THE TORAH

It is defined as the instruction of the Almighty for his people.

I will begin by commenting that when a person decides to follow the Messiah of Israel, Yahshua HaMashiach, stops being gentile, Shaul (Paul) writes in 1 Corinthians 12:2: "You know that you were gentiles..."

The Torah did not come to be abolished by Yahshua HaMashiach (see Matthew 5:17-19).

By the faith we uphold the Torah (Romans 3:31).

He is not a Jew, which is one outwardly, he is a Jew, which is one inwardly (Romans 2:28-29).

One who decides to follow the Messiah of Israel, becomes a citizen of Israel (Ephesians 2:12).

The Mitzvot (commandments) are true (Hebrews 10:26-31).

The correct name is a Covenant not a Testament (Hebrews 9:16-17).

There are people that call evil good and good evil (Isaiah 5:20), therefore the Torah was not abolished, but confirmed by faith.

Keeping the Torah does not save, it is the obedient faith (Emunah in Hebrew) to the Messiah of Israel. Consequently, if I am saved, because I love Him, I keep the Torah (see John 14:15 and 21).

There are a few commandments in the Torah that nowadays do not concern to us, but there are many more that we must keep, for example: the 10 Mitzvot that we find in Exodus: "It is included to keep the Shabbat, which is the correct day of true worship. We should worship the Eternal One and rest on the seventh day of the week, not on the first day of the week (see Exodus 20:8-11)."

We must keep the feasts of HaShem YHWH (see Leviticus 23). For those of us who believe in the Messiah, of course sacrificing of animals do not correspond us. The perfect sacrifice was done once and forever by Yahshua HaMashiah.

We must eat allowed food (kosher food) (see Leviticus chp. 11).

All of this was not abolished, not even the covenants, which we will talk about in another section.

We cannot say that Yahshua made a mistake; He is the same one, yesterday, today, and forever.

The Eternal Father demands neither to add nor to take out anything from His word, see Deuteronomy 4:2.

Shaul rejoiced himself in the Torah, see Romans 7:22. He calls it Holy, Just and Good (see Romans 7:12).

The Torah was not destroyed or abolished, it is perfect, Psalms 19:7, James 1:25.

It is the Torah of the Messiah! Galatians 6:2.

The ones who observe the Torah have blessings, the ones that do not keep it, are carrying curses on them, (see Deuteronomy 28).

The Mitzvot are not impossible to be obeyed (Deuteronomy 30:11-14).

Shaul never talked against the Torah (see Acts 24:14, Acts 25:8, Acts 26:22, and Acts 28:17).

Shaul observed Pesach (Passover) Acts 26; He also kept the feast of Shavuot (Pentecost) Acts 20:16.

Many people think that before Yahshua HaMashiach, they were saved by keeping the Torah, mistranslated as “the Law”. Many other people think that after the Messiah, people are saved by grace, but this is a very serious mistake. All of the men have attained the salvation by the grace of the Eternal One, examples: Noah (Genesis 6:8), Moses (Exodus 33:12-13), Gideon (Judges 6:17) and in general the people of Israel (Jeremiah 31:2).

The Torah is true (see Psalms 119:142 and 151).

Those of us who love the Torah have Shalom (peace) (see Psalms 119:165)

The people change the truth for a lie (Romans 1:25)

Currently, many people think that the Christian church has replaced the people of Israel, but this an error. The Eternal One has not casted out his people (Romans 11:1).

It is not Judaizing, it is to impart the Torah Emmet (instruction of truth), because it is prophesied that the Messiah will restore all the things that He said, by his holy prophets' mouths (see Acts 3:21).

It is going back to the old path (see Jeremiah 6:16).

It is a restoration, not a renovation. The Torah is light (Proverbs 6:23).

He that turns away his ear from hearing the Torah, his prayer shall be an abomination (see Proverbs 28:9).

The grace of the Eternal One does not include a license to sin (Romans 3:8, Romans 6:1-2, and Jude 4).

The Torah is a lamp, to see well (Psalms 119:105).

Those who do not keep the Torah walk in darkness (John 8:12, John 12:35, 1 John 1:6, and 1 John 2:11).

The salvation is by faith, Habakkuk 2:4, Romans 1:17, Galatians 3:11, Hebrews 10:38. But it is precisely that, because I am saved, I keep the Torah; there are 613 Mitzvot in the Old Covenant and 1050 Mitzvot in the New Covenant.

Therefore, the Torah is totally related with the grace, and the grace is completely related with the Torah.

Why must we keep the Torah? See Titus 3:5-7, 1 John 3:4-6, 1 John 2:3-6, James (Jacob) 2:14-26, Psalms 19:7.

Only by the Torah we know what sin is, see Romans 7:7.

If we are of Yahshua HaMashiach then we are descendants of Abraham, see Galatians 3:29.

Those who keep the Torah will have a great award (Psalms 19). They will be bright like the stars for the eternity (Daniel 12 verse 3), Yahshua summarized the Torah in Matthew 22:34-40, Marks 12:28-31, Luke 10:25-37, Matthew 7:12, and Luke 6:3.

The Torah is light, therefore those who keep it are the children of light (Luke 16:8, John 12:36, Ephesians 5:8, and 1Thessalonians 5:5).

The Torah gives freedom (John 8:32).

THE NAME OF OUR ETERNAL FATHER

Exodus 20; the first commandment states we must remember His name.

Exodus 3:15; His name has to be remembered

Leviticus 19:12; do not swear falsely in His name.

Psalms 44:20-21; do not forget His name.

Psalms 20:7 (NKJV); to remember His name. Psalm 20:8 (JPS); to call on His name.

Jeremiah 23:27; His name was forgotten.

Prophecy says that: in the early morning of the third day, he would restore a pure language to redeem his true name, Zephaniah 3:9.

Elohim removes all false names which he has been given, Hosea 2:16-17.

☐ The name of our Eternal Father is written as YHWH, pronounced as “Yahweh”.

☐ The name of the Messiah is Yahshua.

HALLELU-YAH means praised be YHWH.

In order to correctly pronounce Yahshua, there must be an emphasis in “Yah”. Yahshua means YHWH is our shuah (salvation).

The name of the Holy Spirit is Ruach HaKodesh.

Due to the rebelliousness of the children of Israel, our Eternal Father forbade them from saying his name, Jeremiah 44:26.

It is prophesied that we will know his name again, Isaiah 52:6.

Cites of His Holy name:

- Psalm 33:21
- Psalm 34:3
- Psalm 91:14-15
- Psalm 92:1
- Psalm 103:1

The greatest mission is to get those that are lost; it will be done on His real name, Mark 16:15-20. Whatever we ask for from our Eternal Father is asked in the name of Yahshua, John 16:23.

The Eternal Father placed his name in the city of Jerusalem. That is why it is pronounced as Yahrushalaim, 1 Kings 11:36.

If you, kind reader, obey and believe in the Messiah of Israel, and pray in His holy blessed name, you will see a great difference.

Proper names cannot be translated. Therefore, names like Jehovah and Jesus are wrong.

THE TWO HOUSES OF ISRAEL

King Solomon did not keep the covenant with YHWH, Deuteronomy 17:16-17, 1 Kings 10:27-28, and 1 Kings 11:1-3.

Jeroboam rebelled against Solomon. Jeroboam comes from Ephraim, son of Joseph, son of Jacob, see Genesis 48:5-20. Jacob placed his right hand over Ephraim, who was his youngest son, and placed his left hand over Manasseh, whom was his oldest son. This hand placement created the first letter of the Hebrew alphabet, Aleph.

In 1 Kings 11:26-31, we find the prophet Ahijah. He tore his robe into twelve pieces and gave ten to Jeroboam. This indicated that ten tribes would separate from Judah and Benjamin. Jeroboam caused the people to sin, read 1 Kings 12:25-33. YHWH decreed judgment in 1 Kings 14:15-16.

YHWH took away His joyful feasts from these ten tribes, Hosea 2:11. He also removed them from the kohanim (priest) positions.

Israel (the ten lost tribes) is like a half-baked loaf of bread (Hosea 7:8) because they violated the covenant of YHWH (Hosea 8:1-3). They regarded the Torah as something strange and foreign (Hosea 8:12), so the Almighty Father gave them unclean food for to eat. The House of Judah remains faithful. (Hosea 11:12)

The House of Israel sinned by worshipping Baal (Hosea 13:1). It seemed like there was no hope, but YHWH was merciful and promised a new covenant (Jeremiah 31:31).

Although most of the branches (of the House of Israel) were broken off, not all were. In Acts 21:20 we find that thousands of Jews believed in Yahshua and were zealot to the Torah. We understand that the ten tribes represent the younger son, the house of Israel or Ephraim.

Two tribes represent the older son (Judah).

This closely relates to what Yahshua said in the parable of Luke 15:11-32. In the parable the youngest son returns to his father, and this is happening now during the morning of the third prophetic day found in Hosea 6:1-2.

The House of Israel became pagan and is dispersed among the nations.

We have a clear example in Mexico, the majority of its population originated from Spain, also known as Sefarad. Sefarad is what we now know as Spain and Portugal, and it was here where many Israelites once lived, see Obadiah 20. Therefore, without knowing many people are Jewish, biblically speaking, they are part of the House of Israel. The descendants House of Israel are discovering their Hebrew roots during the morning of the third prophetic day, and the Eternal Father is restoring all things. In other words, it is not a renovation it is a restoration, to go back to the original, Acts 3:21. All of the first believers where Jewish, and the disciples of the apostles were instructed with the Torah, as every Shabbat in the synagogues, Acts 15:21.

We are not Judaizing, but restoring. He who speaks against one or many Jews will be cursed, read Genesis 12:3. He that touches Israel, touches the apple of His eye Israel, Zechariah 2:8 (NKJV), Zechariah 2:12 (JPS) So, if a person speaks bad against Israel, he is touching the apple of His eye.

Yahshua came to look for the lost sheep of the House of Israel, the ten tribes, read Matthew 15:24.

Only a remnant of the house of Israel will be saved (Romans 9:27).

Caiaphas himself that the Messiah would come for that purpose because he read the Torah, even though he did not recognized it himself (John 11:49-52).

The prophecy of Ezekiel 37 is being fulfilled right before our eyes. The prophecy states that the dry bones (the House of Israel), multitude of gentiles are coming back and returning to the Elohim of Israel. They are recognizing Yahshua as the Messiah, and keep the Torah Emet, because they are recognizing their Hebrew roots.

Ezekiel 37:2 speaks of a valley. The valley is the world, see Matthew 13:38.

In conclusion, the house of Israel is practically found in every nation all over the world (valley). During this morning of the third prophetic day both of the houses will be restored by HaShem YHWH, it includes to keep the Torah, keep Shabbat, keep the feasts, and eat kosher.

THE FEASTS OF ELOHIM

Annual Feasts

1. Pesach (Passover). The deliverance of Israel from slavery in Egypt.
2. HaMatzah (Unleavened bread). The people of Israel came out of Egypt.
3. Bikkurim or Omer Reshit (First fruits). The people of Israel crossed the Red Sea.
4. Shavuot (Pentecost). The Torah is given to the People of Israel at Mount Sinai.
5. Yom Teruah (Feast of the trumpets or the sound of the Shofar).
6. Yom Kippur (Day of Forgiveness).
7. Sukkot (Tabernacles or Feast of the tents). It is the entrance to the Promised Land.

All these feasts are described in Leviticus 23. They are part of the Torah and were never banned by Yahshua, Matthew 5:17.

Yahshua HaMashiah died during the feast of Pesach; He represented HaMatzah, bread without yeast (without “sin”). He resurrected during the feast of Bikkurim. During the feast of Shavuot, he poured out the Ruach HaKodesh (Holy Spirit). During the feast of Yom Teruah He will return for us. During the feast of Yom Kippur, he will step on the Mount of Olives. Finally, during the feast of Sukkot, those who have lived in holiness will enter the Millennium. To think or say that the Old Testament does not apply to us anymore is to deprive ourselves from an extraordinary wealth.

We will not understand anything in the New Covenant (translated as Testament), if we are not able to study and understand the Old Covenant (Old Testament).

Each one of the parables that Yahshua gave to us is related to the Old Testament.

Followers of the Messiah of Israel must understand that the feasts have to be part of his/her life, and apply them in their life in the following manner:

1. Pesach: Our sins must die.

2. HaMatzah: To live without sin.

3. Bikkurim: We must offer fruits of genuine repentance and guide others to follow the Messiah.

4. Shavuot: To be filled with the Ruach HaKodesh.

5. Yom Teruah: Meeting with the Savior.

6. Yom Kippur: Although Yahshua paid for our sins already, we are still sin against Elohim. Therefore, it is a special day where we can check ourselves with Adonai.

7. Sukkot: The entrance to the promised land, the New Yahrushalaim.

Some people think that these feasts are optional. They think it is up to their decision to keep them or not. What should we answer to this? The Tanak (Bible) states, there is a curse to those who do not keep the feast of Sukkot, Zechariah 14:16-19.

Also, there are monthly feasts called Rosh Chodesh, meaning the head or beginning of the month. In the Millennium they will be kept, Isaiah 66:23.

Important Notes:

Yahshua died on a Wednesday and resurrected on Shabbat, Luke 13:10, 31-32.

He was glorified in the Shabbat; the resting day declared by Elohim, Shabbat is the seventh day of the week, not the first day of the week.

SHABBAT

It is a covenant, sign and commandment (read Exodus 31:16, Ezekiel 20:19-20).

We must remember the Shabbat to keep it holy (read Exodus 20:8).

We must not work on Shabbat (read Deuteronomy 5:12-14),

We must not buy or sell (Nehemiah 13:15-21).

We should not speak our own words on Shabbat, we should not do our own ways, we should not follow our own desire on Shabbat. We should honor the Shabbat and call this day a delight; this is the glorious day of YHWH (Isaiah 58:13-14).

Worship the Eternal One on Shabbat (Isaiah 66:23). You must not kindle a fire in any of your dwellings on Shabbat (Exodus 35:3).

It is allowed to do good things: to preserve life, to restore the health, and to go to the Kehila or synagogue.

Shabbat begins on Friday at sunset and ends on Saturday at sunset, depending on the season (read Genesis 1:5, Exodus 12:6).

Once men enter into all the covenants such as the Brit Milah, they must wear the tallit or praying garment (Deuteronomy 22:12, Numbers 15:37-41).

Women should cover their heads with a mitpachat (head covering).

We pray to receive the Shabbat, praise the Eternal One, then, there is a Torah Emmet ministration. We bless the boys and girls of the congregation. We perform the Netilat Yadayim (washing of the hands) we bless the bread and wine. Later we dance to the Eternal One because we live in holiness. We read a Psalm, such as 105, which narrates the history of the people of Israel. At the end of the siddur (service), the Roeh (Pastor) gives the blessings that are found in Numbers 6:23-26.

THE COVENANTS OF YHWH

There are not dispensations; Elohim made covenants.

Covenant with Adam: read Genesis 2:15-17, Genesis 3:14-23, Romans 5:12-21, and 1 Corinthians 15:21-22.

Covenant with Noah: read Genesis 9:1-17.

Covenant with Abraham: Genesis 17:1-27. The posterior covenants do not nullify the covenants that already existed, read Galatians 3:15-17. Therefore, whosoever is not circumcised is not included in the covenant that Elohim made with Abraham.

Brit Milah, known as circumcision, was not an invention of Abraham neither of Moshe, it is a covenant that Elohim made with Abraham and his descendants.

To fulfill the Mitzvot is a testimony (Mark 16:20, Acts 2:43, Acts 4:30, Acts 8:5-8).

Elohim did not give the circumcision to be saved; it is a covenant and it avails a lot, (Romans 3:1-2). Yahshua fulfilled with this covenant (Luke 2:21).

During the millennium all of the men will be circumcised (Ezekiel 44:9). We follow the steps of Abraham, read Romans 4:9-12.

We should circumcise ourselves because of our love to Elohim, not because it is imposed.

-Pact with Moshe:

1. At Mount Sinai (Horeb)
2. At Moab (Arabia)

This covenant says that if the people of Israel are exiled because they separated themselves from the Torah, then, if they return to Elohim, He will restore them, read Exodus 19:5, Exodus 24:7, Deuteronomy 4:6-8, Deuteronomy 5:1-3, Psalm 147:19-20, Romans 9:4, Deuteronomy 4:2, Deuteronomy 12:32, Exodus 27:21, Deuteronomy 29-30, and Leviticus 26, all chapter.

Covenant with David, Elohim promised Israel that the throne of David will last forever, this promise is fulfilled by Yahshua HaMashiach, read 2 Samuel 7:1-29, 1 Chronicles 17:4-15, and Psalm 89:19-37.

The New Covenant: Elohim made it with the House of Judah and the House of Israel, read Jeremiah 31:31, and Isaiah 59:20-21.

Elohim will write His Torah in their hearths, read Jeremiah 31:33, and Jeremiah 32:40).

Elohim will have an especial relationship with the people of Israel, everyone will know Him, all of the transgressions of Israel will be forgiven. He will give them the entire Promised Land, they will be multiplied, and the temple will be forever in Israel, read Jeremiah 31:33-35, Jeremiah 32:41-44, and Ezekiel 37:26-28.

PESACH

It is the first day of HaMatzah (Feast of Unleavened Bread) See Matthew 26:17-19.

Rav Shaul (Paul) taught about it (See 1 Corinthians 11:23-26).

The new covenant was prophesized in Jeremiah 31:31. Therefore, let us understand that the New Covenant was made with the tribe of Judah, and with the tribe of Israel. Thus, because of YHWH's mercy, every gentile becomes a partaker of the root and fatness of the olive tree (Romans 11:17-25). There are too many people thinking that the New Covenant was made with the gentile Christian church, but as we can realize, the Christian church did not exist when the New Covenant was made.

Any person that dares to say that the Torah is not to be observed by us, nowadays, and that it should be observed only by the Jewish people. Then, that person does not have any right to participate of this supper celebration = Pesach. It is celebrated every year, not every weekend or every month. You can celebrate the Passover, even if you are not an Israeli descendant. Remember that, the gentile becomes part of the commonwealth of Israel (Ephesians 2:12). In Galatians 3:29 the word of the Eternal One says, "And if you are Messiah's, then, you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise."

A person is not a gentile anymore when he/she really believes in Yahshua as his/her Adon (Lord) (see 1 Thessalonians 1:9 and 1 Corinthians 12:2).

