Profile:

For me, living as a photographer must be my last resort to survive in this world but I don't simply just take photos. It is more like an expression of my passions, memories and ideology. Especially, through the B&W photographs ("Giclée" type on Inkjet Fine Art Paper), I can revive them as parts of past myself by pouring my aesthetics, philosophy and soul into all-layer subjects flowing in parallel with unconscious world or invisible phenomenon in space-time without boundaries on/off the street. So, my simple philosophy for living on in this world and for taking photos is: "Everything is in flux and nothing is permanent. No one can stop the flow of time. So, the act of me taking pictures in an instant is a modest resistance of just that."

Experiences:

■ A Collaborator W/Galleries All Over The World - Independent Artist:
March 2017 - Present

I directly can contact curators, collaborators or art directors of galleries all over the world and negotiate, plan or request with them about the next exhibits, group shows or events including new ideas for them. Also, I directly can tie up the artist agreements between he and galleries through curators, collaborators or art directors worldwide and then, maturely, submit each idea, select my works and arrange a collaboration with each other. Of course, I myself can ship my works to overseas via Japanese International couriers if they need.
