

Kathleen Grace Hunsucker

Kathleen Grace Hunsucker, age 66, a resident of Fort Scott, Kan., passed away Tuesday, Aug. 4, 2020, at the Via Christi Hospital in Pittsburg, Kan. She was born July 8, 1954, the daughter of John Hunsucker and Patricia Lamb Hunsucker. Kathleen was a social butterfly at Tri Valley. She was known for her happy go lucky attitude and took an interest in the people around her. She enjoyed doing jobs in the Work Center and participating in activities, especially puzzle time.

Survivors include her father, John Hunsucker, of Winfield, Kan., and eight brothers and sisters, Claude Hunsucker, of Wichita, Kan., Linda Bakken, of Independence, Kan., Debbie Pollett, of Burden, Kan., Tom Hunsucker, of Wichita, Kan., Connie Streit, also of Wichita, John Hunsucker, of Douglas, Kan., Peggy White, of Chanute, Kan., and Mary Enderud, of Oxford, Kan. She was preceded in death by her mother, Patricia Hunsucker, and three brothers, Ronnie, Bobby and Chris Hunsucker.

Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 13 at the Elk Falls Cemetery in Elk Falls, Kan. Arrangements are under the direction of the Cheney Witt Chapel, 201 S. Main, Fort Scott, KS 66701. Words of remembrance may be submitted to the online guestbook at cheneywitt.com.

Aug. 8, 2020

FS Tribune

August 8-9, 2020

The Chanute Tribune

A Flight 2nd Place team; the Neosho Memorial Regional Medical Center (NMRMC) team of Brandon Montgomery, Lance Chickadonz, Andrew Gutschenritter and Ryan Lopez.

14 teams participate in Tri-Valley golf fundraiser

The Friends of Tri-Valley Foundation held its annual golf tournament at Horizons at Prairie Ridge Golf Course in Erie on Saturday, August 1. The tournament was originally planned for May; however, due to COVID-19, it was postponed. It was perfect golfing weather; a light breeze and temperatures in the lower 80s. Play began at 9 am with 14 teams.

The winners for A Flight were: 1st Place - the team of Preston Page, Michael Page, Gavin Page and Rowdy Kyser; 2nd Place - Neosho Memorial Regional Medical Center team of Lance Chickadonz, Ryan Lopez, Andrew Gutschenritter and Brandon Montgomery. The winners for B Flight: 1st Place - the team of Tyler Ray, Seth Hall, Andrew Whitaker and Kody Kuhn; and 2nd Place - the team of Wally Maples, John Cochran, George Fowler and Scott Cochran.

Prizes were handed out for the Longest Drive (which went to Gavin Page) and Closet to the Pin (which went to Brandon Montgomery).

Players were given the opportunity to once again try their chances with the "Trouble" Hole In One game. New this year was the "Betcha Can't Get on Door prizes were given out to several lucky golfers. The big prizes were a full-size Gatorade Cooler donated by Hugo's Industrial Supply and a "Tow & Stow" hitch from B & W Trailer Hitches. Lunch was sponsored by Community National Bank and was catered by Horizons at Prairie Ridge restaurant.

All money raised from the event goes toward the Foundation's mission of providing quality and affordable homes for neighbors with intellectual/developmental disabilities in the eight counties of Allen, Bourbon, Chautauqua, Elk, Greenwood, Neosho, Wilson and Woodson.

"Without the generosity of our communities, this fun event could not have been held," stated Special Projects Coordinator, Tricia Campbell. "It is friends like you that allow us to provide services to our neighbors with I/DD and to help them achieve the quality of life they seek."

Golfing for a cause

From left, Dennis Harding, Tony Leavitt, John Masterson and Andy Shaw were one of 14 teams participating in the Aug. 1 Tri-Valley Central Golf Tournament at Prairie Ridge Golf Course in Erie. Proceeds from the fundraiser went to Tri-Valley's foundation which helps provide homes for those with intellectual and physical disabilities. Tri-Valley serves Allen, Bourbon, Chautauqua, Elk, Greenwood, Neosho, Wilson and Woodson counties. COURTESY PHOTO

Iola Register
Aug. 11, 2020

Results from the 2020 Friends of Tri-Valley Central Golf Tournament

What a great day! The Friends of Tri-Valley Foundation held their annual golf tournament at Horizons at Prairie Ridge Golf Course in Erie, KS on Saturday, August 1st. The tournament was originally planned for May; however, due to COVID-19, it was postponed to August 1st. We could not have asked for a nicer day. August 1st was perfect golfing weather; a light breeze and temperatures in the lower 80's. Play began at 9 am with fourteen teams.

The tournament had two flights. The winners for A Flight were: 1st Place - the team of Preston Page, Michael Page, Gavin Page, and Rowdy Kyser; and 2nd Place - the team from Neosho Memorial Regional Medical Center of Lance Chickadonz, Ryan Lopez, Andrew Gutschenritter, and Brandon Montgomery. The winners for B Flight were: 1st Place - the team of Tyler Ray, Seth Hall, Andrew Whitaker, and Kody Kuhn; and 2nd Place - the team of Wally Maples, John Cochran, George Fowler, and Scott Cochran.

Along with the two flights, prizes were handed out for the Longest Drive (which went to Gavin Page) and Closet to the Pin (which went to Brandon Montgomery). Players were given the opportunity to once again try their chances with the "Trouble" Hole In One game. New this year was the "Betcha Can't Get on the Green" hole game.