After Yahshua sacrificed His life for us, there is no need for us to sacrifice any more lambs. In 1 Peter (Kefas) 2:4-5 it says that we are as living stones.

Pesach and the supper of our Adon cannot be separated; there is not an existing reason to have the supper on a different date.

Yahshua drank the third cup, please read Exodus 6:6-8.

Cups:

1. I will bring you out of Egypt (Slavery)
2. I will deliver you from the Pharaoh (Satan)
3. I will redeem you, in other words, Yahshua paid with His holy blood for us
4. I will give you the Promised Land; to us it is HaOlam Haba (Eternal life or upcoming kingdom)

Rav Shaul (Paul) made a reference to this cup as the third one, and not in the way it has been done by some people, every week or every month.

In the celebration of Pesach we recall that Yahshua gave his life for us. In a similar manner, we must die to our pride, and we must allow Yahshua to live in us (see Galatians 2:20).

The bread to celebrate Pesach must not contain any yeast (See Exodus 34:25 and Leviticus 2:11).

It is hard for the majority of the common Christians to recognize that they have made a mistake. For that reason I say that the ones who really belong to the House of Israel, are humble, understanding, allow others to instruct them, listen to Yahshua's voice and follow Him (John 10:27).

For those who do not belong to the Tribe of Israel, it is easy to attack everything related to the divine.

The humble one surrenders himself to Yahshua, and is freed by Him.

In Acts 20:7 it says that the disciples used to gather to break bread, on the first day of the week. Therefore, if Shabbat begins on Friday evening and ends up on Saturday evening, then the first day of the week begins on Saturday evening, and it is not related to Pesach.

YHWH specified in the Torah when we shall have the supper, in the same manner He gave the measurements of Noah's Ark. He gave His instructions; these instructions are the ones that count, and not the ones that are dictated by men.

In the book of Daniel chapter 4:25 and 26, Nebuchadnezzar was instructed that, after many things had happened to him; he will recognize that it is the Heaven the one that rules. As we can understand, unfortunately, most of the covenants given by YHWH have been substituted by men's commandments; the Torah has been substituted by the denominations commandments.

With all of the Christian leaders that refuse to follow the commandments in the Torah, it seems to me very suspicious that they reject almost all of the YHWH's commandments, but one, the one in Malachi 3:10, in which the tithes are important. Why? Because they would not get any income for their sustenance, SO, THEY REJECT THE ENTIRE OLD COVENANT AND SAY THAT IT IS NOT VALID, BUT THE ONE OF THE TITHES IS THE ONLY ONE THAT THEY ACCEPT.

Yahshua is the light of the world, and His instruction, the Torah, is the lamp to our steps. Please read Psalm 36:9.

HAMATZAH

FEAST OF UNLEAVENED BREAD

Deuteronomy 16:3-8. It marks the separation of the people of Israel from Egypt, through Tevilah (Immersion in the Red Sea), see 1 Corinthians 10:1-2.

The Messianic fulfillment

1. Yahshua died on Pesach.
2. He had no sins; He is the bread of life, without yeast, please read Galatians 5:9 and John 6:31-35.
3. He was the seed of wheat that fell into the ground, please read John 12: 23-24.

The experience of this celebration in our lives

1. Once a person accepts Yahshua as his/her savior, he/she will experience the spiritual Passover (the dead of his/her sins).
2. The celebration of HaMatzah has to be assimilated in our lives; we have to live as bread without yeast, without sins.
3. Once we accept Yahshua as our savior, our old way of living has to die, we have to experience a new way of living with Yahshua. When we do this, then we are ready to cross the red sea, and give our first fruits, Bikkurim.
4. Then the person is baptized with the Ruach HaKodesh and has access to the power of YHWH (anointing), the celebration of Shavuot.
5. The great rescue will happen at the sound of the Shofar, during a celebration of Yom Teruah.
6. The second coming of Yahshua will happen on the feast of Yom Kippur, please read Zechariah 14:4.

7. The millennium era is the celebration of Sukkot.

Therefore, if any of us are, still, committing just a couple of sins, then we are ruining our lives completely, please read Galatians 5:9 and 1 Corinthians 5:6.

In order to celebrate the feast we have to be clean for Yahshua. (please read 1 Corinthians 5:7-8)

Hypocrisy is a type of yeast for our souls, please read Luke 12:1 and Mark 8:15. In Luke 13:20-21, Yahshua teaches us that, just as the yeast gets mixed within the dough, the evil will enter in the world in this era, and spread through the whole world.

To ignore or pretend to ignore the celebration of our Almighty Father is to deprive ourselves of an immense richness, and only those whom are humble and obedient will be ministered by Yahshua. Daniel, the prophet, could not understand many of his visions but the seal of the book has been removed nowadays, because we are living in the morning of the third day. Please read Luke 10:21-24.

In conclusion, we must live as HaMatzah, as bread WITHOUT YEAST. In other words, we must live WITHOUT SIN.

SHAVUOT

Read Exodus 34:22, Deuteronomy 16:9-10, Leviticus 23:15-21.

On this celebration, we read the Psalm 67 which contains 7 verses and the extra verse is for the meaning of the feast. This psalm is composed by 49 plus 1 words in Hebrew. Read Numbers 29:35.

The people of Israel arrived to Mount Sinai three months after they came out of Egypt. Then Elohim told Moshe to gather the people of Israel in order to receive the Torah (read Exodus 19:1-8). Then, the Israelites answered: "Na'aseh va'nishma," which means "we will do even before we hear."

Read Exodus 19:9-25 and Exodus 20:1-17.

It is one of the three main celebrations (read Deuteronomy 16:16).

The meaning of this precious feast is that YHWH gives us the Torah and His Ruach HaKodesh to understand it.

The people of Israel arrived to Mount Sinai on the third day of the third month (read Exodus 19:1). THREE DAYS LATER, YHWH VISITED HIS PEOPLE (read Exodus 19:10-11). Therefore, Elohim gave the Torah to his people on the sixth day of the third month (Sivan). Exactly 50 days after the people of Israel crossed the Red Sea.

Yahshua resurrected during the feast of Firstfruits (Bikkurim). Fifty days after his resurrection, the Ruach HaKodesh came down to dwell in the hearts and lives of all the believers (read Acts 1:8, Acts 2:1-18, Luke 24:49, Joel 2:28-29, Exodus 19:16, Isaiah 44:3, Deuteronomy 16:16 and 2 Kings 21:4).

Let us compare:

Shavuot: Exodus 19	Jeremiah 31:33
HaMitzvot (the Commandments) were	Psalm 40:8
written in the tablets of stone: Exodus	Isaiah 51:7
24:12	Ezekiel 11:19-20
	2 Corinthians 3:3
	Hebrews 8:10

3000 men died (Exodus 32:1-8 and 26-28).

3000 men lived (Acts 2:38-41).

YHWH gets married to the people of Israel (Jeremiah 2:2-3).

Shavuot is the Ketubah (Marriage contract).

Elohim made the contract with the people of Israel, and the Israelites accepted the contract (read Exodus 19:1-8).

The marriage with the people of Israel was about to be celebrated, but because the Israelites worshiped the golden calf, Moshe broke the tablets and the wedding was not celebrated. Nevertheless, the contract still remains on foot (Exodus 32:19).

The marriage celebration has to take place before the saved ones enter to the Millennium, and reign with the Messiah.

The thalamus is HaChupah (Wedding Canopy), Exodus 19:17. Nowadays, a Tallit is being used.

Review the passage of Exodus 19:19 which is equal to Acts 2:1-11, and Exodus 20:18 is equal to Hebrews 12:18-19.

Everything depends upon to the people of Israel (Deuteronomy 32:8).

The people of Israel was one (read Genesis 2:24 and Acts 2:1-2).

The learned in the Tanakh (Bible) say that the thunders in Exodus 20:18, are the voice of Elohim which was divided in the 70 languages or tongues, so everyone would understand. The same thing happened in Acts 2:1-11. There are a lot of denominations that supposedly speak in tongues, such as “bibibi, bababa,” this is a false gift of tongues. The real gift is speaking real languages that have to be understood by other people. You may not believe it, but there are denominations that make their followers to believe in those false languages.

Compare John 8:56 and Genesis 22:14. The Bible always talks about the third day (Genesis 19:5 and Genesis 22:4).

It was the Father’s desire to offer his son (read Isaiah 53:10), just as Abraham was about to do it with an obedient Joy (read Philippians 2:8).

Read Genesis 22:16 and Hebrews 11:17.

The sins are represented by the bush, and by the cursed land described in Genesis. However, it was from there where Elohim spoke to Moshe.

Three Trumpets:

1. Exodus 19:19
2. The last trumpet will be played in Yom Teruah, 1 Corinthians 15:51-53.
3. The great trumpet will sound in Yom Kippur, Matthew 24:30-31.

The ram caught by the horns in the thicket represents the left horn at the first trumpet and the right horn at second trumpet.

All of the Moadim (feasts) are the shadows of what it is about to come (Hebrews 10:1, Colossians 2:16-17, Hebrews 9:1. Read 1 Peter 2:9, Romans 9:4-16, and Romans 3:2).

During the feast of Shavuot, it is a custom to set two pieces of bread baked with yeast (read Leviticus 23:17). Why? Because there is still sin among the people of Israel, it is the opposite of Pesach and HaMatzah, because Yahshua has no sins, He has no yeast.

We set two breads because the number 2 represents two witnesses in the Tanak (read Mathew 18:16-20) , the two witness of Revelations 11, and the two tablets with the 10 Mitzvot.

The offering is passed through fire, nowadays it is the fire of the Ruach HaKodesh (read Luke 3:16). The fire is used by Elohim to eliminate sins (read 1 Corinthians 3:13-15, 1 Peter 1-7).

A Tzadik is a righteous person (read Ephesians 4:17-32, Ephesians 5:1-13, Colossians 3:1-13). In order to produce refined flour, the grains have to be crushed; therefore, we have to pass through tests and tribulations (read Zechariah 13:9, Romans 5:3-5, and 2 Corinthians 1:3-6).

Messianic Accomplishment

Yahshua was the planted wheat seed in the soil (read John 12:24).

The wheat seeds are crushed, then they become refined flour, read Isaiah 28:28, Isaiah 52:14, Isaiah 53:1-6, and Psalm 147:14).

YHWH chooses the ones that are rejected (read Deuteronomy 7:6-7, Deuteronomy 14:2, Luke 1:68, Ephesians 1:14, and primary read John 14:16-17).

The passages in chapter 1:22 and chapter 2:23 of the book of Ruth make reference to the feast of Shavuot.

Israel: Land of wheat and barley (read Deuteronomy 8:7-8, 2 Chronicles 2:15).

The early rain is in the fall, and the later rain is in the spring, (read Deuteronomy 11:10-15, Deuteronomy 28:12, Leviticus 26:4, Joel 2:23, and Zechariah 10:1).

The late rain already started, so the true believers will come back to their roots.

Harvest: People saved at the end of this time, Matthew 13:39, Mark 4:29.

Final Harvest: Shavuot is celebrated on the third month, then three months later Yom Teruah (THE GREAT RESCUE) is celebrated, read John 4:34-35.

Also, read Hosea 6:1-3, Joel 2:23, and James 5:7.

The death and resurrection of Yahshua, the pouring out of the Ruach HaKodesh, and the first harvest of souls, happen in the spring season.

The second coming of Yahshua will be in the season of fall, and there will be a great number of people that will believe, read Matthew 13:39, Matthew 24:13-14, and Revelations 14:6, 15-16.

The Harvest of offerings has to be full of joy, read Deuteronomy 16:9-11, Acts 4:32-37, 1 Corinthians 16:1-2, and 2 Corinthians 9:6-9.

YOM TERUAH

YHWH created Adam and Eve in order to become one flesh. Read Bereshit (Genesis) 2:21-24. Review Romans 5:14, Philippians 2:7, and 1 Corinthians 15:45-47.

The last Adam is better than the first one, His name is Yahshua HaMashiach.

Bereshit (Genesis) 2:21 YHWH caused Adam to fall into a deep sleep. Sleep is a metaphor for death, read Daniel 12:2, review John 11:11-14, 1 Corinthians 15:51-54, and Ephesians 5:14.

YHWH took the rib from Adam; this required the shedding of blood. This image is also represented by Yahshua, at the time when He was pierced on His side, read John 19:34.

Eva was created from Adam's rib by YHWH. In the same manner, the Kehila (congregation) of the Messiah's believers was created through the death of Yahshua, by YHWH. Read Jeremiah 23:5-6 and Jeremiah 33:15-16.

The wedding of the Messiah

Read Romans 3:2, Romans 9:4, and Colossians 2:16-17. Yahshua marries the children of Israel. There are certain requisites for a wedding, as it is specified in the Torah:

1. The selection of the bride is done by the groom's father, read Bereshit (Genesis) 24 (the entire chapter), John 15:16 and Ephesians 5:25.
2. The price of the bride is established, known in Hebrew as Mohar. Yahshua paid a very high price, His own life, read 1 Peter 1:18-19 and 1 Corinthians 6:20.
3. The bride and groom set a marriage compromise. The marriage contract binds the bride and the groom together but they don't live together. YHWH set a compromise with the children of Israel at Mount Sinai, read Jeremiah 2:2 and Hosea 2:19-20.

A legal document is drawn up, known as Ketubah.

The Ketubah states:

The price of the bride.

The groom's promises.

The rights of the bride.

Read 2 Corinthians 1:20.

The bride must be approved by him, read Jeremiah 2:2. And the children of Israel accepted the proposal, Exodus 24:3, Romans 10:8-10, Hebrews 5:9, Romans 8:9, and John 14:15 and 21.

Presents have to be given to the bride: an offering. Read Romans 10:8-10 (SALVATION). John 14:26 and Acts 2:38. It is the gift of receiving the Ruach HaKodesh.

When Yahshua ascended to the heavens He gave presents. Read Ephesians 4:7-8. He gave talents as presents, too: Justice, read Romans 5:17-18, Eternal life, read Romans 6:23, Grace, read Romans 5:12, and Faith, Ephesians 2:8-9.

There were other talents given as well: read 1 Corinthians 12:7 and 28, Ephesians 4:11.

A cup is shared: read Jeremiah 31:31-33 and Luke 22:20.

Mikvah: Immersion in water for the bride's purification. Ezekiel 16:8-9, Acts 19:4, Luke 3:16, Acts 1:5.

The groom goes back to his father's home, prepares the bridal chamber. This was declared by Yahshua, read John 14:1-3.

The bride is consecrated and separated. The groom's father has to be satisfied with the preparation of the wedding and gives his final approval, Mark 13:32-37, Matthew 25:1-13, and 2 Peter 3:1-13.

The wedding celebration takes place under the Chuppah, in this case it is underneath the sky. The singer announces: Psalm 118:26, Matthew 23:39.

The friend of the groom remains outside near the door, to announce the guests about the supper, read John 3:29

Crowning of Yahshua HaMashiach and the wedding, Isaiah 62:3-7.

At the same time there are Chevlei Shel Mashiach (Mashiach's birth pains) here on the earth.

Yahshua spoke about the supper, read Luke 12:35-38, and Matthew 8:11. We will observe that it says in the kingdom of the heavens, not in the heaven, there will be present Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

The bride's home will be in Yahrushalaim during the millennium, read Isaiah 2:2-4, Micah 4:1-4, and Zachariah 2:10-12.

The resurrection of the dead

It will happen on Yom Teruah, read 1 Corinthians 15:52. It is not the trumpet that the seventh angel plays in Revelations 11:15.

The first trumpet sounded in Exodus 19:19, the compromise that YHWH did with Israel was proclaimed in Shavuot. Yom Teruah is the last trumpet. The grand trumpet will be sounded on Yom Kippur, read Matthew 24:31.

Please, review Isaiah 26:2-3, Isaiah 57:1-2, Zephaniah 1:14-18, Zephaniah 2:1-3, and Psalm 27:5. It will coincide with a new moon, read Psalm 81:3 and Colossians 2:16-17.

At the beginning of the moon's cycle, it is hard to see it. Then, as the moon moves towards the sun, it reflects the sun's light, read Malachi 4:2. Yahshua is the Sun of justice, and the believers are the moon, the ones that do what is written in the Torah. Therefore, we are going to shine over and over.

Then, the grand rescue is in Yom Teruah. It is the Kehila the one that preaches, and then it will be the 144,000 from every tribe of the children of Israel, and the two witnesses, read Revelation 11.

YOM KIPPUR

Day of Atonement or Day of Forgiveness

1. Day of purification of the sanctuary and the nation.
2. Once a year, the High Cohen entered into the most holy place: the holy of holies of the temple, beyond the veil of the tabernacle, and with the blood of a male ram, as sin offering, sprinkled the blood over the covering of the ark. See Leviticus 16:29-34. It is a fasting and a day of affliction for the soul, see Leviticus 23:27-29.

Yahshua HaMashiach paid for us, however:

- a) Sins are, still, being committed: gossips, etc.
- b) Now we give thanks to YHWH for our salvation
- c) It is an everlasting covenant. Even though Yahshua already came, we have to fast in order to submit the flesh and grow spiritually.
- d) Read Numbers 29:7
- e) We give thanks to Yahshua for saving us from the great tribulation. See Joel 1:14-15, also, Joel 2:12-18.
- f) Fasting moves Elohim's hand to guide and save us, our family and our goods. See Ezra 8:21
- g) Since it is a reconciliation day, it is also a day of freedom. See Isaiah 58:6.
- h) Yom Kippur is celebrated on the 10th day of the 7th month, known as Tishrei. The number 10, besides other connotation, it means nation (see Daniel 1:24). Therefore, the meaning is the forgiveness of the nation of Israel. As we have seen it in previous topics already, if any person believes in Yahshua as the Mashiach and obeys Him, that person becomes one with Israel.
- i) The Golden Censer (see Leviticus 16:12 and Hebrews 9:4) represents believer's prayers (see Revelation 5:8, 8:3-4).

j) The Messianic Fulfillment

1. In his time, Aaron used to intercede as the high Cohen. Today, Yahshua intercedes for us, see Hebrews 3:1.

2. Thanks to Yahshua, we are free to pass across the veil in order to go to the holy of holies every day. Before Him, it was allowed only once a year. See Matthew 27:50-51.

3. Aaron had to wash his body with water before entering into the most holy place (Leviticus 16:4 and 24). In some bibles, there is a mistranslation, they put mitre, but the real name is linen turban. Therefore, as believers it is an obligation to keep ourselves clean with His word, and we are saved primarily by Mashiach's Holy Blood. See 1 Peter 1:19.

