

FirstCOUNSEL

Law for business, online & on-demand

Sabyasachi Chatterjee

Transactions Counsel; FirstCOUNSELLOR

Education

LL.B (First Class), University of Pune, India (2005) Bachelor of Social & Legal Sciences (First Class), University of Pune, India (2003)

Legal Qualifications and Language Proficiency

Sabya is admitted to practise law in India, and is a member of the Bar Council of Delhi, India.

He is also awaiting results of the final assessment for the Qualified Lawyer Transfer Scheme examinations to be admitted as a Solicitor of England & Wales. Sabya is fluent in English, Bengali and Hindi.

Areas of Expertise

Sabya focuses his practice on capital markets and other cross-border corporate and commercial transactions across various industries, with a particular focus on India, South East Asia and Japan.

Sabya has lived and worked in Singapore and India, and advises multi-national companies, private equity and venture capital firms, and other investors in relation to complex cross-border mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, venture capital and private equity funding, business and asset acquisitions, general corporate matters, corporate restructuring and mandatory takeover offers. Sabya also advises on transaction structuring, and entry and exit strategies.

Prior to joining FirstCOUNSEL, Sabya worked in Singapore with an AMLAW 100 US law firm, and a Big Five Japanese law firm, and in India with a premier domestic law firm.

About FirstCOUNSEL:

We're an online platform offering on-demand legal support to startups. We want to empower the early-stage economy by making access to legal support easier, tailored & more affordable for them, using technology & workflow automation to redefine how these services are delivered.

For more information, please visit: www.firstcounsel.co