All holiday services will be held at: Masonic Temple, 828 North Branciforte Ave., Santa Cruz

In consideration of people with allergies or asthma, please do not wear perfume or scents

Directions to FCC from the South or from CA-17:

Directions to Tashlich and RH Children's Service: Head south on N. Branciforte Ave toward Sunnyside Ave, Turn right on Soquel Ave, then right onto Dakota Ave, park is on the left.

Since there are ducks on the pond, please do not bring bread or crumbs. Duck food will be provided.

Ritual practices - Dressing & Fasting during Yom Kippur:

You are invited to join us in wearing white and wearing a tallit (prayer shawl) for Yom Kippur services. To return to simplicity, some do not wear leather, makeup or jewelry.

For those who are not fasting on Yom Kippur, please be discreet if eating on site, in order to respect and support those who are fasting.

Food: Please bring vegetarian/vegan items to the potluck on Rosh Hashana and for break-the-fast on Yom Kippur. Dishes brought in the morning may be placed in the refrigerator.

Volunteer Opportunities: It takes a community to create a meaningful High Holyday experience. We are appreciative of your assistance whether it be for 30 minutes or 3 hours! To volunteer in ANY WAY, please sign up at