4. The bodies of the sacrificed animal for the sin offering were carried outside the camp, see Leviticus 16:27. Yahshua was crucified outside the gates of Yahrushalaim, as a sin offering, Hebrews 13:12.

a) Yahshua will come for second time on Yom Kippur, see Zechariah 14:4. 120 jubilees passed already. The number 120 represents the end of the flesh era, and the spiritual reign will begin, see Genesis 6:3. There will be rest. HaSatan will be bound, and there will be peace for a period of 1000 years, see Revelation 20:1-2. Note, a period of jubilee according to the Torah, is a period of 50 years. Therefore, $120 \times 50 = 6000$ years, it is the time since the creation began, and at this point of time, the millennium reign is about to begin.

b) The Day of Atonement, "Yom HaKippurim," means, the day in which our sins are covered, canceled, forgiven, reconcile.

It is a day for a long fasting (24 hours), see Leviticus 23:27-31. YHWH told Moshe to sacrifice an animal as a substitution of his dead sentence: "life for life."Yahshua died for us, we were worthy of death because we sinned against Elohim, see Mark 10:45.

In order to redeem his life a person was required to pay 30 shekels of silver, compare Exodus 21:32 and Matthew 26:14-16. Read Hebrews 10:10.

The following feast is Sukkot, known as the season of our joy. Therefore, no one can rejoice unless he/she is reconciled with our Creator.

When Yahrushalaim is surrounded by armies in the battle of Armageddon, Yahshua HaMashiah will stand on the Mount of Olives in a Yom Kippur celebration, see Joel 2:15-17, Matthew 24:31, and Zechariah 14:4.

Let us remember that Yom Kippur is celebrated on the tenth day of the month of Tishrei. The first ten days of the month of Tishrei are known as the Ten Days of Awe, we should teshuvah (repent) during these days. Remember that there are conscious and unconscious sins, the sin of dead is voluntarily.

YHWH decides if He forgives us or not. It is a specific day in which the entire humanity is judged. YHWH decides who will live and who will die, during this year; He weights us in a scale. Therefore, there are 40 days in between the 1st day of Elul and the 10th day of Tishrei, and do not forget that YHWH changed the verdict of Nineveh, because the people in there did Teshuva.

If people teshuvah (repent), all of the curses will be removed. Number 10 means plenitude, therefore it is Yom Kippur.

Sukkot is celebrated 4 days after Yom Kippur, it symbolize the upcoming reign of Mashiach. This day is a prophetic day in our lives.

That one who commits a sin voluntarily... see Hebrews 10:25-26, we find more about this day in Leviticus 23:27.

It is a voluntary sin to stop going to the congregating.

Review Leviticus 16:29-31, Leviticus 26:32, at the end of the day, palm leaves are introduced into the synagogue or Kehila (Congregation) announcing that Sukkot is coming, review 1 John 3:4, Mark 3:29, and James 4:17.

We sound the shofar at the beginning and the end of this day.

YHWH gives His final verdict, and He knows who repented with all his heart.

SUKKOT

ALSO KNOWN AS THE FEAST OF TABERNACLES OR FEAST OF TENTS

Genesis 33:17, Exodus 23:14, Leviticus 23:33-34, Deuteronomy 16:13-16, Galatians 3:29.

During this celebration an individual has to dwell inside a tabernacle for 7 days, it is a temporary tabernacle and is enclosed with branches and palms. Nowadays, it may be built in any clear space outside in the yard of your house, or building, even in the streets. Once the temple of Yahrushalaim was built the feast of Sukkot was celebrated at the atrium.

This is how the people of Israel recall the years they lived in the desert, during the Exodus period.

During this celebration we rejoice before Elohim for His protection and for allowing us to harvest fruits from the soil. It is celebrated during the cereal harvest, wheat and barley.

During this celebration, the Torah is read every 7 years, during the first day of the celebration.

Deuteronomy 31:10-13. For you that have believed in Yahshua HaMashiach and observe Torah, know that you are not a stranger any more.

According to Isaiah 12:3-6, the ceremony of drawing water over the sacrifice was a symbol of gratitude for the provision of water while in the desert, and this ceremony was added after de Babylonian captivity.

John 7:2 and 7:37-38, states why Yahshua HaMashiach said those words. Then, you will be able to understand the deep meaning of John 3:5.

By the time when the temple of Yahrushalaim existed, the atrium was illuminated on the first day of the feast of Sukkot, and people danced with torches of fire. It will help you to understand more if you read John 8:12.

Ephesians 2:12-16, States that the law of men was abolished, not the law of YHWH.

This celebration marks the beginning of the construction of the Tabernacle (Sanctuary in the desert), read Exodus 25:9.

Before you continue you should read Exodus 24:12-18 and Exodus 34:1-2.

Therefore, Yom Kippur is the day of forgiveness of sin of the golden calf. Let us recall that Moshe broke the first tablets of the Torah, because of the sin committed by the people of Israel.

Exodus 34:27-28 and the entire chapter of Exodus 35, and Exodus 36:1-7 state that we must invest our resources to announce the kingdom of the heavens, the spiritual and economic resources.

Exodus 25:8 quotes that, Elohim wanted to live among the people of Israel. Nowadays, the Ruach HaKodesh is among us, read Exodus 13:21. Read Exodus 29:44-45, and 1 Corinthians 6:19-20.

Hebrews 12:1 and Revelation 1:7, in these verses of the Tanakh (Bible), the word CLOUD is a symbol of protection to those who believe in Yahshua.

This celebration is also called “The Season of Our Joy,” or “Festival of Lights.” Therefore, it represents the following:

- Forgiveness
- To walk with Elohim
- To be obedient to Yahshua
- A great joy

People dance in circles like real brothers and sisters in Yahshua, unified by His love. It represents the dependance of the children upon YHWH. It is a special time to thank Elohim for His protection, because He provides us with water, food, and shelter.

Nowadays, our bodies are the tabernacles, as a metaphor, a temporary shelter to our souls and our spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19-20).

Matthew 6:11, Matthew 4:4, and John 6:33-35 States that our souls need spiritual enrichment which is the word of Elohim.

Ephesians 5:26 helps us understand the cleanness and purification that the word of Elohim brings to our lives.

Matthew 6:13 and Psalm 91, clearly shows Elohim`s protection against Hasatan.

Mathew 6:31-33 states that Elohim covers all of our needs, only if we look for Him spiritually.

Deuteronomy 16:3-15 commands us to rejoice on this celebration.

During Sukkot the Temple in Yahrushalaim was dedicated, by Solomon. This is why he asked the question: “But will Elohim indeed dwell on the earth? Read 1 Kings 8:27.

Yahshua became flesh and dwelt in a tabernacle (His body) among us, read John 1:14.

1 Corinthians 10:1-2, Hebrews 6:1-2, explain why the cloud described in Shemot (Exodus) is our shelter or protection during the day, and why the pillar of fire is the heat and light.

About the clouds, read Daniel 7:13, Jude 14, Isaiah 60:8, and Acts 1:9-12.

Read Jeremiah 23:5-6 and Jeremiah 33:15-16, it will happen during the Millennium.

For those saints that will come out from the tribulation, Elohim will extend His tabernacle (Protection and salvation) over them, read Revelations 7:14-15.

2 Peter 1:13-14 and 2 Corinthians 5:1-5 states that the tabernacle is our body.

This celebration reminds us how our ancestors, the people of Israel, dwelt in tabernacles: Moshe (Acts 7:44, Hebrews 9:2-8), Abraham, Isaac and Jacob (Hebrews 11:8-9), and David (Acts 15:16).

Yahshua entered the Temple on the feast of Sukkot, read John 7:2, 27 and 29.

He is the true tabernacle of Elohim, read Hebrews 9:11.

This feast remind us that we are pilgrims in the earth, and that we are in a temporary tabernacle (our bodies), read Hebrews 11:8-10.

Matthew 13:39, Revelations 14:15, and Joel 3:13, the celebration is at the end of the harvest, the final harvest of olives, grapes, etc. Therefore, we are living during the times of the last harvest; there is a high probability is probably that the great rescue will take place between the celebrations of Yom Teruah and Sukkot.

In the days of Prophet Jeremiah, people were lamenting because the harvest time (Sukkoth) was gone, and they were not saved Jeremiah 8:20.

Therefore, we should remain in holiness, (KEDUSHA).

After the Babylonian captivity, the feast of Sukkot began to be celebrated as it used to be (Ezra 3:1-4), therefore, we should not be taken captive by the devil.

This great feast will be celebrated during the Millennium (Zachariah 14:16-19).

NOWADAYS, THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH SAYS THAT CHRISTIANS ARE NOT REQUIRED TO CELEBRATE THE FEASTS OF THE OLD TESTAMENT (COVENANT) IT IS IMPOSSIBLE FOR THEM TO REIGN WIITH YAHSHUA DURING THE MILLENNIUM, BECAUSE THE MILLENNIUM REPRESENTS THE GREAT SHABBAT. LET US ALSO REMEMBER THAT ALL THE FEASTS WILL BE CELEBRATED DURING THE MILLENNIUM. THEREFORE, WE TELL THE CHRISTIAN PEOPLE TO COME OUT OF BABYLON (REVELATION 18:4).

Blood and water were shed for the atonement of sins (read Isaiah 12:3, John 19:34, John 2:7, John 7:37-38, John 4:13-14, and John 3:1-6).

The Ha-khamim (the wise of Israel) explain that Yahshua wrote the names of the people that did not keep the Torah (John 8:1-11, Jeremiah 17:13).

Philippians 4:4 states that, we should rejoice in this celebration of SUKKOT.

Psalm 67 is read during this feast.

When the time comes to get into the new Yahrushalaim, we will enter through one of the twelve doors of the city; each door has the name of a shevet (tribe) Revelation 21:12. THERE IS NO DOOR FOR THE GENTILES. Therefore we must follow the Torah of Yahshua, in order to enter into the New Yahrushalaim.

ROSH CHODESH

Head of the Month

Read Numbers 10:10. During this celebration we read the Psalm 81, pay more emphasis to the verse 3, it is a feast that we will celebrate in the millennium with Yahshua (see Isaiah 66:23).

In the same manner in which the moon reflects the sun's light more and more, each believer in Yahshua by observing the Torah has to reflect more holiness until he/she shines totally in holiness.

In a similar way, as the moon renews itself each month, the followers of Yahshua need to renew themselves constantly.

Yahshua tell us in the Torah that we are the light of the earth. In Hebrew, light = or.

This is what we must remember in each feast of Rosh Chodesh.

The feast of Yom Teruah concords with one Rosh Chodesh feasts. For more information, look for the theme in this same website.

The month of Nisan is the first month of the Year (Exodus 12:2)

PURIM

It is recommended to read the entire book of Esther.

The meaning of the word Purim comes from the Akkadian or Persian for “Pur”, which means “lot,” a method to take a decision by casting an object.

Read Deuteronomy 25:19, 1 Samuel 15, and Exodus 17:8-16.

After you read those passages, can you tell where the Agagites (Amalekites) come from?

Amalek was the son of Eliphaz and grandson of Esau (Genesis 36:12 and 16).

Because we are descendants of the children of Israel, we have to celebrate it (Jeremiah 23:7-8).

Haman, the perverse, offered to increase the treasures of the king Ahasuerus, by giving him ten thousand of silver coins, if the king allowed him to annihilate the Jewish people from his kingdom.

Haman offered this huge amount of money, in order to keep the king happy, because he thought that the king would reject this proposal, due to the loss of the taxes paid by the Jewish people.

The original version of the book of Esther, in chapter 3 and verse 8, says “Disperse and divided people.” Each time there is unjustified hatred among the Israelites, their enemies have the capacity to harm them. When there is no unity among the people of Israel, they represent only individuals and not a community. That’s how their strength vanished

The plan of Haman was based specifically on the division of the Jewish people

Our strength is in YHWH and keeping the Torah makes us realize that everyone needs their neighbor and that we must set aside our differences to unite and become one, most of the time our differences are insignificant.

This was the strength that finally saved the Jewish people. So they set aside the differences and became one entity.

YHWH only works miracles when they are needed. The miracles are not necessary to reach a solid faith and well founded, many always want fanfares and ends to believe in the living Elohim. In many, not even the experience of the greatest miracles, generating a change towards holiness.

The Eternal One allows us to occupy certain possessions in the world with a purpose, see Esther 4:12-14.

Therefore it does not matter how many tribulations we go through: how many pharaohs, how many people like Haman, Hitler, and Hussein, come to existence. The covenant in Isaiah 59:21 guarantees the existence of the people of Israel.

So, we are in one side and on the other side Haman and those who volunteered with his ideas. The destiny that Haman planned for Israel turned against him and his followers.

Therefore, we deny the existence of a place, no matter how far it is, where the divine presence cannot enter, dwell and sanctify.

YAHSHUA RESURRECTED ON SHABBAT

For a long time the Christian church has affirmed that Yahshua resurrected on Sunday. But, we will demonstrate with biblical verses that this is a big mistake. Let us begin by saying that there is a weekly Shabbat, and ceremonial Shabbat, such as the annual celebrations that have been described in other articles in our web page. The week in which Yahshua died was the beginning of a great and solemn celebration, the celebration of Pesach. Read carefully John 19:31. So, the beginning of the feast of Pesach of that year was around 6:00 pm, on the Wednesday of that week.

In Mark 16:1 says: "Now when Shabbat was past, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, that they might come and anoint Him." It is necessary to clarify that it was the ceremonial Shabbat (Pesach), as we read it in John 19:31. Then, in Mark 16:2 is referring to the first day of the week. Therefore, they went to buy the aromatic species to anoint the body of Yahshua, but, because the weekly Shabbat was about to start, they rested and went to the sepulcher on the first day, finding it empty.

In Luke 23:56, says: "then they returned and prepared spices and fragrant oils. And they rested on the Shabbat according to the commandment."

In Matthew 27:46-50 says that Yahshua died at the ninth hour, in other words at 3:00 pm of that Wednesday. Also, read Mark 15:34-37 and Luke 24:46.

To say that Yahshua was crucified at 12:00 pm another lie. Mark 15:25 "Now it was the third hour, and they crucified Him." The third hour is equivalent to 9 am, so 12 am is the sixth hour of the day. Read Mark 15:33.

Therefore, Yahshua was crucified since 9 am (the third hour) and died at 3 pm (the ninth hour).

The disciples discovered that Yahshua had resurrected already. Read Matthew 28:1-6, Mark 16:2-6, Luke 24:1-2, and John 20:1-2.

There is a punctuation error in Mark 16:9, there was a comma must be placed after the word rose, then: "Now when He rose, early on the first day of the week, He appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom He had cast seven demons." Without the original comma it makes us to understand that Yahshua rose in the morning of the first day of the week.

Let us to recall that the days for Elohim start at sunset, Leviticus 23:32, in reference to the days of rest.

We have one more example in Luke 13:10, Yahshua taught in the synagogue on a resting day, if you observe in the same chapter and verse 31, it is, still, a resting day, in other words Shabbat, and in the verse 32 states: "And He said to them, 'Go, tell that fox, 'Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today (Shabbat) and tomorrow (Sunday), and the third day (Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday) I shall be perfected'..."

In conclusion, Yahshua rose on Shabbat to glorify His day.

Sunday means day of the sun, it is absolutely impossible that He resurrected on a pagan day for all of the nations.

MILAH (CIRCUMCISION)

BRIT MILAH = COVENANT OF CIRCUMCISION

It is a covenant that YHWH did with Abraham, read Bereshit (Genesis 17:4-14). Because Abraham believed, he got circumcised. Therefore, he had an obedient faith. It was a sign and it was as if Abraham had said: "I am going to demonstrate to my Elohim that I have believed on Him."

Signs are seen, they are luminaries that we can see, just as we can see the lights on the Menorah. Therefore, there have to be signs of faith (Exodus 4:17).

To do what is commanded to us by Elohim is a testimony that we have believed in Him, see Mark 16:20, Acts 2:43, Acts 4:30, Acts 8:5-8.

It is important to make it clear that the circumcision was not given to us in order to be saved, however it is a covenant. Abraham did not circumcise himself to please men, but as a signal that he believed in Elohim.

If you read Acts 15:1 you may see that it shows a dispute about circumcision. But this Jews were ministering erroneously, because the circumcision was not a custom of Moshe, it was a covenant of YHWH with Abraham. Rav Shaul, known as Paul, in Galatians 6:2 urges the gentiles to follow the Torah of Yahshua. In Acts 15:19-21 the gentiles, which had turned to Elohim, were being urged to congregate in the synagogues where Moshe's Torah was taught every Shabbat.

Yahshua fulfilled the commandment HaBrit Milah (Luke 2:21).

In Galatians 5:2 we read: "indeed I, Paul, say to you that if you become circumcised, Mashiach will profit you nothing." It has to be understood as people that follow T'vilah (immersion in water), but still commit sins. In Romans 3:1-2 Rav Shaul says that the circumcision gives us so many advantages. Therefore, once we receive the Brit Milah, we have to keep the Torah. Let us remember that in previous articles, in this website, it has already been clarified that nowadays there are some commandments that we are not required to fulfill, such as animal sacrifices, Galatians 5:3.

In the letter to the Philippians 3:3-5 Rav Shaul (Paul) as a good Jew and Pharisee had received the Brit Milah.

Now, the Brit Milah will benefit you, only if you believe in Yahshua and if you are keeping the Torah, being then a Kadosh, otherwise it does not mean anything.

Rav Shaul never said anything against the Torah, read Acts 24:14, 25:8, 26:22 and 28:17.

In the millennium every man will be circumcised, because the Torah has not been abolished. Read Matthew 5:17, Isaiah 52:1, and Ezekiel 44:9.

In Ephesians 2:12, Rav Shaul cites that we are aliens to the covenants; one of them is the Brit Milah. This is why Kefas (Peter) in his second letter, chapter 3:15-16 he says that many people twist the letters of Rav Shaul, because they are untaught and unstable people and they do it for their own destruction.

In the parable that Yahshua tells us in Luke 15, when the younger son (Ephraim) comes back to his father, he is dressed (with his Tallit), and is given a ring in his hand by his father's orders. Rings are always a reminder of the covenants, among these covenants is the Brit Milah.

