Manufactured Homes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Newly constructed manufactured homes permanently affixed to the foundation are eligible. Manufactured homes completed within the previous 12 months are considered new. This is measured from the date the unit was manufactured (located on the data plate) to the date of the purchase contract. Existing manufactured homes built on or after June 15, 1976, are only eligible if already RD Guaranteed or is REO formerly serviced by a Housing and Community Facilities Program (HCFP)/USDA.
New Construction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Properties completed within the previous 12 months, or properties completed more than 12 months ago but have never been occupied, are classified as new construction. The following is required for all new construction loans: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Certificate of occupancy. If the local building authority does not issue certificates of occupancy, a copy of the eligible building permit along with 1) the inspections prior to footing and foundation poured, 2) inspections of plumbing, electrical, and mechanicals before the shell is enclosed, and 3) a final inspection will be acceptable. Minimum 1 year builder warranty. If the builder issues a 10-year insured warranty, this will be acceptable and evidence of the construction inspections may be waived. Thermal performance requirements must meet 2006 IECC code and is evidenced through the certificate of occupancy, final inspection, or 10 year insured builder's warranty.
Existing Construction	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Existing construction is defined as properties completed more than 12 months or properties completed in less than 12 months but have been previously occupied. A certificate of occupancy is not required on existing construction.
Property Condition	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Properties in C5 or lower condition are not eligible. Any repairs needed to make the dwelling structurally sound, functionally adequate, prevent health/safety issues, and to make the property functionally adequate must be completed prior to closing. Repair escrows are not permitted.
Flood	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Existing properties located in a flood zone must have flood insurance coverage. Flood insurance is not required if the subject property is not in a flood zone. New construction properties located in the flood zone are permitted with a Letter of Map Revision (LOMR) or Letter of Map Amendment (LOMA) issued by FEMA.
Septic Certification	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Private septic systems must be free of observable evidence of failure. The septic evaluation may be performed by the appraiser, a government health authority, a licensed septic professional, or a licensed home inspector. Evidence of the evaluation and findings are required. A septic certification may be required if noted by the appraiser, or at the underwriter's discretion.
Termite Inspection	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Termite inspections are required if noted in the purchase contract, by the appraiser, required by state law, or at the underwriter's discretion
Thermal Performance Construction Standards	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All dwellings secured by a USDA loan must meet the thermal performance standards as provided in RD Instruction 1924-A. Existing homes that do not meet the thermal performance standards are not eligible for USDA financing.
Well Certification	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Private well systems require a water quality analysis by the local health authority or state certified laboratory. A certification confirming the well/water meet state and local standards is required.
Limitations on Other Real Estate Owned	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Typically, borrowers owning another home are not eligible for USDA financing. Exceptions can be considered if the borrower's current home is at least 50 miles away from the subject property, or if the current home is not structurally sound or is functioning inadequately. Documentation is required to support borrower's need to purchase a new home through USDA. If the borrower owns another residence, it cannot be financed with a Section 502 Direct or Guaranteed loan from USDA. Borrower may retain one dwelling along with the new USDA loan.

Bankruptcy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> GUS Accept: Eligible provided the bankruptcy is reported accurately on the credit report and URLA declarations read by GUS. GUS Refer: Chapter 7 discharged for 36 months. < 36 months may be acceptable if it meets credit exception requirements. Applicants currently in a Chapter 13 requires 12 months satisfactory pay history and court permission to enter into transaction. Extenuating circumstances are required. If there are no extenuating circumstances, then Chapter 13 must be discharged for a minimum of 12 months
Collections	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This will be determined by the Underwriter when evaluating the strengths of the credit profile. Refr to Capacity Analysis Section below
Capacity Analysis – Collections	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Capacity Analysis is completed regardless of underwriting method. The Underwriter must complete a capacity analysis of collection accounts with an aggregate balance >= $2,000. Non-purchasing spouse's collections are included in the combined balances for community property states. Exclude medical collections and charge-off accounts from the total balance. If the aggregate balance is >= $2,000: 1) payment in full of collection accounts at or prior to closing. 2) Payment arrangements are made with the creditor and a letter from the creditor or evidence on the credit report is required to validate the payment arrangements. The monthly payments must be included in the DTI. 3) If there is no payment arrangement, 5% of the outstanding balance will be used to calculate payment.
Judgments/Liens	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> All outstanding judgments and liens must be paid prior to closing, including non-purchasing spouse judgments and liens. Tax liens with a repayment plan require a minimum three (3) month payment history paid as agreed. A copy of the agreement is required prior to credit approval. Borrower(s) may not prepay the scheduled payments in order to meet the three (3) month requirement. Payment must be included in the DTI.

