

GAP CLUB

Gaming, Arts and Pokemon

Open to children aged 9 to 13 years who want to meet other fans of these activities.

All our clubs are aimed at young people on the autism spectrum who are of mainstream ability but who need support in their social understanding.

The GAP club is for 9–13 year olds who want to meet like minded others interested in Gaming, Arts and Pokemon. We also have some other activities including Lego, board games and more. Our club workers are DBS checked and experienced and trained in autism.

Participants are offered a four weekly place on a Saturday morning.

The clubs take place at :-

Harmony Education Centre, 4 Cordwallis Street, Maidenhead SL6 7BE.

Our clubs are very popular and places are limited!

We are happy to put children aged 8 on our waiting list.

Each 2 hour session is £7.50