If someone does not accept the Brit Milah as a commandment, it is simple to explain, is because that person does not belongs to Israel. Therefore, there is no reason to argue about it. THE BRIT MILAH IS ONLY FOR THOSE MEN OF US WHO ARE DESCENDANTS OF ABRAHAM, ISAAC, AND JACOB.

In Romans 4:11-12 Abraham was called uncircumcised, in the verse 11 says that he received the circumcision as a sign, and in the verse 12 we are urged to follow the steps of Abraham by Elohim.

ISRAEL IS IRREPLACEABLE

The restoration is only for the 12 tribes of Israel (Isaiah 14:1-3, 27: 6, 61:9, Jeremiah 31:1-5, 50:4-5, and Ezekiel 11:17-20).

Nowadays Christianity preaches a super faith instead of holiness, the theology of wellbeing instead of suffering for the Messiah. Christians preach a god called “Jesus” instead of the Almighty YHWH, a god to our services instead of an Elohim to whom we owe obedience and submission, to be a slave of the prayers of faith or positive confessions. So the restoration and reunification is promised only to Israel. If some “church” was to replace Israel, these prophetic passages about the last times would make no sense.

The promises only refer to a special city, Yahrushalaim:

Read Psalm 69: 35-36, Psalm 102: 12-13, Isaiah 2:3, 37: 32, 52:1, Jeremiah 3:17, Zechariah 14:16-17, Psalm 9:11, Psalm 76:1-2 Psalm 132:13-14, and Joel 3: 17.

It would be foolish to believe that YHWH replaced His beloved people Israel, for a community of pagans.

To understand the irreplaceable value of Israel in the Brit Hadashah (known as the New Testament), read Matthew 1:21, Matthew 5:34- 35, Matthew 10:5 and 7, Matthew 15:24, and Luke 1:16.

It intertwines with Luke 1:31-33 and Jeremiah 9:7-8.

Luke 1:54-55, Genesis 12:7 and Galatians 3:16.

Read Luke 1:67-68, Luke 2:25-34, Luke 24:21, Acts 1:6, John 11:51-52, and Acts 2:37-39. When it says for you, it refers to the house of Judah and when says for all that are afar off, it refers to the house of Israel.

Read Acts 3:25-26, 5:31, and 26:4-7.

Shaul (Paul) expresses with authority that the restoration of the 12 tribes is part of the messianic promise given to the patriarchs, see Acts 28:20, and Romans 11:1-2.

And now it is, see Revelation 21:12-14, Ezekiel 48:19 and 31:35.

HE made all the covenant with His people, the promulgation of the Torah was given to Moshe, all the patriarchs were Hebrew, and the Savior of the world is Jewish. So NOW WE UNDERSTAND THE THEOLOGICAL LIES OF ANTI-JEWISH CHRISTIANITY.

From more than 4000 years it has been spoken of Messiah: YHWH – MASHIAH - Torah – Israel, they have a link, therefore we must understand, study and keep the Torah in order to understand the Messiah. The pagan world refers to a different Messiah; it does not refer to Israel.

A Position strongly held by the majority of the members of rabbinical Judaism, is that they are saved by keeping the Torah, and consider that those who are not of part of the people need Yahshua, let us see: John 14:6, Hebrews 10:20, Acts 4:12, and Ephesians 2:16.

Also, let us read Deuteronomy 32:10, and Zechariah 2:8.

Israel is the chosen people: Deuteronomy 14:2, 4:20, 7:6, 26:18, Exodus 19:5-6, Isaiah 44:1-2.

ISRAEL IS IRREPLACEABLE, THE CULTURES GIVE TESTIMONY: WHERE ARE THE ASSYRIANS, BABYLONIANS, PERSIANS, MEDES, GREEKS, EGYPTIANS, AND ROMANS? ONLY RUINS ARE LEFT. EVEN WHEN ISRAEL WAS UNDER THEIR CONTROL, IT IS THE ONLY NATION THAT REMAINS STANDING, AND WITH AN INTACT CULTURE AFTER 4500 YEARS.

THE ANTITORAH-ANTIYAHSHUA

Those are the ones that abandon the Torah, after they have known it (Proverbs 28:4).

If you know Yahshua, and you only choose the Torah, and abandon Yahshua, you will be eternally cursed and separated from YHWH, read Matthew 10:33.

If you do not obey the Torah, your prayers are abominable, read in Proverb 28:9.

We are living the last days and the remnant of the House of Israel is returning to the Torah. This is a divine signal that Yahshua HaMashiach is coming soon (Isaiah 10:20-22 and Isaiah 11:12).

Before the Messiah comes back, we have our identity as part of the house of Israel, and the restoration is an essential part of the divine plan for the redemption the world.

How can we prove that Samaria is part of the house of Israel?

1. With the study of the Samaritan woman found on this page.
2. Read 2 Kings 7:16 and 2 Kings 18:11.

In the book of Obadiah 20, Sefarad = Spain & Portugal, Sarepta = France.

The descendants of the tribes of Israel have lost their identity. They will be restored in the days of the Messiah and their origins will be revealed. Jews found in Jerusalem are actually a mix of different tribes, but mainly Judah, Levi, and Benjamin.

What does the Tanakh (Bible) say? Prophets inspired by the Ruach HaKodesh have described the final restoration of the ten tribes and their union with the house of Judah. This will occur during the last days, read Jeremiah 30:17-24, Jeremiah 30:9, Amos 9:8-9, Amos 9:11-15, Ezekiel 37, all of Isaiah chapter 11, Jeremiah 16:14-15, and Jeremiah 3:11-18.

Jeremiah 23:7-8 speaks about THE DESCENDANTS OF THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL.

This will happen just before the war of Gog and Magog.

Jerusalem will become the center of international government during the millennium; there will be universal peace and people will learn Torah (Isaiah 2:2-4). Therefore, we expect a great awakening of the house of Israel.

It's important to keep in mind that we must not be racist, because it is practically impossible for some people to prove that they are part of the people of Israel.

Some Christians find it irresistible to return to their Hebrew roots.

The end to this discussion can be read in Kohelet (Ecclesiastes) 12:13, Isaiah 42:21, Kohelet 3:14, Galatians 3:15, and Revelation 22:18-19.

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE ORAL TORAH AND THE TORAH OF YHWH

The blessing for those of us who keep the Torah of YHWH

The Torah of YHWH is unique and has been exclusively revealed to Moshe.

Oral Torah emerged long after the giving of the Torah, it is attributed to Moses. The Oral Torah has been transmitted throughout the generations until it became known as the Talmud. The Talmud instructs all members of rabbinic Judaism the path to follow (Halakha).

It became like a fence to guard the commandments, for example: “Do not profane the name of the Eternal.” It was restricted at such far extent, that it was not allowed to even say His name. Thus, the commandments of men began to suppress the commandments of YHWH, read Isaiah 29:13, Amos 2:4, and Zephaniah 3:4

These prophets warned about the rise of a movement that valued more the commandments of men than the commandments of the Torah of YHWH.

As a result of these traditions the Talmud, the Mishnah, and some other books have emerged.

YAHSHUA'S POSITION AGAISNT ORAL TORAH

Read Matthew 12:10-14

Matthew 15:2-3

Matthew 23:13 and 15

Mark 7:5-13

Luke 5:30

Luke 11:52-54

Luke 12:1

John 5:16-18

John 7:19

Yahshua argued against the traditions during his ministry, in many occasions. He rejected the radical “supremacy” of traditions; for this reason he kept confronting permanently with religious authorities of that time.

The Torah: according to the writers of the Tanakh (which were inspired by the Ruach HaKodesh). Psalm 111:7-8, Psalm 119:86 and 142.

The Torah is Emet (True), and has nothing to do with Plato’s philosophical idea of the “relative truth”, in which everyone has his or her own truth.

WHAT IS NOT IN THE WRITTEN TORAH IS SIMPLY A LIE.

John 8:31-32, John 17:17, 2 Timothy 2:15, 2 John 4, Devarim (Deuteronomy) 11:18-21, Psalm 1:1-2, Psalm 25:10 and 14, Psalm 103:17-18, Proverbs 3:21-26, Proverbs 16:20, Proverbs 19:16, Proverbs 29:18, Kohelet (Ecclesiastes) 8:5 and Isaiah 51:7.

FROM THESE PORTIONS OF THE SCRIPTURE, WE CAN MAKE TWELVE BENEFITS OF KEEPING THE MITZVOT:

1. WE WILL HAVE A LONG LIFE
2. WE WILL BE PROSPERED IN ALL WE DO.
3. WE WILL RECEIVE MORE MERCY FROM THE ETERNAL ONE.
4. WE WILL RECEIVE REVELATION FROM THE SCRIPTURES
5. WE WILL WALK THROUGH LIFE PEACEFULLY
6. WE WILL NOT STUMBLE.
7. WE WILL NOT BE AFRAID OF SUDDEN FEAR.
8. WE WILL BE BLESSED.

9. WE WILL FIND THE GOOD.

10. WE WILL KEEP OUR OWN SOUL.

11. WE WILL NOT EXPERIENCE ANY EVIL.

12. WE WILL NOT BE SCARED OF CONFRONTING ANY MAN.

These blessing that we received (out of many others) indicate the importance of being faithful doers of the commandments of Elohim (Luke 10:25-28, Luke 11:28, John 5:24, John 14:23-24, 2 Timothy 3:15-17, Ephesians 1:13, and 1 John 3:22).

Yahshua and His talmidim confirmed us that it is of a great benefit to keep the Torah:

Exodus 12:42-49, Leviticus 17:10, 18:26, 20:2, 24:16&22, Numbers 9:14, 15:14-16, 15:27-31, Deuteronomy 29:9-15, 31:12-13, Joshua 8:30-35.

These passages are crucial; they manifest that when foreigners believe in the Elohim of Israel: they must fully commit themselves to the Torah, like any other Israelite, to the point in which they become members of the people of YHWH.

FOREIGNERS BECOME ISRAELITES WHEN THEY HOLD AND FOLLOW THE TORAH, NOT LIKE CHRISTIANS, WHERE EVERYONE SAYS TO BELIEVE IN THE GOD OF ISRAEL AND FOLLOW HIM AS THE PLASE.

Read Isaiah 11:10, Malachi 1:11, and Isaiah 42:6, 49:6.

These prophecies of the messiah talk about Yahshua bringing many gentiles (not Israelites) to Israel, under the parameters of Elohim, in other words, under the parameters of the Torah.

Read Exodus 24:12, Leviticus 18:5, 23:1-44, Deuteronomy 4:9, 6:1-9, 32:46-47, Proverbs (Mishlei) 11:19, 15:24, 19:16, Ecclesiastes (Kohelet) 2:13-14, Isaiah 8:20, and Ezekiel 20:10-11.

These pasukim claim clearly that the Torah is the instruction (guide) for the life, but not only for the existence of our bodies, but they manifest the need of keeping the Torah as an evidence of the eternal life.

The only acceptable way to live, in the eyes of YHWH, is to live within the parameters of the Torah, Matthew 7:12, 19:16-17, 22:40, John 5:39, and 12:49-50.

Yahshua and his talmidim confirm that the commandments of the Torah are life. If some people say that they believe in Yahshua (the living Torah), the least they can do is keep (Shomer) the Torah. This way they will be able to live agreeably in the sight of YHWH Elohim, read Psalm 111:7-8, 119:152, Isaiah 40:8, 42:21, and Ecclesiastes (Kohelet)3:14-15.

Many inspired by the Ruach HaKodesh, have expressed themselves about the perpetuity of the Torah, Yahshua himself said: Matthew 5:17-19 and Luke 16:17.

Yahshua never said -Well, let`s make up another doctrine of dispensation.-

Deuteronomy 4:2, Proverbs 30:5-6, Ecclesiastes (Kohelet) 13:14, Galatians 3:15, Revelation 22:18-19. Yahshua and Saul constantly gave warnings in the past. Gentile Christianity and Traditional Judaism have neglected warnings by either omitting or adding (according to their criteria) several passages in the scriptures.

DISOBEDIENCE OF THE TORAH AND ITS CONSEQUENCES

First read Psalm 119:21, Proverbs 10:8, 13:13, 19:16, 28:9, Isaiah 5:24, 30:9, 48:18-19, Hosea 4:6, Amos 2:4, Zephaniah 3:4, and Zechariah 7:12.

From these verses we learn the following:

1. They are going to be punished by YHWH.
2. They are cursed.
3. Their soul will be destroyed.
4. Their prayers will not be heard.
5. They will be eternally destroyed.
6. They are rebellious in the presence of YHWH.
7. Their names will be erased from YHWH's sight.
8. YHWH will forget their children.
9. They will be scattered.
10. They will be judged for twisting the meaning of the Torah.

In these Pasukim the word of Elohim is toughly expressed against them.

Now, in the Brit Hadashah (known as New Testament) read 2 Peter 3:15-17.

Read 2 Thessalonians 2:3, this verse talks about the man of sin that will encourage the disobedience of the Torah. Verse 7; the Torah is transgressed. Verse 8; that that will encourage disobedience of the Torah is going to be manifested. Verse 10; they could not receive Yahshua and his Torah. Verse 12; they didn't believe in the Torah.

In Matthew 13:41, the original text makes references to those who do not follow the Torah, transgressors of the Torah.

Salvation is acquired by an obedient faith. Therefore, we must have faith in Yahshua and obey His Mitzvot (Commandments), Revelations 14:12.

In conclusion:

1. The Torah is truth.
2. The Torah is for the tribe of Judah, for the tribe of Israel, and for those Goyim (gentiles) who believe in Elohim YHWH.
3. The Torah is everlasting.
4. Because I have faith in Yahshua, I keep the Torah.
5. Those who say to have faith in Yahshua, but don't obey His Mitzvot will be condemned, Revelation 6:9, 12:11, 14:12, and 20:4.

THE TWO TABLES OF THE TORAH

1st Tablet = Torah that tells us how we must worship YHWH.

2nd Tablet = Ethics and social Torah

Not to mention the name YHWH is what Yahshua refers to when he says: they secluded the key of knowledge, read Luke 11:52. They also added 39 additional rules to the Shabbat.

The Messiah prophesied the restoration of His name, read Luke 19:38-40 and Psalm 118:26.

Why did some of the Pharisees tell Yahshua to silence his followers? The answer is, because Yahshua revealed the name, read John 17:6 and 26, and Hebrew 2:12.

From where did the rabbis get the idea that the name is unpronounceable? In other words, why not to mention it? It is an old Egyptian idea, “a magical idea that Elohim must be called by a secret name”, example: Ra instead of Isis.

Let us remember that religious people always like to wrap themselves up in a mystery. The idea of hiding the name began after returning from Babylon, and even long before. They changed the name into the title of Lord. The Torah teaches us we must erase and destroy the name of other gods, read Deuteronomy 12:3 and Exodus 23:13.

Yahshua calls the idolatry as fornication, read Revelation 17:4-5 and Revelation 21:8 and 27.

Read Revelation 18:1-4.

Analyze that, Babylon was used by YHWH, for not receiving the truth, or Torah, because of disobedience of the eternal pact: Shabbat, read Jeremiah 51:7, and Jeremiah 25:15.

Because of disobedience Elohim has allowed Babylon to make people drunk. Wine makes you feel happy, but also clouds up your senses. The more you drink it is more difficult for you to discern between the truth and the lie, read Isaiah 29:9-13. Why did this happen? Because they did not believe in the truth, John 17:17, Elohim gave them up to worship the host of heaven, Acts 7:42.

In Revelation 17:4: Abomination and fornication is equal to idolatry.

One night, when everyone was asleep, an enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat and went away, see Matthew 13:25.

Those who serve as stumbling blocks (read Matthew 13:41), or the anti-Torah of the first tablet (first five commandments) are Roman emperors. They worshipped the sun and felt they were solar deities. In the year 325 C.E. at the council of Nicaea, Constantine changed the first tablet. To this day, many Christian denominations still follow this teaching.

Let us now read Revelation 1:10, it says “On the Lord’s day” or Adonai’s day, is the day of paying our debts. The book was written in 96 C.E. Everyone who inherited the sin of worshiping the sun (of pagan Rome) must repent soon, Revelation 18:4 and Ezekiel 8:9-16.

YHWH does not change, what He has said He will do, Malachi 3:6 and James 1:17, therefore, His verdict about the mixture of adoration of the sun has stayed the same and His judgment is written in Revelation chapter 1 to chapter 19.

People who do not repent and turn from sin will not enter the New Yahrushalaim, as says Yahshua in Revelation 21:8, 21:27, and 22:15. Revelation 22:14 says, “Blessed are those who do his commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter through the gates in to the city.”

Yahshua tells us, THE GREATEST LIE OF THE FALSE TEACHINGS IS: THE TORAH HAS BEEN ABOLISHED.

Is there any protection or any way to escape from the coming judgment? Yes, there is, read Revelation 18:4, it does not tell us, but orders us that we must flee from there, read Revelation 18:5 and 8.

Where must we flee from? The answer is from the pagan Rome, Gnosticism, Hellenism, and the worship of the sun.

Read Revelation 11:15-19 and Revelation 12:10.

Let us remember that the prophet Daniel saw that the rock struck the statue on its feet, Daniel 2:34-35, this is because Yahshua will establish his kingdom, read Revelation 11:15-19, Daniel 7:13-27, Isaiah 24:23, Haggai 2:22, Micah 4:7, Isaiah 2:2-4, Joel 2:32 and 3:17, Ezekiel 34:23-24, 37:24-28, Zechariah 14:3-21, Obadiah 1:17-21, Psalms 2:6, and Psalms 110:2-7.

YHWH WILL NOT DELIVER US FROM THE GREAT TRIBULATION UNTIL WE CHANGE OUR LIFE AND RESTORE PURE WORSHIP TO HIM. See Acts 3:21.

“Turn back to me and I will turn to you.”, then he will deliver us from the Great Tribulation, Malachi 3:7.

Read 1Kings 18:21, Will we do what was done back then? Not answering a word?

Remember Isaiah 24:5 and Exodus 31:16-17.

SHOFAR

Read Numbers 29:1-2. It is an old instrument; it is the horn of a pure animal. It cannot be the horn of cow or calf, because it would be a reminder of the golden calf.

There are small ones that are obtained from rams, and large ones which are obtained from antelopes.

The Shofar is heard with the soul, that is why the soul trembles when it sounds. The covenant is to hear it, read Deuteronomy 6:4, John 10:27, John 18:37, Luke 14:35, and Amos 3:6-8. Music enters through the soul, for that reason HaSatan uses music to attack.

