

The ENGSO Youth Best Volunteer Award 2017– call for applications

ENGSO Youth will be hosting its Youth Assembly from June 8th – 10th in Paris, France. During this important meeting we will reward one young volunteer in recognition of his/her involvement in sport in Europe.

We ask you to spread this information within your organisation to find appropriate candidates for the ENGSO Youth Best Volunteer Award 2017 and put them forward.

Who is eligible to be nominated?

-  Be 18-35 years of age
-  Be a volunteer within sports movement
-  Have a minimum of 2 years of volunteer involvement at local, national or European levels
-  Either be involved in European matters or show interest in European sport issues
-  Be self-motivated
-  Speak English
-  Reflect and/or put into practice ideals of social inclusion, promote a healthy lifestyle and youth involvement in sport
-  Committee members and ex-members are not eligible

Through this award ENGSO Youth aims to:

- Develop the link between youth volunteers and adult volunteers within our member organizations
- Recognize support and participation of young volunteers
- Promote volunteering in sport in Europe and display its importance
- Give more opportunities for youth to get involved
- Award a young person, not as incentive but in recognition of youth volunteering

The best volunteer will be chosen after the deadline (15th of May 2017) and announced at the ENGSO Youth Assembly in Paris.
