Tammy Denease portrays Joan Jackson

DERBY - The Derby Historical Society will host actress Tammy Denease performing "Joan Jackson - An Unchained Love Story" at its annual Silver Tea July 9.

The fundraiser will run from 2-4:30 p.m. at LaSala Banquet Hall, 73 High St.

Tickets are $30 and will be held at the door.

Your ticket to the Silver Tea includes tea sandwiches, baked goods, beverages and entry into our door prize drawing.

There will also be a raffle with over 40 prizes; tickets for this may be purchased, at an additional cost, during the event.

Call 203-735-1908 or 203-734-5765 for reservations or more information.

Joan Jackson – An Unchained Love Story

Joan was born into slavery to a deaf and mute mother, Maria. Maria would be owned by the Fox family. Maria would meet and marry John Jackson. They would wed and have two children, Adam and Miriam.

John would eventually be free and then purchase Joan's freedom. But because she was a slave when their children were born, they would have to leave the children behind. Due to a dispute between the Fox and Beebe families, Joan would be kidnapped and put back into slavery.

As Joan Jackson, Tammy will tell you about an 'Unchained Love' filled with twists and turns, heartache, deception and an undying love.