Door prizes were given out to several lucky golfers. The door prizes were given by local businesses as well as from Wichita and Kansas City area businesses. The big prizes were a full-size Gatorade Cooler donated by

Courtesy Photo

Hofer golf team for Tri-Valley

Courtesy Photo

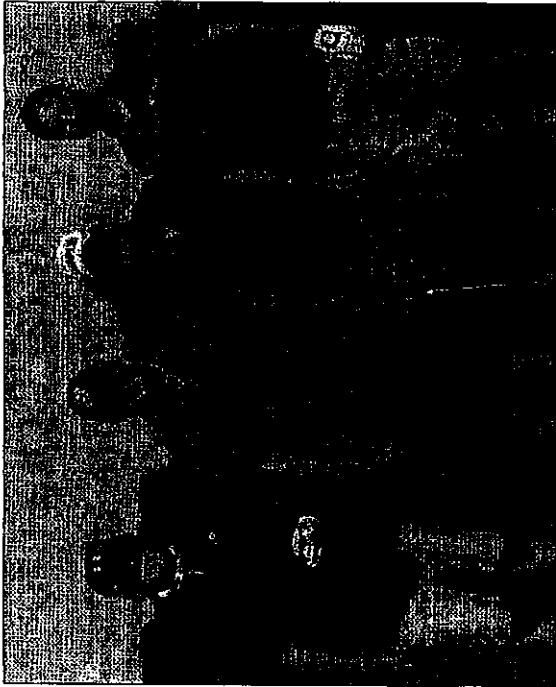

McReynolds golf team for Tri-Valley.

Hugo's Industrial Supply and a "Tow & Stow" hitch from B & W Trailer Hitches. Lunch was sponsored by Community National Bank and was catered by Horizons at Prairie Ridge restaurant.

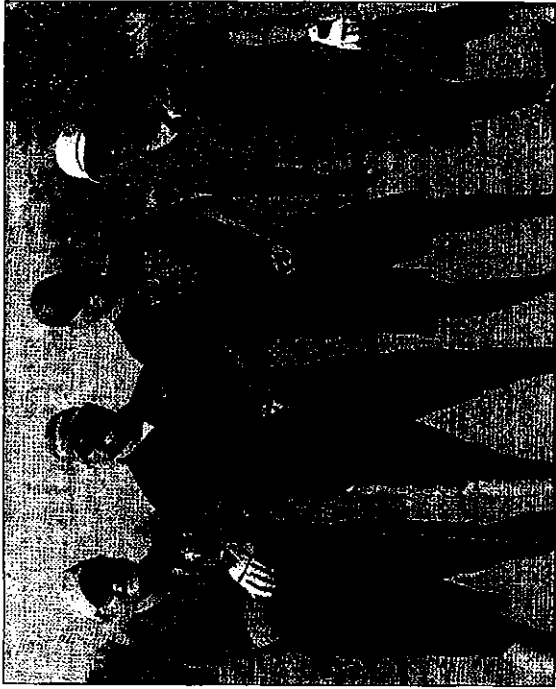

All money raised from the event goes toward the Foundation's mission of providing quality and affordable homes for our neighbors with intellectual/developmental disabilities in the eight counties of Allen, Bourbon, Chautauqua, Elk, Greenwood, Neosho, Wilson, and Woodson.

"Without the generosity of our communities, this fun event could not have been held. Thank you to all the golfers who participated as well as to our event sponsors: corporate, hole, and in-kind. It is friends like you that allow us to provide services to our neighbors with IDD and to help them achieve the quality of life they seek. Thank you" stated Special Projects Coordinator, Tricia Campbell.

Courtesy Photo
STEVE KLOTZBACH (from left), the Friends of Tri-Valley Central Golf Mike Hofer, Brad Piley, and Victor Tournament Saturday, Aug. 1. Uhner teamed up on the Hofer Team for

Courtesy Photo
SEAN MCREYNOLDS (from left) Tri-Valley Central Golf sponsored a team with Thad Well, David Wells, and Joe Bauer for the Friends of Tournament Saturday, Aug. 1.

Results from the 2020 Friends of Tri-Valley Central Golf Tourney

What a great day. The Friends of Tri-Valley Foundation held their annual golf tournament at Horizons at Prairie Ridge Golf Course, in Erie, Saturday, Aug. 1.

The tournament was originally planned for May; however, due to COVID-19, it was postponed to Saturday, Aug. 1. They could not have asked for a nicer day. It was perfect golfing weather, a light breeze and temperatures in the lower 80s. Play began at 9 a.m. with 14 teams.

The tournament had two flights. The winners for A Flight were: first place, the team of Preston Page, Michael Page, Gavin Page, and Rowdy Kyser; and second place, the team from Neosho Memorial Regional Medical Center of Lance Chickadoux, Ryan Lopez, Andrew Gutschritter, and Brandon Montgomery. The winners for B Flight were: first place, the team of Tyler Ray, Seth Hall, Andrew Whitaker, and Kody Kuhn; and second place, the team of Wally Maples, John Cochran, George Fowler, and Scott Cochran.

Along with the two flights, prizes were handed out for the event. The winners for A Flight were: first place, the team of Gavin Page, and Closet to the Pin, which went to Brandon Montgomery. Players were given the opportunity to once again try their chances with the "Trouble" Hole in One game. New this year was the "Betcha Can't Get on the Green" hole game.

Door prizes were given out to several lucky golfers. The door prizes were given by local businesses as well as from Wichita and Kansas City area businesses.

All money raised from the event goes toward the Foundation's mission of providing quality and affordable homes for our neighbors with intellectual/developmental disabilities in the eight counties of Wilson, and Woodson, Allen, Bourbon, Chattanooga, Elk, Greenwood, Neosho,

8/26 NOTICE File Register

Tri-Valley Board
meets
Thursday, August 27th
at 6 p.m.
1001 Wilson Drive
Neodesha, KS