There are three types of sounds:

1. Tekiah: continuous sound
2. Shevarim: three short sounds
3. Teruah: nine short sounds

The first sound reminds us of the mercy of YHWH, read Psalm 103:8. The second sound reminds us when someone is inconsistent. The person could either feel “up or down”. When Yahshua comes, He will exterminate all sin, this means that the people of Elohim still commit sin. The purpose of the third sound is to break sin to pieces, ultimately to destroy sin.

The shofar must be curved, not straight. It is an allegory, it is like a dirty wet rag, when you squeeze it creates a spiral, removing all the uncleanness.

Tokea is the shofar blower, he has a lot of responsibility, and must live in holiness. It is not about emotion, it doesn't matter if the shofar blower was a trumpeter, or played in an army band. The real purpose is to squeeze all sin from your heart, read Romans 12:1.

On Yom Kippur there are three sounds.

Elohim is restoring all the things, read Acts 3:21, because we are in the last times and are living the restoration.

He will restore everything whether the world likes it or not, and only the Kadoshim will be restored. He is faithful to what he has said; He is not faithful to what religions think and denominations believe. You cannot criticize YHWH. THERE IS NO OPTION, YOU EITHER FOLLOW THE MESSIAH OR NOT.

The Shofar is used during war, victory, and restoration, read Psalm 47:5.

IT IS NOT AN INVENTION OF THE MESSIANIC MOVEMENT, IT IS IN THE TORAH, read Exodus 19:13, 16, and 19. It was played in the tabernacle and temple.

When a Jewish man wanted to marry a slave woman, he had to wait three months, if he did not, his wife would still think like a slave, read Exodus 21:1. Then, YHWH waited three months to propose marriage to Israel. Therefore, Yahshua waits until the third day to get married to his bride. Horn in Hebrew is Keren and is used in special moments, prophetic moments, and announces the groom's entrance, Amos 3:6.

So, we have to dance and play Shofar in the presence of the Eternal One, read Nehemiah 8:10.

Happiness is subjected to circumstances; JOY IS ALWAYS THERE FOR US WHO ARE CHILDREN OF THE ETERNAL ONE.

You cannot live a laidback life looking at what is around you. We have to live for YHWH and because He blessed us, Leviticus 23:24.

When listening to the Shofar we get connected simultaneously to the past and future: It was played by our ancestors and will be continually played for eternity.

Read 2 Corinthians 3:14. Without the Old Covenant we would not recognize the Messiah. When we listen to the Shofar, we remember Abraham and Moshe. The Shofar also connects us to what will come, the great rescue and the feasts of the millennium.

When sounding the Shofar in Yom Kippur, one has to say: ELOHIM'S GRACE AND MERCY ARE MIGHTY!

I want to clarify: IT IS NOT JUDAIZING, IT IS RESTORING. The Shofar restores us and tells us where we came from. So, whatever has been damage has to be restored.

Read Genesis 22:13. Abraham had great confidence in Elohim. After three days of walking, he recognized the Mount Moriah, because there were trees in shape of the Menorah. Elohim has prepared everything: the topography for what has and will happen. Behind Abraham's back there was a ram stuck in a bush: Why at his back?

1. So, he would not avoid the sacrifice.
2. The back represents what will come.

In the story of Yosef (Joseph), Judah is the first one to speak, because they would be the two main tribes, Judah (older) and Ephraim (younger). Here we find the two houses of Israel, read Genesis 44:14.

The ram stuck in the bush represents the two horns and the Ner (candle in the center), because it was trapped in a Menorah (a tree which had that shape).

The first horn represents the suffering Messiah; the second represents the King of Kings. In the same mount (Moriah), Solomon built the temple.

In the Six-Day War of 1967 the prophecy of Luke 21:24 was fulfilled. The gentiles stopped dwelling in Yahrushalaim, now it is in control of Jewish people.

A soldier of the battalion division played the Shofar when they entered in Yahrushalaim.

Yahshua died in this mount because the true sacrifice was Him, not Isaac.

The Shofar was played and the Torah was given (Exodus 19). It was played in the Capture of Jericho (Joseph 6:16). It was played when kings were anointed by prophets, and in 1 Samuel 16:13 Samuel anointed David with the oil of a Shofar.

Women can play the Shofar only if their husband is not at home and not in public.

Abraham saw Yahshua's day and rejoiced, John 8:56. Wind is also important, read John 3:3-8. Demons tremble at this sound, because they know it will be played when Yahshua comes.

In the great rescue Yahshua will play the Shofar (1 Thessalonians 4:16-18, 1 Corinthians 15:52). In the meanwhile, we must do the things YHWH has revealed to his people, and not do them differently. The ark should be carried by the Levites and not in a cart pulled by oxen, which is why Uzzah was killed. Numbers 1:51, 2 Samuel 6:3-7, Therefore WE DO NOT HAVE TO DISOBEY HIS TORAH, IT ISN'T RENEWING (WITH A CART), IT IS RESTORING.

THE SOUND OF THE SHOFAR INVADES THE SUPERNATURAL. IN A WORLD WIDE LEVEL, THE HOUSE OF ISRAEL IS BEING RESTORED.

Read 1 Corinthians 14:8. Yahshua is preparing us like a shofar, to give a sound of certainty.

The Shofar can keep its natural appearance: First the animal is eaten (it is prohibited to kill an animal just for the horns):

In the first stage of preparation: the Shofar is selected on quality, if it is good or bad. The horn must not be broken; most rams break their horns while fighting. Like this selection, Yahshua selects us to fulfill a purpose. Therefore, the horn must be complete and so must we.

The second stage: Interior cleaning. It is the same for us. Yahshua works in our interior which does not allow us to be a useful instrument, with hot water and spans the inner bone will break. Where we feel strongest Elohim will take away from us, so we do not rely on our human strength, but only on Him. The inner bones of our lives are the ideas of Egypt and Rome.

We cannot play a genuine pleasant sound if there is something bothering our life. Gold purifies with fire. As the bone fall out of the Shofar in pieces, it is the same with us. If Yahshua asked us everything in one moment, we would not be able to.

What is the solution to get rid of flies at home? The answer is cleaning. If you have overdue meat, throw it out and flies will go away. Remember that Beelzebub is the lord of the flies, flies are attracted to bad smell, the bad smell of sins attract demons and they cause many problems.

We are like the Shofar: if the Shofar smells bad it attracts flies, if a person smells bad because of his or her sins he or she attracts demons. Yahshua fixes our lives in the areas that smell bad.

Read Ezekiel 36:24-30.

If we use water to clean the Shofar, to clean ourselves Elohim uses water, which is His Torah. Let us remember what Yahshua said to Nicodemus in John 3 and John 4:13-14 to the Samaritan women.

When a person has a stone heart, it must be cleaned, it is the inner bone of the Shofar. Therefore, we are cleaned by Yahshua.

The solution for darkness is light. The solution for a person influenced by demons is the water of the Torah. The solution for a drought is water. Yahshua removes all impurities.

Then, the Shofar is polished and sanded. The imperfections left are so we do not feel glorified talking of ourselves; it is the sting (2 Corinthians 12:7-9). So, there are changes in our lives, from inside to outside. Our interior must be noticeable from our exterior.

YHWH DOES NOT MANIFEST HIMSELF AMONG THE CULTURE OF ANY PEOPLE OTHER THAN ISRAEL BECAUSE IT IS A DIVINE CULTURE.

What we feel on the inside is manifested in our exterior.

Once all this is done, to finish the Shofar it is shinned. YHWH does this with us, too.

In conclusion, if we are true clean Shofarim, the Ruach HaKodesh blows over us, like we do with the Shofar, read Bereshit (Genesis) 2:7.

HALLELUYAH!

THE GRAND RESCUE

Knowing some of the attributes of YHWH like Love, Mercy etc. How to think that He will unleash His anger over the righteous? See Bereshit (Genesis) 18:23, Romans 5:9, 1 Thessalonians 1:10, and 1 Thessalonians 5:9.

Now: there is only one wedding, and that wedding is with Israel. See Hosea 2:19.

Who Is Israel?

1. Jews believing in Yahshua get married.
2. Non Jews that come to Yahshua get married. See 1 Corinthians 12:2, Ephesians 2:12.

Terms for the marriage: Those that obey to Yahshua, see Hebrews 5:9.

How? By keeping His commandments: John 4:15 and 21.

Those that raise an altar to YHWH and consecrate their life to Him, get married, See Luke 21:34-36, Revelation 3:10.

Those that keep the Eternal Covenant: The Shabbat.

Enoch was taken before the flood, Genesis 5:24. And he was taken so that he would not see death, Hebrews 11:5

The Christian Church thinks they get married, but it is not like that, because they are keeping the Sunday like a day of worship, using false names to call Elohim, and keeping pagan feasts like Christmas, and believing that the Messiah died on Friday and rose on Sunday.

Consult Revelation 18:4. For these that keep the commandments of YHWH are saved of receiving plagues that will whip this Earth.

We could not imagine that after keeping the Mitzvot (commandments) and be Kadosh (Saint), Elohim would unload His anger over us. Will YHWH unload his anger over his beloved children? We would not imagine hail over the righteous or over their homes with a weight of 70 lb. See Revelation 8:7, we would not imagine demons coming out from the center of the earth and terrorize the Kadoshim for 5 months and that these could not die. See Revelation 9:5.

Consult Revelation 12:12, it would be a catastrophe for the Kadoshim Residents of the Earth that Satan comes with all his hosts to torture them. There will be people that will repent and will be saved in the great tribulation, therefore we have to give the message of Salvation but quickly, before it is too late.

The righteous will be taken away before the anger, Isaiah 57:1, Isaiah 26:20, and Isaiah 33:15-19.

The salvation is a gift: Will Elohim whip to those that have believed in Him? And Will He whip to those that have been obedient only to Him? Why to believe the doctrine of the Cabalist? See John 14:1-3 and 1 Thessalonians 3:13

Many think that it is: at the last trumpet of Revelation, but it is not like that, because here an angel blows the trumpet, and in the grand rescue is Yahshua himself, 1 Thessalonians 4:16-18.

It is the ultimate grand trumpet in Yom-Teruah, because it is celebrated with a Rosh Chodesh (Day of the trumpets and New moon), and the day and the hour nobody knows, because in the ancient times the Cohen used to go up the hill because he did not know what time the new moon come out, that is what Yahshua means in Matthew 24:36. If we see Titus 3:1, would we submit to the beast? Of course NOT!

Resurrections

There are two resurrections, the first one occurs in three stages:

1. See Matthew 27:52-53: They rose after the resurrection of Yahshua, but they died again, here in the earth.
2. The Grand Rescue is in Yom-Teruah. Revelation 3:10, and 1 Thessalonians 4:16-18.
3. Those that will die in the great tribulation will rise in the second coming of Mashiach. Revelation 20:4-5. This happens before the millennium. The grand rescue already occurred, because Yohanan only mentions this group that did not worshiped the beast, not even his image, not even get marked.

What would happen to the Kehila as a whole? And, what about the Kadoshim that obeyed Yahshua in everything and died?

Grand rescue Isaiah 26:19 and Hosea 13:14.

The Kehila of the saints, is the bride = Israel. A Bride is treated with delicacy, here in the Earth, she gets protected, she gets spoiled, and she gets cared. Therefore, we cannot imagine that the bride of Yahshua, being The King of the universe, will mistreat her in the great tribulation.

2nd Resurrection. Occurs after the millennium: See Daniel 12:2, John 5:28-29, John 6:39-40, John 11:23 and Acts 24:15.

HERE, THE RIGHTEOUS AND UNRIGHTEOUS WILL ROSE. LET ME MAKE IT CLEAR, THAT IN THE FIRST RESURRECTION ONLY THE SAVED ONES WILL RESURRECT.

The proof that some of us will go and others will remain here: See Isaiah 33:17-19.

In the second resurrection, the unrighteous Yahshua will take them out of hell to send them to the Lake of Fire. See Isaiah 13:8.

Yahshua has a plan for each one, for each stage.

Who are the ones that are seated in the thrones? See Revelation 20:4 and Luke 22:29-30, it is the apostles, and they form part of the Kehila for the greatest rescue, already occurred. See Revelation 11:16, the other 12 = the 12 sons of Israel.

As an observation, see Numbers 10:2 the trumpets of silver, the first one is to gather the children of Israel, the second one (the last) to remove the children of Israel. Therefore, with all this, can we believe that Yahshua HaMashiach will destroy His bride with the hail, fire, demons, asteroid, poisoned water, etc., etc.? What kind of groom would He be? Yahshua is love to the ones that believe in Him, are humble and obey.

WHO WILL ESCAPE FROM THE WRATH?

There are people that will take the Theme of the Two Houses of Israel, believing that the House of Israel is the Christian Church, which observes Sunday as the day of worship and dares to call it the day of rest.

Of Course we can worship every day, but:

1. The Seventh day is the day of worship.
2. Sunday should not be called the day of rest.

They think that the house of Judah is Rabbinic Judaism. This is wrong, see Jeremiah 3:8, both of the houses committed adultery, but YHWH did not divorce Judah, because then there would not a little remnant left (remember that the Ketubah was not cancelled), in other words, the matrimonial contract is there, but the marriage has not being consumed, yet.

See Hosea 11:12.

There is only one truth faith, See Ephesians 4:5 and was delivered to those whom are preserved, See Jude 1:3.

In the passage of John 4, there is the encounter of Yahshua with an Ephraimite. She was Ephraimite because in verse 12 say: "our father Jacob" and Yahshua did not try to correct her in this point. In verse 20 says: "in this mountain", remember that the 10 tribes were separated, then Yahshua told her that their practices were false and the Jews have the Truth=Torah. John 4:22-23, Yahshua says: "the true worshippers in spirit and in truth", therefore this is opposite to the Ephraimite practices and cites the Torah described in: Psalms 119:142 and Ezekiel 36:27.

The Prophecy is in Ezekiel 37:15-20.

Now, 10 men from every language =10 tribes (house of Israel), they took from the Tallit of a Yehudim, because they will know that Elohim is with them. See Zechariah 8:23.

In Romans 11: this prophecy is parallel with the two sticks of Ezekiel 37, the word is Etz=Tree, Therefore Ephraim is grafted, because they became gentiles, they were paganized.

It is an error to say that the Christian church was born on times of: Acts Chapter 2: All were Jews, All believed in Yahshua and all observed the Torah.

See Hosea 11:1, it refers to Exodus 4:22-23: Israel is the firstborn of YHWH.

The Samaritan woman (Ephraimite – house of Israel) with her false doctrine: What did she do? She believed, remember the word faith=Emunah in Hebrew it means to believe, trust, and obey.

In John 4:39-42, it is written that many of the House of Israel believed in Yahshua and returned to the Torah, left their false practices of worship and did what Yahshua had told them, therefore they were saved, see Hebrews 5:9 and John 14:15 and 21.

Remember what Jeroboam made, 1 Kings 12:25-33.

Then, we repent, do what Yahshua wants and demands, and don't do what we want to do, see Hebrews 8:8-13 (verse 13 refers to the blood of male goats). The Torah IS STILL VALID, the sacrifice is already made by Yahshua, in the cross of Golgotha.

Read Hebrews 10:15-31. It is more demanding, nowadays.

Read Daniel 12:4 and Isaiah 29:10-19. The New Covenant is a renovation of the Eternal Covenant.

Our Messiah promised us that the truth will be revealed, See Luke 8: 17, Luke 24:31, and Luke 24: 45.

Many think to have: Let us read Luke 8:18.

Everything is given by the father, John 3:27.

Because of the disobedience, see John 12:40

In Matthew 24:12, the evilness is the same as anti-Torah. This is translated as deceive, therefore in the last days there will be hoax, See Matthew 24:4, 5, 11, and 24.

What do we need to unmask the spirit of error? We need the Ruach HaKodesh See 1 John 4:6.

The Torah is the truth, See John 17:17, if it is not received, Elohim send the spirit of deceive to believe the hoax, see 2 Thessalonians 2:10 to 12.

Read John 16:8 and 13.

The Spirit of deceive rules in the disobedient children. Ephesians 2:2

Who to Fear? See Matthew 10:28 that is how it was at the beginning, See the Acts 9:31, 2 Corinthians 7:1, Ephesians 5:21 and 1 Peter 2:17.

When the Judgment will begin to fall, some will believe and fear Adonai, see Revelation 15:4 and 19:5.

Then within the plain grand tribulation, some will observe the Shabbat, Matthew 24: 20.

Who will go to hell? See Matthew 7:23, Matthew 13:41-42: doers of evil mean transgressors of the Torah. And those who are obstacles are the ones that say not to observe the Torah.

The apostasy is that the Torah was kept by someone, and now that person does not keep it anymore, See 2 Thessalonians 2:3. Question yourself. Is Yahshua governing our bodies in saying that we are the temple of the Ruach HaKodesh? How do we get in the eternal life? The answer is by Emunah (faith) obeying the Commandments, See Matthew 19:17, Luke 10:25-28, John 12:50, Revelations 22:14 and Luke 16:17.

THE SHABBAT IS THE ONLY BIBLICAL SIGNAL OF SEPERATION, see Exodus 31:13 and 17, Ezekiel 20:12 and 20.

YHWH is separating for HIM, in this anti-Torah world.

Read 2 Timothy 3, the entire chapter.

During the great tribulation the earth will be sick, see Isaiah 24:1-6. Why? Read especially the verse 5, and the result is verse 6. Therefore, ask Yahshua for forgiveness because of the anti -Torah, do it soon, See Matthew 7:14 and Matthew 22:14.

A faithful person to YHWH obeys the Torah; remember the fornication of the House of Israel. The Anti-Mashiach will fight against Mashiach and the faithful will be with Him, Revelation 17:14.

Who are the saints? The answer is: those that obey the Mitzvot, Revelation 14:12. In the grand tribulation, some will obey the commandments, Revelation 12:17. Therefore, have faith in Yahshua and obey the commandments of YHWH to enter the Eternal Life.

On one side, will be the bleak abomination, and in the other side, a remnant will be obeying the signal of Elohim: The SHABBAT. See Matthew 24:15-22.

COME OUT OF HER, MY PEOPLE

Revelation 18:4

Yahshua HaMashiach is coming soon. Time is running out.

Every believer in the Messiah of Israel must follow what the Eternal Father stipulated in His Tanak (bible).

