

positive

zdania twierdzące

negative

zdania przeczące

question

zdania pytające

I am smart

I'm not smart

Am I smart

The dog is big

The dog isn't big

Is the dog big

You are Kate and Emma

You aren't Kate and Emma

Are you Kate and Emma

My grandparents are 100 years old

My grandparents
aren't 100 years old

Are my grandparents 100
years old

She is Sarah

She isn't Sarah

Is she Sarah

I am wrong

I'm not wrong

Am I wrong

Jack is fast

Jack isn't fast

Is Jack fast

The shop is open

The shop isn't open

Is the shop open

Grammar practice: „to be” sentences

©Montenglish

Paul is funny	Paul isn't funny	Is Paul funny
Tom and Jack are from Italy	Tom and Jack aren't from Italy	Are Tom and Jack from Italy
It is a sharpener	It isn't a sharpener	Is it a sharpener
The pen is sharp	The pen isn't sharp	Is the pen sharp
Anna and I are tall	Anna and I aren't tall	Are Anna and I tall
It is a notebook	It isn't a notebook	Is it a notebook
You are 12 years old	You aren't 12 years old	Are you 12 years old
My parents are angry	My parents aren't angry	Are my parents angry
They are sharpeners	They aren't sharpeners	Are they sharpeners

Grammar practice: „to be” sentences

The cats are from Spain

The cats aren't from Spain

Are the cats from Spain

It is hot

It isn't hot

Is it hot

It is a book

It isn't a book

Is it a book