Barefoot End of Summer Festival, car show slated in Oxford Sunday

By Ralph Villers

OXFORD - The Annual Barefoot Summer Festival and Classic Car Show will be held from 11 a.m-4 p.m. Sunday at Colonial Tavern, 24 Hawley Road.

The event will benefit Connecticut Partnership for Children Inc., a 501(c)3 organization established in 2009 dedicated to supporting low-income children throughout Connecticut.

By working with their families and their communities, the partnership provides basic needs to low-income children.

Meghan Slekis, executive director, explains the importance of their mission: “We provide basic needs to low-income children through our programs from baby diapers to winter jackets.

“We also offer a Holistic Family Education program that provides individual education sessions to families regarding parenting, nutrition, and healthy living.”

Sleakis said, “Being a small nonprofit, we are heavily dependent on funding from many sources. Our individual and business donors, our community supporters such as the Katharine Matthies Foundation and local churches.

“Although we remain a small non-profit, we are funded heavily from the grassroots organizing of events such as the Annual Barefoot Summer Festival and Car Show,” Sleakis said.