Apparently the Christian church follows the Messiah, but read the following lines that are very interesting:

In the United States of America there was a television program with a presenter who invited a professor from a Roman Catholic University and a Christian pastor.

The presenter said: we have two people that think differently. We will see who has the truth.

He asked the Catholic professor first: why do you say that you have the truth? The Catholic responded: well, first of all, Peter was the first pope, secondly, the dogmas and the traditions of the Catholic church are very strong and are followed worldwide by millions of people, and he added rising his voice, Rome still rules!

Later the conductor asked the Christian pastor in front of the public: It is your turn, explain to us why you say you have the truth, the Christian pastor responded: well, this man lies because Peter was not the first pope, and the dogmas and the traditions of the catholic church, although they are followed by millions of people worldwide, they are false, the Christians have the truth because we base ourselves only on the bible. Roma does not rule over us.

Then the conductor was about to end the program when the Catholic professor raised his hand and said: One moment! One moment! I will demonstrate to this clown (referring to the Christian pastor) that Rome still rules!

- 1. In case the Christians are blind. The day of rest of the Lord is on Saturday (Shabbat), and the Roman Church changed it for Sunday in order to worship the sun (by Emperor Constantine) and the Christians follow us, in other words, they accept it.*
- 2. The birth of the Lord Jesus Christ was in the month of Tishrei (September) and we changed it to December, so we could celebrate the birth of Tamuz, and the Christians follow us, in other words they accept, even celebrating Christmas.*
- 3. The Lord Jesus Christ died on Wednesday and resurrected on Shabbat, and we the Roman Catholics say that Jesus Christ died on Friday and resurrected on Sunday (day of the sun), if you realize it is only two days, where is the third day? And the Christians accept our doctrine, and he added while raising his voice strongly, Rome still rules!*

Then the Christian pastor bowed down his head, had nothing to say, and was strongly embarrassed.

I invite you to reflect seriously over this and be true followers of the Messiah of Israel, Yahshua HaMashiach is his name.

Shake off all the Roman traditions and follow the Torah Emet, in other words the true instruction.

May the Eternal One bless you greatly!

Shalom UBracha! (Peace and blessings)

THE MISINTERPRETATION OF THE TORAH

We are going to analyze the important key points that have been misunderstood by the traditional Christianity of what Rav Shaul (Paul) really wanted to say.

1- Romans 6:14 and 16.

- a) Traditional Christianity says that we are not under the law of Elohim (Torah) and that we are under the grace.
- b) The real meaning: we are not under the law of the sin, read Romans 7:25 and 8:2.

2- Romans 10:4

- a) Traditional Christianity says that Christ is the end of Elohim's law.
- b) The real meaning is that Yahshua HaMashiach is the Torah's purpose or objective. Psalms 19:7 says that the Torah is perfect. Therefore, what is perfect does not need to be changed. Psalm 119:44, says: "so shall I keep Your Torah continually, Forever and ever."

Let us examine this Christian misconception, so if Yahshua brought an end of the Torah, then everyone is allowed to kill, steal, and commit fornication, and so on; of course not! John 14:15 says: "If you Love Me, keep My commandments."

3- Colossians 2:13-14.

- a) Traditional Christianity says that Jesus Christ nailed Elohim's law on the cross.
- b) The real meaning is that Yahshua HaMashiah nailed our debt and the record of all of our sins. Read Colossians 2:14.

4- Ephesians 2:14-15

- a) Traditional Christianity has understood that Christ abolished the law of God to introduce us to the grace.
- b) The real meaning is that the law of the commandments expressed in the ordinances refers to the extra biblical ordinances, traditionally rabbinical, not to Elohim's, Read Ephesians 2:12.

5- Colossians 2:16-17.

- a) Traditional Christianity says that the days of rest and other covenants of the Old Covenant were abolished by Christ and that nobody must judge someone else for not keeping the feasts
- b) The real meaning is all of the opposite, nobody has to judge us for keeping all of that YHWH has commanded us to do. Most bible versions say: "But the body is of Christ," but it does not make any sense. The original text says: that the body of HaMashiach can judge other true believers for not making their best effort to keep the Torah. We encourage you to read Zachariah 14:16-19 you will find out that the feast of Sukkot will be celebrated during the millennium. However, the people that will not celebrate the feast of Sukkot will be punished.

6- Hebrews 8:13

- a) Traditional Christianity says that the Old Covenant (mistranslated as Old Testament) is already obsolete.
- b) The real meaning. We should understand Chapter 31 of Jeremiah: what is going to disappear is the action of looking for the Torah, because we all know it through Yahshua. Read Romans 15:8-13 and Jeremiah 31:31-33.

7- Galatians 4:8-11

- a) Traditional Christianity says that the Galatians were converting to the Jewish law.
- b) The real meaning. We have to understand that the Galatians did not have the Torah, because they were gentiles. Therefore, they could not convert to something that they did not have. They were guided by astrology and mythology; they were converting back to their practices.

Rav Shaul never denied being Pharisee; see Acts 23:6 and Romans 7:12. Also, Rav Shaul says that the Torah is true, holy, just, and good.

8- 1 Timothy 1:8-9

- a) Traditional Christianity says that the law of God has no validity in the life of the believer, because we are already justified by Jesus Christ.
- b) The real meaning: the fact that we are justified by Yahshua does not exempt us from the responsibilities and blessings that imply obeying the Torah and live in holiness.
Romans 2:13 says: “for not the hearers of the law are just in the sight of God, but the doers of the law will be justified.”

9- Galatians 3:13

- a) Traditional Christianity says: there is no need for Christians to obey the law of Elohim, because Christ obeyed it for us when He died at the cross.
- b) The real meaning: we must understand that Yahshua carried the curse caused by our disobedience to the Torah, in the cross at the Golgotha. But, it does not mean that because we are saved, He grants us a permission to keep being disobedient. Read the blessings and curses for keeping and not keeping the Torah in Deuteronomy, chapter 28.

10- Matthew 9:16-17

- a) Traditional Christianity says: the grace that Jesus Christ brought to us, cannot be contained by the law of God.
- b) The real meaning is that Yahshua came to give the correct interpretation of the Torah; it does not change in the religiosity that had been done. There has always been grace; it is enough to read the Psalm 119, where King David experienced the grace.

11- Philippians 3:8

- a) Traditional Christianity says that Paul got rid of the law of Elohim and he considered it as trash.
- b) The real meaning: Rav Shaul made reference to the achievements of his flesh, not to the Torah. Rav Shaul never spoke anything against the Torah, read Acts 24:14, 25:8, 26:22, and 28:17.

12- Revelation 2:9 and 3:9

- a) Traditional Christianity says that it refers to those gentiles that now keep the law of God. Christians say those gentiles have gone from the gospel to darkness.

- b) The real meaning refers to those that say they have substituted Israel. Elohim has not cast away his people. Read Romans 11:1.

13- John 7:2

- a) Traditional Christianity says: the feasts written in the Law of Elohim are exclusively for Jewish people, not for Christians.
- b) The real meaning: John's Gospel is mostly directed to a gentile audience. John refers to the Feast of Tabernacles as the feast of the Jews for better identification. However, let us remember that the feasts of YHWH are not exclusively for Jewish people. The book of Numbers 15:16 says that there is only one Torah for the people of Israel and for the stranger. Leviticus 23:1-2 says: The solemn feasts of YHWH, therefore the feasts belong to Him and are celebrated for Him.

14- Matthew 11:13

- a) Traditional Christianity says: After John the Baptist announced about the coming of Christ, people are not obligated to obey the Law of Elohim.
- b) The real meaning: the Torah did not end in the times of Yohanan (John the Baptist); this verse makes reference to how far the Torah reached up at that time, and not to its validity; because its validity is eternal. If you read the books of Isaiah, Ezekiel, Jeremiah, and Zechariah, you will be able to clearly see how they prophesized about a period after the death and resurrection where people will still keep Torah. Read Isaiah 11:6-9 to know what will happen during the millennium.

15- Titus 3:9

- a) Traditional Christianity says: We are not obligated to keep the Law of Elohim anymore, and arguing about it is vane and without any benefit.
- b) The real sense: Titus was a young man and Yahshua set him as a pastor of a Kehila. Rav Shaul suggested him not discuss with contentious people. Read Ephesians 5:16

16- Acts 10:9-15

- a) Traditional Christianity says: nowadays we are able to eat anything.
- b) The real meaning: This passage never said that Elohim changed the instructions that He previously gave us, it says that Kefas was commissioned to talk to the gentiles, since Elohim had cleaned them to receive the words of salvation. Why was this vision given to Kefas? The answer is in Jeremiah 31:27, the House of Israel would go astray from the paths of YHWH, they would behave as animals guided simply by their instincts. Therefore, Kefas' vision has no relationship with food, but with people. Kefas never killed nor ate unclean animals. Moreover, he later ministered it to Cornelio, who was a gentile.

17- Mark 7:18-23

- a) Traditional Christianity says that in these verses Jesus Christ is teaching us that everything can be eaten and that the unclean comes out from the heart.
- b) The real meaning: Yahshua is not telling us that we are able to eat anything. He is saying that the most important thing is to have a clean heart

18- 1 Timothy 4:1-5

- a) Traditional Christianity says that many will leave the holy doctrine and will impose the abstinence of food that is sanctified by the word and prayers.
- b) The real meaning: Rav Shaul did not tell Timothy that everything could be eaten; instead he says that the requisite is to thank Elohim for it, to pray for the food that is permitted by the Torah.

19- Romans 14:1-3

- a) Traditional Christianity says that those who follow a diet based on the Torah have a weak faith.
- b) The real meaning: the person who's diet is kosher is not weak, but the one that does not have knowledge of the Torah is weak. It is as if someone says that prophet Daniel was weak in faith because he ate kosher. That would be a great mistake.

IN CONCLUTION, YAHSHUA DID NOT COME TO ABOLISH THE TORAH, READ MATTHEW 5:17-19

THE TRUE DAY OF WORSHIP TO THE ALMIGHTY

Many Christian pastors in the region of Tehuacan have asked me some questions about the true day of worship, which I will gladly answer with respect and care.

To begin with, let us analyze, why do I say that Shabbat is the day of worship, if the bible says that the disciples gathered on the first day of the week? (Acts 20:7)

Let us read the book of Genesis, which in Hebrew is called Bereshit. The word Bereshit means in the beginning. The Genesis account of creation tells us that, Elohim Most High considers the evening and morning to be one day. Genesis 1:3-5; "Then Elohim commanded, 'Let there be light'- and light appeared. 4 Elohim was pleased with what he saw. Then he separated the light from the darkness, 5 and he named the light 'Day' and the darkness 'Night'. Evening passed and morning came, that was the first day."

Genesis 1:8; Elohim created more things, "Evening passed and morning came, that was the second day."

Genesis 1:13; "Evening passed and morning came, that was the third day."

Genesis 1:19; "Evening passed and morning came, that was the fourth day."

Genesis 1:23; "Evening passed and morning came, that was the fifth day."

In Genesis 1:31; "Elohim looked at everything he had made, and he was very pleased. Evening passed and morning came, that was the sixth day."

On the seventh day Elohim rested and made it the official day of rest for everyone, Genesis 2:2-3. "2 By the seventh day Elohim finished what he had been doing and stopped working. 3 He blessed the seventh day and set it apart as a special day."

Elohim does not follow man-made times. One day for Elohim begins at the evening.

When sacrifices were offered under the authority of Elohim, they were offered between the two evenings, Exodus 12:6.

Shabbat the true day of rest, the seventh day, begins on Friday at sunset and ends on Saturday at sunset. The phrase from evening to evening is completed here.

So, back to Acts 20:7 verse, the apostles were gathered together to split the bread, on the first day. What does it refer to? To be practical, Shabbat begins at 6 pm on Friday, and ends at 6 pm on Saturday, as it is commanded by our Eternal Father.

The first day of the week starts on Saturday at 6 pm. usually, the apostles would gather together after the end of Shabbat. In the same passage Rav Shaul (Paul), explains that he had been teaching up to midnight. Acts 20:8 it says: "Many lamps were burning in the upstairs room where we were meeting."

Here it is clear that the first day of the week begins right after Shabbat is over.

When our hearts are opened, we easily understand the words of Elohim without any problems or contempt

Elohim commanded us to keep the Shabbat. Nowhere in the New Covenant (New Testament) says that the day of rest has been switched to any other day. Not even one verse!

We cannot add or remove anything from the Bible. We must learn to teach what Yahshua HaMashiach stipulated.

Painters, artists of all times, and Hollywood have created an image of our savior, dressing Him in Greek or Roman robes, garments that He never wore.

Our savior is Jewish, therefore he dressed like Jew, ate like a Jew and wore a Tallit with Tzitziyot (tassels). The Tzitziyot stand for the commandments of the Torah, Deuteronomy 22:12.

Many people around the world are following the teachings of the Elohim of Israel and Savior of the world. Yahshua is His name and all of His instructions are true. Because in John 14:6 He said, "I am the way, the truth, and the life."

Because He is the truth, why should I follow instructions that are contrary to everything He said in the Bible?

The name of the savior is Yahshua, the only true God is Him, and there is no salvation in someone else.

In conclusion, the millennium is a thousand year reign, Yahshua HaMashiah will reign from Jerusalem; it is the millennium of the Shabbat. Elohim considers one thousand years as one day, Psalm 90:4. Six thousand years have passed, and we are near to enter in the millennium, but before the millennium, we will endure the tribulation. So, it is in the seventh millennium in which Yahshua will govern from Jerusalem. It makes reference to the seventh day, the true resting day, SHABBAT.

If He would have changed the day of rest, then the millennium of His reign would be on the eight one, but it is not. Elohim never changed the day of worship. YOU MUST DECIDE TO FOLLOW THE ELOHIM OF ISRAEL AND WE MUST DEMONSTRATE THAT WE LOVE HIM. HOW? THE ANSWER IS IN THE BIBLE, WE MUST OBEY HIS COMMANDMENTS, NOT THE TRADITIONS OF MEN, John 14:15.

YAHSHUA IS ELOHIM

Read Deuteronomy 6:4.

CURSES

Read proverbs 26:2. Everything has a motive, there has to be a reason or a cause that provokes it and therefore there are consequences. The intention is then to deactivate it, revoke it and accomplish the blessing.

Curse means to speak bad about somebody else, and it signifies calumny. Mark 7:22

Happiness and failure depend on breaking curses; the important thing is that the evil powers do not advance.

Deuteronomy 21:23, Deuteronomy 27:16-26, Joshua 6:26 and Joshua 7:24.

Therefore, obey Elohim, Deuteronomy 11:26.

It can pass from the curses to blessings of Elohim (Numbers 23:18-23)

The pagans knew this (Numbers 22:6)

Read the following verses in the New Covenant: Mark 11:11-14, Acts 5:1 and on.

Capernaum and Bethsaida were cursed: but now they are no longer under it.

We must bless those who curse us (Luke 6:28, Romans 12:14).

The curses for not obeying the Torah were nailed on the cross, but we must keep Torah. We have clarified that the Torah was not nailed, but the disobedience to it (Galatians 3:13-15).

The first covenant ends with curses, the second ends with blessings: why? Because they detested YHWH and His prophets, (Malachi 3).

THREE SOURCES OF CURSES

1. Elohim
2. Man
3. HaSatan and his angels

1. Curses by Elohim:

It is by His justice, because He cursed the earth; we see even now the consequences, the ozone layer is depleted and people suffer the consequences such as droughts.

YHWH has cursed the earth in different times: the times of Noah, of Babel, of Sodom and Gomorrah, of the Temple, etc.

Check Proverbs 18:21: His word is power.

2. Curses by man

1. Psalm 119:28-29. Because man was created in the image of Elohim, he has the power to discover things from that which was created by Elohim.

3. Curses by HaSatan and his angels

They are not omnipresent; they need allies like the witches, wizards, etc.

PURPOSE OF THE CURSES

1. By Elohim.

To protect His kingdom, (Ezekiel 6:1-7). It is a defense of protection anywhere HE allows us to go. His word is water and sword of two sides.

Check Matthew 7:24-27, Luke 20:18: this rock can fall on us; or we can be broken to be saved.

There are three main purposes of Elohim:

1. Keep his holiness and his justice (2 kings 1:16-17).

2. Judge sin (Jeremiah 18:5-7)

3. That the person repents (Jeremiah 18:8-9).

PURPOSE OF MAN

1. By revenge or rivalry. Noah to Canaan (Genesis 9:25) and remember Shimei and David (2 Samuel 16:5-13).

2. By a servant of Elohim, to punish an enemy of the word of the Eternal (Acts 13:11, 1 Corinthians 5:5)

3. To say despicable words does more damage than what we imagine, for example calling a child: dwarf or dumb, etc. In the future this child will be a bad father and a bad husband.

In a Kehila the pastor must be demanding but loving with the sheep.

Another example is when a person is always cursing himself or herself, for example pronouncing:

I am dumb, sick, etc. the results is that, that person will be it.

CURSES OVER A NATION

Read Proverbs 11:11 If it comes from the devil, its purpose is to disobey Elohim; people practice enchantments, Gnosticism, amulets, etc. The demons act by placing thoughts of sin against Elohim.

Desperation, disputes, not helping, not to tithe, not giving offerings unleashes curses.

The pagans hired Balaam, because they knew about this (Numbers 22).

CHARACTERISTICS OF CURSES

There must be a trigger sin, and that is how curses enter (Proverbs 26:2 and Ecclesiastes 10:8). Therefore, one must be protected personally, familiarly, at work, in the ministry and around our petitions.

IMPORTANT NOTE: the curses are not subjected to time; they go from generation to generation, until they are cancelled.

ACTIVE CURSES

These operate in the air, and they are:

1. Aor
2. Qelex
3. Hala
4. Arar
5. Herem
6. Nacab

AOR

Aor= eyes. There is spiritual blindness, to not see the truth of Elohim, does not uncover the Torah, therefore they are deceived by false doctrines. It is activated by talking bad about the people of Elohim, the Jewish people (Genesis 12:3). Talking bad about the servants that are chosen by Elohim, unleashes it (Galatians 2:7 and John 1:12); that is why people that live religiously attack the holy people, and say that we are hypocrites, thieves, and that we lie to the people. This is why they do not reach the truth, therefore they are not saved (Isaiah 6:4, and Mark 4:12).

QELEL

This curse causes a person to lower himself in his purposes, does not prosper, loses his power, his path changes drastically in another direction (Genesis 8:21) treat as insignificant or despicable (Exodus 21:17).

