requested at least 15 days in advance and must be authorized by the Principal.

Under no circumstances should any TaLK scholar be absent without notifying the mentor teacher. A doctor's medical report (or a physician's note) must be submitted if sick leave is taken for three (3) or more calendar days. All class periods missed due to sick leave must be made up.

7. TaLK Orientation

The online pre-orientation training, on-site orientation and online in-service training are designed to give TaLK scholars the foundation they need to make a successful start in their teaching career and life in Korea.

Each participant will have the opportunity to learn about life as a TaLK scholar and a chance to have his/her questions and concerns be answered during the on-site orientation period. They will also have the opportunity to meet with their POE supervisor, mentor teacher and Korean scholar(s).

- Online Pre-orientation: Must be completed before their entry into Korea.
- TaLK On-site Orientation: February 4 – February 21 (To Be Confirmed)
- POE Orientation & School Placement: February 21~ (To Be Confirmed, Differs between each POE)

All expenses including food, accommodation and participation in activities during the on-site orientation will be covered by the TaLK Program. If, for any reason, a scholar fails to complete the orientation, it will be considered as a breach of the scholarship term, thereby prohibiting them from further participation in the program.

8. Co-Teaching System

POE-designated co-scholars (Korean university students) may be present to teach cooperatively with the Overseas TaLK Scholar. This is highly subject to availability.

9. Government Scholarship Certificate

A certificate of Korean Government Scholarship will be awarded at the end of the scholarship term to those who have successfully completed their term in the TaLK Program.

10. Cultural Experience Programs

Programs for experiencing the Korean culture may be arranged by each respective POE. Cultural experiences may be held on the weekends or weekdays under the POE's discretion.
