NEWS FROM HENNOCK PRIMARY SCHOOL

The end of the Autumn term at Hennock Primary School culminates in our Christmas production. This year, the children performed 'Ebenezer', based on 'A Christmas Carol' by Charles Dickens.

The journey that the children go on to get to the final performance never ceases to amaze me - their ability to learn lines and cues, their physical acting, comedy timing, singing and teamwork to reach an end goal was just brilliant this year.

The children also put a lot of work into designing the set and decorating the hall; they used mod-roc to create picture frames in a Victorian style and dried orange and salt dough to make decorations.

Best of all though, seeing each individual's growth in their confidence to perform and the resilience they demonstrate is what makes the Christmas production a very special event in our school calendar.

VE DAY CELEBRATIONS WEEKEND & WW2 EXHIBITION 8/9/10 MAY

The Village Hall Committee would like to organise some events to celebrate the 75th anniversary of VE Day. To this end, we invite all those who have any ideas or suggestions about how this can be celebrated, to come along to a meeting in the Village Hall at 7.30pm on Wednesday 18 March. One suggestion is a 1945 themed dance in the Village Hall, which should be a great deal of fun.

We also intend preparing an exhibition in the Village Hall of photographs and/or stories about WW2 which will then be transferred to St. Mary's church for a service on Sunday 10 May at 10am.

If you have any queries, contact Linda on 01626 833256/Linda@stickwick.co.uk
We look forward to seeing you.

The Duck - Friday 21 February - The Dolphin Hotel, Bovey Tracey

Sometimes we all feel different, but not every one has that confirmed by a professional. The Duck grew up confused and fascinated by the world around her, but it is only when she receives her autism diagnosis that all those misunderstandings start making sense.

A funny and moving award-winning new play by autistic writer and poet, Rhi Lloyd-Williams. The Duck is an exploration of one woman's life after she gets her autism diagnosis. Patterns and connections are fashioned from fragments of memories, as you follow the tangential threads through her mind, starring Lucy Theobald, and directed by Jo Loyn.

This is a professional production, being performed by Lucy Theobald of Autact Theatre. Tickets are £10 (£8 for concessions) and will be on sale at the Dolphin, or Arnolds and can be reserved via email boveytraceyplayers@gmail.com.

VILLAGE HALL RE-THATCH

Have you noticed that Hennock Village Hall has a new bonnet?

After more than 20 years, the Village Hall needed a new roof, so who better to do it than Dave Trant, the person who originally thatched the roof all that time ago. So, together with his merry band of thatchers, he set to work. They really worked hard in absolutely terrible weather but, in spite of this, they have done an excellent job.

Take a look and see how beautiful it is now.

The Village Hall is a wonderful asset for the area so, why not make use of it for your family events or club meetings. The rates are reasonable and there is a well equipped kitchen.