Qelex was unleashed in Genesis 7 with the flood (Genesis 6:12-13)

The corruption and the violence activate Qelex.

Corruption= shachat=trap, damage, steal, defraud, all this activates Qelex. HaSatan enters and destroys the family and everything else.

Violence= hamaz= choke, take somebody by the neck, suffocating (Matthew 18:28-30), this man was destined to be free and prosper, but he became a slave (Matthew 18:31-35), it is activated by not forgiving (Matthew 6:15). Therefore, there is bitterness, it damages the family and the Kehila (Hebrews 12:15)

Hatred is harmful and activates this curse. Therefore, there is no access to the grace of Elohim (Matthew 5:38-39, and Matthew 5:44).

HALA

It is really destructive, there is mental confusion, self-compassion, and we find here the transgender. Why? Isaiah 24:5-6.

Trespassing is to change the commandments of Elohim (Daniel 9:11-12)

ARAR

This person loses all grace: no one wants to be with this person because he is inconvenient, annoying and therefore he or she feels rejected. Why? Malachi 2:2.

Not giving the glory to Elohim activates it. (Genesis 3:6, and in Genesis 3:14 and 17 we see that the serpent was used to curse (Arar) the earth). Abraham constructed an altar to YHWH (Genesis 12:7). Twisting the word unchains Arar.

HEREM

It is a highly destructive anathema; it is to annihilate, a deadly injury, fatal accidents, and lives ruined.

Why? Joshua 6:8, 1 Samuel 2:29. To promise and not to fulfill unchains it (Matthew 24:2). Therefore, we should not to envy vain things, but to look at the things of the Eternal.

NADAB

It means full of bones; people or city exposed to the violence, stabbed, mistreated. It is manifested in the family, in the business, and if people harvest one side, blessing goes away through several of holes.

The person is unhealthy (Isaiah 2:6, and Isaiah 2:12) it is unleashed by pride, arrogance; the dishonesty to the wise and advisor; the pride unleashes Nacab; the person believes to be wise in his own opinion; the person thinks he is more than others. The person thinks he is better than others because he earns more money, but he will pay for his sin with cries and tears.

HOW ARE THE CURSES BROKEN?

They can be revoked, annulled, and invalidated by Yahshua HaMashiach, by His precious blood and by the rebirth (birth from the heavens) of a person. It can be done by doing teshuva, it is to repent and stay away of sins.

1. Recognize the cause of the curse, repent and do not commit them again.
2. Repent up to the fourth generation.
3. Confessing the sin and leaving it by changing the attitude, asking for forgiveness to YHWH, in the name of Yahshua (whom is our savior).

When there are doubts on how to break them, go to an authority, set up by Elohim, to help you pray and to revoke the curses.

The problem is that the people do not want to renounce to their sin of pride, and they do not let themselves be ministered.

Here you have the curses, their causes and their consequences. It only depends on you to stop being cursed and come to the blessing of Yahshua.

WHO IS A TRUE MESSIANIC?

1. The Messianic finds true resistance because he goes against everything that is from this world.
2. The true Messianic is lineage of Abraham by blood or by faith.
3. We are not Christians disguised with Tallit and Kippa.
4. We believe in Yashuah as Messiah.
5. We believe in what is written in the letter of James 2:14 and 19.
6. We believe in the gifts of the Ruach HaKodesh (1 Corinthians 12:7 and on)
7. We believe: Romans 8:1-14.
8. We believe in deliverance and spiritual warfare. But, what is required? The answer is paying the price like the contempt, hate, rejection, incomprehension because what HaSatan wants is to prevent that you become friend of Elohim. It is profitable for HaSatan if you are warm, worldly, and distracted in your own things. Your old friends will murmur about you, therefore not all are willing to pay the price.
9. We believe that it is possible to enter the Kadosh Kadoshim (the Most Holy place) by the merits of Yahshua HaMashiach.
10. We believe in the gift of prophecy, and let it clarify that a prophet is the one that listens with his two spiritual ears the voice of YHWH, for himself or to transmit to others. WITH THIS GIFT WE KNOW WHAT ELOHIM WANTS AND DEMANDS FROM US, ALSO WE CAN ASK WHAT WE NEED FROM HIM. The devil hates this because you can know things without human intervention. That is why this gift has been so discredited by HaSatan through his followers, for example, this is what they say: "The Lord told me that I have to marry you".

A true Messianic has a spiritual intimate relation with Yahshua HaMashiach.

Check Matthew 7:23 and Bereshit (Genesis) 4:1. Here the word is yachad. Do not to call yourself prophet or a teacher, if you were not called by Elohim. Why? The answer is in Matthew 15 verse 13.

Therefore, we have to calculate the cost, and live in holiness in order to have communion with Yahshua, see Romans 8:31. BE PREPARED, THEY WILL CALL YOU JUDAIST, THEY WILL SAY THAT YOU ARE A MEMBER OF A SECT, THAT YOU ARE LEGALIST. IF IT THE OPINION OF OTHERS WORRIES YOU, IF YOU ARE WORRIED ABOUT CRITICS, YOU ARE NOT GOOD FOR THIS!

Read, comprehend and obey the complete pasuk (verse) of James (Jacob) 4:7.

The devil fears Elohim, not us, therefore we must submit ourselves to Elohim. If we resist, and don't submit ourselves to Elohim, the devil does not run away, so we must be obedient, not just simple believers. A soldier obeys, He is YHWH TZEBAOT: it is a celestial and human army; therefore we are soldiers, not civilians! So that is how we assume our position. Romans 8:21 and Matthew 7:21.

Authorities

There are authorities set up by Elohim and other ones are set up by humans. How can we be able to distinguish one from the other?

The authority set up by Elohim preaches and obeys the Torah. The servant does what the Eternal One asks in the Tanak.

The authorities set up by man: they are no more than denominational leaders that do what they want. They go against what is demanded by the Eternal One! We must turn away from those.

An authority set up by Elohim:

1. Does not do his own will, he does the will of YHWH.
2. Does not fear anyone or anything, not human or spiritual, he only fears Elohim.

3. Is born to be a warrior.
4. Is victorious because he knows that YHWH is with him.
5. His steps are directed by the Ruach HaKodesh.
6. Therefore we must SUBMIT TO THE AUTHORITY SET UP BY ELOHIM, because they don't do anything without first consulting YHWH in prayer and fasting. Check Galatians 1:11.
7. Someone who does not obey the orders of such is not a soldier, but civilian, 2 Timothy 2:3.

Deliverance and Spiritual War

Check Ephesians 6:12. Time is rapidly approaching for Yahshua HaMashiach to come, so:

1. Deliverance has to be routinely, so there will be healing of the soul and body.
2. We comprehend that the majority of the accidents and illnesses, as well as marriage problems are attacks of HaSatan. Therefore, confront them and defeat them thanks to Yahshuah HaMashiach.
3. The increasing of activity of the enemy is palpable, therefore take deliverance seriously, because in many Kehilot (congregations) the Roeh (pastor) does not make emphasis on this, and it is regrettable.
4. If there is yachad (communion) with Yahshua, then the enemy will not take advantage of us or the kehila.

Difference between a true Messianic and approximately 2600 denominations

1. There is only one true faith. Ephesians 4:5.
2. So why so many denominations? Because they go away from the original roots, away from the teachings of Yahshua HaMashiach. If they are asked, why they celebrate Christmas? They respond: "that is how they taught us!" then we ask: who or what authority taught this? Is that authority set up by the heavens or by the earth? The response is logical; they were set up by humans not by Elohim.

3. Shaul (Paul) says: “but we have the mind of Mashiach”. 1 Corinthians 2:16; therefore think and act like Yahshua.
4. The denominations say: I live in the spirit! But in reality they do the opposite of what the Ruach HaKodesh commands.
5. The Messianic follows the teachings of the Rabbi Yahshua HaMashiach, because He is divine, He is Jewish. According to science, we the followers manage more the right hemisphere than the left one regarding intuition, creativity, revelation, etc. With the left hemisphere we manage the sequence, the logical, and the reasoning. BUT THE THINGS OF ELOHIM DO NOT HAVE HUMAN LOGIC, therefore the denominations turn into “CAGES FOR THE CONGREGANTS”. Because they do not follow the teachings of Yahshua HaMashiach, there is no revelation, and they are cheated by false revelations.
6. All of the denominations only take the tithes, the Psalms, some teaching of how to dress, and get rid of everything else in the Torah.
7. The Messianic has the Mitzvot (commandments) in the heart, Jeremiah 31:31-33 and Hebrews 8:10
8. The Messianic celebrates the solemn feasts of YHWH and not the pagan festivals of the devil, because these last ones have nothing to do with the instructions of the Rabbi and Elohim Yahshua.
9. The Messianic does not believe neither celebrates “the weekly holy supper or monthly holy supper”. He believes and celebrates the annual Pesach.
10. The Messianic keeps the Shabbat and not the pagan day of the sun god of Mithraism (Sunday). So the Messianic keeps the three major feasts: Pesach, Shavuot and Sukkot. He also celebrates the other feasts of YHWH.
11. The Messianic believes and pronounces the true names YHWH, Yahshua and does not pronounce the gentile anti-Semitic names.
12. The Messianic believes that all the scripture is inspired by the Ruach HaKodesh; therefore he obeys all the scripture and not only parts that the denominations prefer for convenience.
13. The Messianic believes in the tripartite nature of only one Elohim and does not believe in a god divided in three people (the trinity) Deuteronomy 6:4.
14. The Messianic believes that the whole original bible was written in Hebrew and not in Aramaic, Greek, and of course it was not written in Latin. Luke 23:33-38, John 19:13-17 and 20, Acts 21:40, Acts 22:2, Acts 36:14, Revelation 9:11, Revelation 16:16.

15. The Messianic believes that Miriam, the mother that housed Yahshua in her womb, was Jewish, kept Torah, spoke Hebrew, the Kadosh (holy) language that is hated so much. That is why when a Messianic ministers to a denominational, this last one responds: "you have to talk to me in English, do not mention that language!"
16. The Messianic does not believe in the lie that everyone believes in the same god, can it be that the Muslims believe in the Elohim of Israel? And the Buddhists and the Hindus? Here, billions of souls don't have salvation. And, what about the denominations? Where are they? Not wanting to obey the Elohim of Israel, the only Elohim that saves.
17. The Messianic fears YHWH; because to fear is one of the manifestations of the Ruach HaKodesh. Isaiah 11:2, Revelation 4:5, Revelation 5:6. Therefore the messianic for fear to YHWH, does good deeds, see Luke 14:26, Luke 21:19, James 1:21, John 12:25, Philippians 12:12, 1 Peter 1:9, and 2 Thessalonians 12:13.
18. The Messianic understands the prophetic times that we are living in, the restoration of all things:
 - a) The true names
 - b) Keeping all the Torah. So, keep the Shabbat and the festivals of Elohim and get rid of everything pagan.
19. Then Messianic understands that all of the restoration includes the exaltation, which must be in Hebrew, and the dance is holy and it pleases YHWH that his sons and daughters exalt with joy.
20. The Messianic understands that all worship, prayer and fasting are important armor against the enemy, living in holiness and keeping the Torah.
21. The worship can be with or without music. And why with Hebrew lyrics? Because it has the restored names, in the true worship we can enter the Kadosh Kadoshim (the Holy of Holies). With music and dances for the Eternal One, there is deliverance from demonic oppressions or demonic obsessions (not like the worldly dances, where the people stay the same). Here there is elevation and spiritual growth. The devil has deceived:
 - a) Making the people feel, that Elohim is pleased when they stay very quiet and still.
 - b) HaSatan has lied that Elohim likes all types of music. When Yahshua had encountered with the Samaritan woman, He tells her that they are not worshipping YHWH like it pleases Him, and that it must be in the spirit and truly. Is it possible that YHWH is pleased by all the music of the flesh such as country music, night club music, Salsa, Hip-Hop, rap, or rock?

22. A true Messianic Roeh (pastor) is not interested to have more souls, so there can be more money.
- a) Because he is not greedy.
 - b) He is interested in the salvation of the souls, not the money.
 - c) The administration of the money is done correctly; seeing the needs in the kehila and to reach souls.
 - d) I recall: NOT TO GREEDINESS!
 - e) A true Messianic Roeh does not think that he will be the best because there are more souls in the Kehila, that is arrogance. He thinks in the quality of the souls.
23. A Messianic looks for a Moreh that helps defeat the doubts of faith that he has to strengthen.
24. A true Messianic is faithful to Elohim and to the Kadosh place, where the word of the Eternal YHWH is ministered.
25. A Messianic needs the advice based on the Torah from someone who has overcome problems and difficulties with success.
26. The Messianic advisor must be committed to Elohim, fearful of Elohim and a true warrior in prayer, fasting and demonic deliverance.
27. The married Messianic, if they both are believers, they must pray, fast together, exhort with love, impose hands, anoint with oil one another, do the same for the children, and break continuously curses uttered against them. If they are going to talk about something they have to pray before to keep believing mutually. They must give complete testimony of holiness and be discrete when speaking, dress correctly, etc.
28. A true Messianic helps his kehila, completes his obligations that are marked in the Torah, does spiritual war, supports the holiness of others, and intercedes for others to Elohim.
29. A TRUE MESSIANIC IS THERE WHEN OTHERS NEED HIM, THEREFORE HAS WILLINGNESS, NO MATTER THE TIME, SLEEP OR APPETITE HE HAS.

- 30. A true Messianic is careful to not develop a closer relationship or friendship too attached to someone of the opposite sex, remember that the purpose of HaSatan is to destroy, kill and steal.
- 31. For all these reasons and more, A TRUE MESSIANIC WILL BE THE ONLY ENEMY THAT HASATAN WILL HAVE AT THE END OF THE TIME.
- 32. A true Messianic gives visible testimony of his family in the kehila and the society: in dressing, education, and obedience of his children. The testimony has to speak better than the words. So, he takes care of how he speaks, sits, stands, walks, etc. and must be authentic, not an actor and hypocrite, for example: how can someone speak of deliverance when there is arguments and discords in his own family?
- 33. A true Messianic does not turn, not even a millimeter, away from the truth of YHWH.
- 34. A true Messianic must leave all his past doctrines and change them for the doctrines of YHWH; therefore he must be totally obedient to YHWH.
- 35. A true Messianic is not arrogant; he stays to be ministered, because he is humble.
- 36. A true Messianic learns the primordial of Hebrew, for there are some words that in the original do not have the same significance as the translations.

Note: If you want to open a kehila remember that you must be authentically called by Elohim YHWH: “And no man takes this honor unto himself, but he that is called by Elohim, as was Aaron”, Hebrews 5:4.

THE ERROR OF LUNAR SHABBAT

Knowing Shabbat is a covenant, a commandment, and a sign, it does not bewilder us that since the beginning of time HaSatan has tried to stop the children of Israel from celebrating Shabbat. He knows that when the children of Israel forget Shabbat, they suffer tragic consequences. One clear example is the Babylonian exile, (Nehemiah 13:15-31 and Ezekiel 20:12-13),

Example: Christianity has changed Shabbat to the first day of the week (Sunday), obligating the children of Israel to leave Shabbat for Sunday. Muslims have changed it to the sixth day of the week (Friday).

We must remember that every week has seven days, and the Shabbat that we keep today; which is based in the beginning of the creation: "And so the whole universe was completed. ²By the seventh day Elohim finished what he had been doing and stopped working." (Genesis 2:1-2 and Exodus 20:8-11)

The Torah teaches us that we begin to count from the first day of the creation, until arriving to the seventh day which is Shabbat. That is why it is impossible that the count start by the lunar cycle; the moon was created on the fourth day of the creation (Genesis 1:14).

The root word of Shabbat confirms the discussion before:

Shabbat = שָׁבַת Primary Root Word; rest, ex. not exercising; finishing, rest, ending, keeping (the day of rest).

The number seven, which in Hebrew is Sheva, relates to Shabbat. The word sheva comes from the word Shavua = שָׁבוּעַ = week, which means seven or made of seven. We learn that a week always consists of seven days, and the seventh day is Shabbat.

The commandment is to work six days and rest on the seventh. The Torah does not teach us of eight days' week or nine days week. How would it be if we were celebrating a lunar Shabbat?

Example:

The countdown to lunar Shabbat begins on Rosh Chodesh or new moon, so the 7, 14, 21, and 28 of every month would be "lunar Shabbat".

If the 28th is Shabbat, then we would not say that the following Shabbat would be after six days, which is according to the Torah, but until seven or eight days later.

This table allows us to easily see what I tried explaining before:

New Moon	2	3	4	5	6	Shabbat 7
8	9	10	11	12	13	Shabbat 14
15	16	17	18	19	20	Shabbat 21
22	23	24	25	26	27	Shabbat 28
29	30

New Moon	2	3	4	5	6	Shabbat 7

This teaches us that, if we keep lunar Shabbat we violate the true Shabbat commanded by Elohim, we would also violate the seven-day week established since the creation of the world. This goes against the commandment of working for six days and resting on the seventh, because there would be occasions in which we would work for seven or eight days, and resting on the eighth or ninth day.

According to the doctrine of lunar Shabbat, the 28th day would be Shabbat. Also, since Hebrew months have 29-30 days, the countdown to the next Shabbat would not be of six days but of eight. This would make Shabbat fall on the ninth day and not the seventh, being a violation of the Torah.

Shemot (Exodus) 16:25-29 is a verse that tells us clearly about this. Here, Elohim commanded to gather manna within six days and rest the seventh. Did He say to gather manna for seven days or more? Of course not! This means His Shabbat is weekly and not according to the moon.

Even the Torah subdues the theory of lunar Shabbat, if we study the commandment of counting seven weeks until the festival of Shavuot, resulting in 49 days. This means that, the seven weeks must consist of seven days, and if we were to conform to lunar Shabbat the sum of days would always be incorrect.

The festival of Pesach also subdues the theory. The Torah does not mark Shabbat as the 14th day of the first month. The Brit Chadasha teaches us that the 14th day is for the preparation of Pesach. It was on this day when Yahshua HaMashiah was hung on the cross. In no place does scripture say that day was Shabbat, nor says it was a violation of Shabbat.

