Mike, John,

A GMCA moratorium needs to be put in motion as when you have the facts that are now in your possession, there is enough information to say we have a problem.

Do We Think We Have A Problem - In The Banking System?

PRESENTATION TO INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON ECONOMIC CRIME 8 SEPTEMBER 2018

JESUS COLLEGE CAMBRIDGE

The only major banking fraud that has been brought to justice in recent years was the HBOS Reading case in which 6 people were sentenced to nearly 50 years imprisonment in Feb 2017. Throughout the case Lloyds Bank, which had taken over HBOS in 2008, denied a fraud had taken place or that it was itself a victim of the fraud. The fraud approached £1Bn, though only £245m was exposed in court. It is quite clear that the fraud was known about at board level in 2008, and concealed for 8 years by senior executive directors of both HBOS and Lloyds.

Throughout that 8 years the bank had bankrupted companies they had knowingly defrauded. Personal guarantees have been plundered, huge numbers of jobs were lost, viable companies stripped of their assets, and people were ruined on a wide scale. People ended up living in cheap hotels, families were broken up, and suicides resulted. No one at senior board level has been brought to justice. The system to recompense those defrauded through HBOS Reading is run by Lloyds and is called the Professor Griggs Review. It is not independent, it does not recompense properly, it imposes gagging orders, there has no right of appeal, a take it or leave it offer is made, and is a travesty of justice. Many defrauded through Reading are not even considered as they did not deal directly with those imprisoned, but dealt with their staff. It is a disgrace.

LIBOR and PPI skimmed billions off the top. These Asset Theft Frauds (ATF), ruined people, and the sums of money involved are as large. The main reason they have not been brought to justice is that they were confined to the UK. LIBOR was perpetrated in the USA, where they have far tighter rules, and people go to gaol for breaking them.

Do We Think We Have A Problem - In Government

The Treasury has done all it can to protect the banks, not only RBS and Lloyds, but other smaller banks as well. There appear to be two reasons for this, firstly to sell off the government held shares as quickly as possible, secondly that the civil servants and Ministers, including Chancellors, have been keeping an over keen eye on their future highly lucrative employment within the banking sector. Industry has taken second place to banking, and thousands of viable companies and jobs have been destroyed as a result.

Andrew Tyrie, who was Chairman of the Treasury select Committee until last year, was onto this. In January last year he wrote to the Chancellor Philip Hammond. He said the Treasury Select Committee found it inappropriate that the Treasury should have such extensive powers of direction over financial reviews. The ability of the Treasury to block reviews by the regulators under the Financial Services Act 2012 should be amended as it was seen as a way for the Treasury to cover up its own mistakes. Philip Hammond replied saying he had no intention of amending the Act, and came up with reasons for not doing so. A cynic would say the reason for not amending the Act had far more to do with protecting the Treasury than with protecting the government or public.

Do We Think We Have A Problem - In Government

A senior Metropolitan Police Officer fraud officer put in a long and detailed report to the Treasury Select Committee in 2012. He said, and I quote him, 'The British banking sector has become an organised criminal enterprise, which has resulted from the absence of any meaningful regulation which those who control and manage the banks would fear'. I do not believe this to be true across all our banking sector, but it does appear to be the case in too much of it.

I brought this all to the attention of the Prime Minister early last year. She is an MP in my area. It was passed to the Cabinet Secretary, Sir Jeremy Heyward. He invited me to go and discuss this with him. When my office took up that invitation I received a curt short letter back saying 'he had taken advice and had been advised not to talk to me'. I politely asked twice who had advised him and what they had advised him as that seemed to go to the heart of the problem. I did not receive a reply to either of those two letters.

A number of actions, that should have been taken years ago, now need to be taken.

Philip May, husband of the UK prime minister, works for a company that is the largest shareholder in arms manufacturer BAE Systems, whose share price has soared since the recent airstrikes in Syria.

The company, Capital Group, is also the second largest shareholder in Lockheed Martin - a US military arms firm that supplies weapons systems, aircraft and logistical support. Its shares have also rocketed since the missile strikes last week.

Parliamentary debate on business banking fraud and the role of the regulators. Specifically the lack of action by Police Forces, Serious Fraud Office and the regulators FSA now FCA is debated. Lloyds HBOS GFG RBS. Individuals stories.

MP William Wragg - Stockport opened stating "How Do We Unpick This?" Its a sorry state of affairs that MPs find themselves here again where 1000's of SMEs had their accounts plundered by their Banks. This is the Fourth debate where systemic asset stripping, inflated charges, fees are levied and no one Bank has been brought to justice.

Subject: CONSPIRACY TO COMMIT FRAUD - THE BRITISH MODEL

Dear Sirs

"As a nation, we pride ourselves on the rule of law. Above the Old Bailey stands the gilded statue of Lady Justice, she carries the sword of justice in one hand and the scales of justice in the other. She wears a blindfold to symbolise that justice is blind and does not distinguish between the powerful and the weak. Yet for those who have been the victims of the systematic fraud practised by UK banks and financial institutions, such sentiment is nonsense. The statue representing their experience of justice would be heavily rusted rather than gilded. It would wear a blindfold to avoid having to see the activities of the financial institutions whose wrongdoing has ruined individuals and families, and its arms would be firmly tied behind its back to symbolise the lack of activity by both the police and the regulators." "...we have seen clear evidence of tampering with documents, false witness statements and the leveraging of a position of power and clout to drive many thousands of good businesses into insolvency."

The Government is working on extensive investigations into Dominic Grieve, Oliver Letwin and Hilary Benn [who tabled the Bill] and their involvement with foreign powers and the funding of their activities.

If it were a mistake it could be excusable but for the fact we know now you are aware of "Silent Weapons Quiet Wars" . This was planned.

As the BREXIT fiasco was planned. This is PLANNED GENOCIDE.

The time is now to start hauling in those who are responsible accountable consulted and informed and did nothing.

Those in public office under oath or governed by a constitution. They have an accountability to their public.
