Things to Ponder This Week

Based on Luke 5:12, we see that not only did this man display faith in Jesus, but he also showed complete trust in Him. Do you truly believe that Jesus can heal you? Do you trust that it is Jesus' will to heal you, or better yet can you trust Jesus to accomplish His will without concern as to your own benefit?

Based on Luke 5:13, how does Jesus see people, and how does He respond to the needs of those who are weak, sick, and downtrodden? How does Jesus see you? How does Jesus minister to your areas of weakness, sickness, and discouragement?

Based on Luke 5:14-16, how did Jesus act in the moment of the miraculous healing of the man covered with leprosy? How did those around Him respond? What is your response to Jesus' power and love to miraculously heal people? What can you learn from Jesus example regarding prayer? Do you take the time to pray in quiet with God? Commit yourself to continually seek the Lord for strength to live each day.

Next Sunday, we will be blessed to hear from Greg Newell as he brings us the message in our worship service. Prayerfully read Luke 5:17-26, and consider Jesus' authority to forgive sins. How does healing and forgiveness go hand in hand?