Some of the followers of lunar Shabbat do not start their count down on new moon, but a day after new moon, making the 8th, 15th, 22th, and 29th of every month Shabbat. This means that within the same followers of lunar Shabbat, there is confusion. The 15th of every month would be Shabbat according to their doctrines, which does not agree with what the talmidim of Yahshua HaMashiach have written in, Luke 23:54-56, so if we accept the 15th as Shabbat of HaMatzah and also lunar Shabbat, we would be saying that Yahshua HaMashiach resurrected the next day, which would ultimately mean he was not in the heart of the earth for three days and three nights like Matthew 12:40 and John 12:18-22 says.

From all this, we can clearly understand that in the days of Yahshua HaMashiach, lunar Shabbat was never celebrated. Shabbat, then, was weekly like YHWH had commanded Moshe.

Neither the Torah nor New Pact (New Testament) mentions lunar Shabbat. Not even traditional Jewish scriptures, which date before the Mashiach, speak about lunar Shabbat. Documents of Torah scholars inform us that even Sadducees, Samaritans, and Jews shared the same calendar during the period of the second temple when Yahshua lived. Today Samaritans still use the same calendar.

It is true that there have been changes in the Jewish calendar; nevertheless, Shabbat has stayed intact.

We are living during time of Babel or confusion, only those who do not keep extreme holiness will be confused. We invite you to do Teshuva and guard yourself from all sin because Yahshua HaMashiach is coming soon.

CARNIVAL

Carnival means the celebration of flesh. All these festivities are celebrated for the invocation of the god (MOMO), within the Greek-Latin mythology he was the god of the mockery. He was the son of the night and the dream.

The god MOMO was represented as an outlandish character, which was crowned with a ridiculous hat and embellished with sleigh bells, and had a constant guffawing face.

He also was represented wearing a mask that covered half of his face, and holding a toy that symbolized the Bacchic craziness; it is referred to Bacchus “god of wine”.

Moreover, the carnival is celebrated to honor three gods:

Eros =Sex

Pan = Music

Bacchus = Liquor

It is celebrated in order to mock the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.

In some places of Africa there are human sacrifices. In some other places it is a time for celebration, drinking, obscene dances, almost naked bodies, insinuation of sexual intercourse, violence, drugs, lack of control, etc. These are some of the elements you can find in a carnival.

In the letter to Romans 8:7, written by Shaul (Paul), say: “Because the carnal mind is enmity against Elohim (God); for it is not subjected to the law (Torah = the instruction given by Elohim to His people) of Elohim (God), nor indeed can be.” You are welcome to download the audio of the Torah, and listen to it from our page in the internet at www.gozoy paz.mx

Furthermore, in the letter of James 4:4 says: “Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you not know that friendship with the world is enmity with Elohim (God)? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of Elohim (God)”.

Therefore, anywhere that there are masquerades there are lack of control, lust, and idolatry.

The world's carnival lies to us immensely. It absorbs us so much that our lives are brief masquerades. Here we can see laughter with cry, and crying with laughter.

The ethnologists have found in the carnival remaining elements of ancient pagan celebrations called saturnalias (celebrations to honor Saturn as a god).

Also, Carna is a Celtic, goddess for bacon and broad beans.

Baal is a pagan god of many idolatrous cultures, such as the Phoenician and many others.

Let us analyze the meaning of the word Carnival: Flesh for the Baal, it means for Satan. People honored satan by engaging in orgies, bacchanalias, prostitution, drinking alcohol until they were unable to drink any more, homosexuality, and lesbianism.

All these practices irritate Elohim (The Almighty), in the world almost everyone keeps celebrating all these carnivals. The worst part of it is that people do not realize that their individual values are declining in every sense: Ethic, moral, economic, and safety, to mention some of them. With respect to safety, we should understand that there is more violence, terrorist attacks, wars, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, starvation, etc.

The population, in general (not everyone), is living a sinful life, without any control.

So, there are costumes, parades, and parties on the street in every Carnival.

This celebration, Carnival, has existed for more than 2000 years, and it has evolved through time.

Mardi Gras (fat Tuesday): During the pre-Columbian time, people in Europe used to kill a fat bull, then they used the fat to prepare several types of fried meat. When the Europeans arrived to the entire American Continent, they brought these celebrations with them.

Brazil was one of the Portuguese colonies, and when the African slaves arrived to that country, they began to create the roots for the carnival celebration.

Another example is Louisiana (US) where the traditions of the French were mixed with the traditions of the African-Americans, and the Native Americans.

The Carnival is mainly celebrated in the islands of the Caribbean, in some parts of Mexico, Belize, Panama, Colombia, Brazil, and some other countries. It is also celebrated in major American and Canadian cities with significant Caribbean population, such as New York (USA), Miami (USA) and Toronto (Canada).

ALL THIS IS REPULSIVE TO THE KING OF GLORY, YAHSHUAH HA MASHIACH IS HIS NAME. THE CUP OF PATIENCE OF OUR ALMIGHTY FATHER IS GETTING FULL. IT IS TIME FOR ALL OF US TO COME BACK, REGRET OUR SINS, AND TO SEPARATE OURSELVES FROM EVERYTHING THAT IS WRONG. LET US FOLLOW WHAT ADONAI (GOD) TELLS US TO DO IN THE BIBLE, IF WE WANT AN ETERNAL LIFE.

HOW MUCH IS TRUE ABOUT CHRISTMAS?

The Mithraism had and still has two sacred days. The first day of the week is called SUNDAY; it is one of the celebrations of Mithraism. The second celebration is the 25th of December, as the day of nativity; in other words, the birth of the sun.

Please read Isaiah 65:1-11. In the verse 11, our Almighty Father says: "Who prepare a table for Gad," or "set a table for Luck," Gad is a pagan deity vowed for fortune, or luck, this deity was adored by Babylonians. So, if you think you are fortunate, think it twice, since you know the origin of the word is pagan.

Moreover, in this same verse, 11, the word Destiny, or Meni (another Babylonian deity), is mentioned. As you can see, here are two demons in form of gods that are being present, as Gad and Meni.

HOW ARE THEY WORSHIPPED?

Please read Isaiah 65:2-4. People used to go to their gardens, and underneath a tree they vowed to those two deities. They, also, sacrificed a swine and it would be eaten on the 25th of December. Now we know where the Christmas tree comes from, we, also, are learning why a pig is served in the Christmas, and Christmas Eve supper.

If you read Isaiah 66:17, you will learn that Adonai (G-d) hates all this, and the people whom follow those traditions will be annihilated from our people. Please read Exodus 32:1-5, as you know by now, we must not mix what is Kadosh (holy, sacred) with what is pagan.

Some people say: we know that, but it is to:

1. Be united as a congregation.
2. Fraternize.
3. Celebrate the birth of the Messiah, etc.

Most of the people give one and one thousand excuses and disobey the word of Adonai (G-d).

The question is: does Adonai accept mixtures? No way! Please read Exodus 32:10.

Our Elohim dislikes idolatry, but he hates even more the mix of idolatry with holiness. Please read 1Kings 12:26-33. Did Adonai accept the mixture of paganism with Torah? Please read 1 Kings 13:33-34.

Therefore, the problem began with the attempt to “Christianize” the pagans, which ended in a mixture of faith with celebrations, dates, and pagan practices that are detested by our Almighty Father. We all know that Adonai, always, has kept a remnant. Not all of the people of Israel participated in the molded calf worshiping, made by Aaron; neither all the Israelites participated with Rehoboam, neither all Jewish had worshiped the gods of fortune and destiny.

Please, read Romans 11:1-5. In this passage we learn that our Almighty Father answered “I have reserved for myself seven thousand men who have not bowed the knee to Baal.” In a similar way, there has been a remnant by the grace of Elohim, nowadays. Who are in the remnant? The answer is: those who do not mix the sanctified with the unclean, those who do not mix the truth with lies, those who do not accept to mix the table of Adonai with the table of the demons. We must serve to Adonai in an absolute sanctity, only.

The cup of patience of Adonai is getting full up to its limits, because there is so much disobedience. Therefore, we have to think: are the disobedient people being saved? Please, read 2 Kings 17:16-20 and Psalms 106:35-41.

The druids used to kill a pig and offered the head of it to their goddess Freya, on the winter solstice.

The ancient Germans considered Bertha as the goddess of hearth and home, and in the winter solstice they prepared an altar at the fireplace. Curiously, why does Santa Claus enter through the chimney and not through the door? You may be surprised that these two traditions are connected.

The exchange of gifts is a tradition from the ancient Romans to symbolize good wishes. They began by exchanging green branches, called “estrenas” (Tip or present), to the goddess Estrenia, symbolizing the health, life, and vigor. Then, they interchange figs, honey, and nuts. Eventually, they trade coins “Saturnalias” with the image of the god Janus.

What about the Christmas tree? There were some pagan customs in which people used to hang their enemies’ heads in sacred trees; in other ethnic “culture” the spheres symbolized the god sun (Tamus). This is all prohibited by Adonai, in the Bible. Please read Jeremiah 10:1-4.

New Year?

Let us learn who the Roman god Janus was. In Latin, Janus means: god of two faces, he was the god of the doors, the beginnings and endings, just as we see one year ending, and the upcoming year beginning.

That is why it was consecrated the first month of the year as January. He was the god of changes and traditions, the moment in which the present and future are separated. It was attributed to him the invention of money, laws, and agriculture. He was considered as the lord of eternity, and of the time. The Romans believed that he was the god that took care of the heaven’s doors; that is why he was painted holding a big key on his hand, which allowed him to close the door to the old year, and opened it to the New Year.

Julius Cesar, the roman emperor, with his reform he had created the Julian calendar, and gave the priority to Janus.

MONTHS OF THE YEAR
JANUARY	Janus
FEBRUARY	It was dedicated to Pluto, from the Latin Februare, which root is Februo, it means to get cleaned. The Romans had certain religious rites dedicated to Pluto, in order to become pure.
MARCH	Mars, god of the war. It used to be the first month of the year in the ancient calendar.
APRIL	April, from “aperio” means to open. It is because plants blossoms begin in this cycle. This month was dedicated to Aphrodite, by the Greeks.
MAY	Maia, elder goddess of Rome, to whom they used to offer sacrifices in the first day of May.
JUNE	Juno, marriage goddess.
JULY	At the beginning it was known as Quintiles, because it was the fifth month. Then its name was changed in honor to Julius Cesar.
AUGUST	Given in honor to the Roman emperor.
SEPTEMBER	Semptembris, from semptem=7.
OCTOBER	Octo, in Latin means eight.
NOVEMBER	Novem, in Latin means nine.

DAYS
ORIGINAL NAME	MEANING	ENGLISH
SOLIS	DAY OF THE SUN	SUNDAY
LUNAE	MOON	MONDAY
MARTIS	*MARS/TIWAS OR TYR	TUESDAY
MERCURIS	MERCURY(HERMES)/WODEN	WEDNESDAY
IOVIS	JUPITER/THOR	THURSDAY
VENERIS	VENUS/FRIGG	FRIDAY
SATURNI	DAY OF SATURN	SATURDAY

*Mars= Roman god of war. Tiwas= Germanic god of war.

Mercury= Roman god of trade. Woden= Roman/Anglo-Saxon god of winds and troops.

Jupiter= Roman god of the sky and thunder. Thor= Germanic god of thunder.

A true believer does what it is written by Elohim's word, a true believer keeps the Shabbat, even though in most of the dictionaries it is translated as Saturday, it does not have to be seen as the period of the time, but as a specific day of rest.

Why does the New Year's celebration have so much noise?

Nowadays, it is done with noisemakers, fireworks, and some other items. But, what is behind this tradition? In the ancient paganism it was done with loud noises and bonfire, in order to scare the "evil spirits," and to welcome the "good spirits."

In the letter to Romans 12:1 it is telling us that our worship has to be rational. Therefore, every Christian must follow what is written in the Bible, where the word of God is, and should not follow demoniac pagan traditions.

In the Holy Gospel, Mark 7:9 and 13 Yahshua say: “All too well you reject the commandment of God, that may keep your tradition.”

In the letter to the Colossians 2:8 Rav Shaul (Paul) say that we should not follow men's traditions, instead we shall follow the doctrines of Mashiah.

In Deuteronomy 7:26 says that we must not bring anything unclean in to our home, because it is a motive of curse.

For every single person that already knows the truth and is, still, doing wrong, such person is committing a sin of dissidence and obstinacy, and our Almighty sees him or her as a foreteller and an idolater. Please read Samuel 15:22-23.

All of this abomination will come to an end when Yahshua HaMashiah comes back to the world, and because most of prophecies have been accomplished, it seems to be soon.

DAY OF THE DEAD? HALLOWEEN?

Notice that during this celebration days, there are practices such as sorcery, witchcraft, and satanic rituals.

Halloween is celebrated on October 31st, during this celebration there is the participation of the massive media, commerce, schools, theaters, rock bands, movie theaters, and there are involved many Christian churches, nowadays.

The economic religious system of the world has made it to be understood as an opportunity to enjoy of: “a friendly party!” within the celebration, there are costumes contests, altars, and the opportunity to become a witch, ghost, elf, fairy, werewolf, vampire, magician, demons, mummies, extraterrestrials, etc...

Many children ask for candies, sweeties, and become mischievous. Some others watch horror movies or go to cemeteries at midnight. Moreover, there are spiritual reunions set by “Mediums”, whom are nothing else than people possessed by demons.

During this celebration there is an increment in the sale of books related to witchcraft, magic, sorcery, etc. Besides the radio and television, private and public schools are also great promoters of this event. Even more, people consult horoscopes, and some people go to consult fortune tellers.

In the Bible, in Leviticus 19:31 Adonai banned to consult enchanter or fortune tellers. In a similar manner, it occurs in Deuteronomy 18:10 and further verses.

Pop Gregory IV instituted “All Saints Day” in the year 834 C. E. This celebration generates many economic profits for concepts of: 1. Prayer for the dead, 2. Masses dedicated to dead people, 3. Prayers for the souls of people that are in the limbo or purgatory, 4. “Blessings with holy water” of mausoleums and crypts at cemeteries.

Altars dedicated to the visit of the dead are more common in Mexico: Janitzio, in Michoacán, Catemaco, in Veracruz, Teotihuacan, etc.

These dead's altars are set with candies, preserves, cigarettes, liquors, and the favorite food of the deceased. They are adorned with colorful papers and deceased's pictures, essences prepared by sorcerers (Candles), incenses, perfumes, and even the image of "la santa muerte" (holy death) in some homes. Read 1 Corinthians 8:4.

This is nothing new, the pyramids in Egypt and Mexico and the Taj-Mahal in India are some examples of a true cult to the dead.

In recent movies the production does not use science fiction effects anymore; they hire real Satanist servants, magicians, sorcerers and mediums to help them to recreate the authentic rites, curses, invocations, and to elaborate their sacrifices where their curses are said.

Youngsters and many adults invoke to the dead as if it was a game, or use the "Ouija". Furthermore, Harry Potter was a required reading book, in several schools of Mexico.

WHAT IS THE MAIN INTEREST OF ALL THIS? Satan is interested in being glorified by all these means, making him to feel as a god.

HOW DID ALL THIS BEGIN? Elohim (God) has instructed His feasts in very specific dates, to be exalted as the King, in a similar manner there is the existence of the Celtic Calendar with specific dates, too.

1. February 2 – it is celebrated goddess Brigit, a pagan goddess of healing.
2. In May it is celebrated Beltane; it is celebrated by sorcerers on sowing seasons.
3. In August, it is celebrated Lughnasadh, or Baal god.
4. The day of Samhain, arrival of winter. The ancient Druids effected rites, lightning a pumpkin of human Grease.

To Clairvoyants, it is the most occupied day of the year. One out of 4 people wear a costume of anything. The production of astrology books rises and its sale, too. "The homeland of the witchery in North America is Massachusetts".

Sam Hain is the Lord of the Death. The Celts who populated the ancient England, Ireland and North France, practiced the adoration to this god.

They believed that, the soul of the dead ones was returned to their houses, but it is not like that: THEY ARE DEMONS. In the gospels of Luke 16:19 and ahead, Yahshua quotes that there is not path between the Heaven and Hell. Therefore, the souls do not leave from heaven neither from hell.

In the year of 1717, all the druids gathered together to open the new druidism, with twelve witches and a satanic priest, imitating Yahshua and his 12 apostles. In the celebrations they dressed with costumes of leather and with heads of sacrificed animals. Now, you know where the Jaguar man of the Aztecs came from.

The druids make a deal with every family, they asked for a child or a virgin. They burned them in bonfire on top of a hill. Then, they left a pumpkin full of human grease, or with a candle lighted to prevent attacks of demons to these families, if any family refused to their demands, then the druids marked the house and that house was attacked by demons.

The Romans had ruled over the Celts for 400 years and their practices were mixed. The traditional religion, instituted the days of all the saints and faithful deceased. Then, it added that on this celebration the children come, the dead by accident, the burned ones, the ones that were not baptized, the drowned, the lost, increasing the idolatry and the cult of death.

ONLY ADONAI IS THE WORTHY OF ALL THE PRAISE.

Each year the Satanism increased into this celebration. The queen of the witches is elected in the kingdom of the black magic, the elected one, obtains psychic and demonic powers to do the evil.

By practicing all this, it opens the door to the occultism, and millions are pact with Satan.

Many people were possessed by demons; they put poison or really small blades in the candies that are given to children, so these die.

In these rituals, children are sacrificed, drink their blood, and ate their hearts. Once the witches finished there ritual, they go to the cemetery and they get mixed in the crowd that put flowers in the tombs, and start the spells, witchcrafts and curses to all the people.

I will write something else, that in the 31st of October they write the names of people in the book of the male goat, and start the Satanic Year. NOW YOU ARE UNDERSTANDING WHY THE RITUAL OF THE SLAUGHTER BEFORE THIS DATES? (THE SLAUGHTER IS A TRADITION IN THE REGION OF TEHUACAN) WHO IS THE INCENSE DEDICATED AND THE SACRIFICES IN THIS RITUAL? It is done because of ignorance, but now you know to who it is dedicated to.

The day of the Death is not a tradition: IT IS A SERIOUS ESPIRITUAL PROBLEM!!! Most of the people say: what is wrong whit it? The bible say in 1 Thessalonians 5:22 ABSTEIN OF ALL THE EVIL. This is clear.

Did you know that the satanic bibles are covered with baby skin?

Yahshua Hamashiaj says Matthew 12:30, "HE WHO IS NOT WITH ME IS AGAINST ME, AND THE WHO DOES NOT GATHER WITH ME ISCATTERS ABROAD."

Dear reader, analyze this article seriously; let us repent of all this abominations that have been made over many years to the King of universe.
