Perfect weather welcomes Derby Day goes

By Ralph Villers

DERBY - The early morning's rain seemed to portend danger to Saturday's Derby Day.

However, the rain abated and the sun and blue skies meant the show would go on. It was a day to savor the sights and sounds along Elizabeth Street and the historic and shady Derby Green.

We sample a few of the sights for our Valley-Voice readers.

Architecture highlights history of downtown Seymour

In 2011, Seymour became my hometown. In addition to my advocacy for improvements in making downtown a Livable Community, I've been photographing interesting architectural details that give character and individuality to buildings downtown.