Foreclosure / Deed-in-Lieu	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> GUS Accept: Eligible provided the foreclosure is reported accurately on the credit report and URLA declarations read by GUS. GUS Refer: Must be > three (3) years from date of trustee's deed. Documentation required; credit report is unacceptable. (CAIVRS-if applicable). If foreclosure was on a property guaranteed by USDA, the borrower is not eligible for new financing. < three (3) years (36 months) may be acceptable if it meets credit exception requirements.
Short Sale / Short Refinance / Modification	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> A borrower is not eligible if a short sale was pursued to take advantage of declining market conditions and purchase a similar or superior property within reasonable commuting distance of the prior residence. A borrower in default at time of short sale/restructure or pre-foreclosure is not eligible for three (3) years from date of pre-foreclosure sale. At time of short sale, borrower must have 0x30 mortgage and installment debt pay history for the preceding 12-month period.
Late Payments	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Borrowers with more than 1x30 day late in the previous 12 months, 2x30 day late in the previous 36 months, collections filed in the previous 12 months, charge-offs within the last 36 months, judgments filed in the previous 12 months, and open tax liens with no repayment plan are indications of unacceptable credit and may adversely affect loan eligibility.
Disputed Accounts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Disputed accounts are not considered in the credit score. For manually underwritten loans, all disputed accounts must have a letter of explanation and documentation supporting the dispute. Loans will be downgraded to a manual "refer" unless the following conditions are met on the credit report: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The disputed tradeline has a zero (0) dollar balance. The disputed tradeline is marked "paid in full" or "resolved". The disputed tradeline has a balance owed of < $500 and is more than 24 months old.
Monthly Debt Payment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Payments on all installment debts with more than six (6) months remaining are to be included in the qualifying ratio. This includes open collection accounts and debts that are in deferment or forbearance. Monthly payments on revolving debt are always included, regardless of payments remaining.
Minimum Payment	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> 5% of outstanding balance for revolving accounts if no payment is indicated
Student Loans	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Student loan payments for debt consideration must be fixed and fully amortizing for the life of the loan. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Fixed payment loans: A permanent amortized, fixed payment may be used in the debt ratio when supporting documentation verifies the payment is fixed, the interest rate is fixed, and the repayment term is fixed. Non-Fixed payment loans: Payments for deferred loans, Income Based Repayment (IBR), Graduated, Adjustable, and other types of repayment agreements which are not fixed cannot be used in the total debt ratio calculation. The higher of one-half percent (.50%) of the loan balance or the actual payment reflected on the credit report must be used as the monthly payment in the underwriter decision. No additional documentation is required.
Debt Not Reported on the Credit Report	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Third party documentation is required for verification of payment history of debt not reported on the credit report. Examples are alimony, child support, and separate maintenance fees. The recorded legal documents showing monthly payment and duration are required along with the most recent 12 months payment history verifying timely payments.
Mortgage / Rental History	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> For loans receiving a GUS Accept, the amount of rent entered into GUS must be verified with a copy of a cancelled check, a bank statement, or a rental agreement, per GUS findings. If the credit report does not provide the housing history rating, a VOM/VOR or cancelled checks is required. If the borrower rents from a relative, the most recent 12 months consecutive cancelled checks are required. Wage earner income to be documented with a written VOE and one (1) month's current paystubs or one (1) month's current paystubs and two (2) years W-2s.
Annual Income Limits	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Annual income is the basis for determining adjusted income. Annual income includes the total gross income of the borrower, co borrower, and any other adult (age 18 and up) household members, any amount anticipated to be received from a source outside of the family during the 12-month period, and all amounts derived during the 12-month period from assets to which any member of the family has access. If a cost-of-living allowance or a proposed increase in income has been estimated to be in effect prior to the first month's mortgage payment due date, this amount must be included as income. For annual income, count only the first $480 of earned income from adult full-time students who are not the borrower, co-borrower, or spouse. Rental income is included regardless of duration. Include total rental real estate income reported on most recent IRS form 1040 Schedule E for previous 12 months. If no Schedule E, cancelled checks, money order receipts, bank statements, or other documents may be used to support rent amounts received.
Adjusted Income	The adjusted income is used to determine if the household income is within the maximum income limits for the program. The adjusted income allows for deductions associated with varying household expenses, such as disability assistance, medical expenses, childcare expenses. Medical expenses are not an allowable deduction with non-elderly households. The income for all household members is considered when calculating the adjusted income. This includes the applicant, co-applicant, spouse, other adult, dependents (children under 18), and full-time students over 18. Note: The income of a full-time student 18 years or older who is not the applicant, co applicant, or spouse is excluded after it exceeds $480. Eligible deductions are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Each dependent - $480 Each disabled individual who is not the applicant or co-applicant - $480 Each adult full time student - $480 Elderly (head of household or spouse is 62 years of age and older and a borrower on the loan) - $400 (one time deduction; not per person) Disability expenses (Unreimbursed expenses in excess of 3% of annual income) Medical expenses exceeding 3% of gross annual for elderly households only Childcare expenses for children 12 years old and under (actual cost of care and must be documented), and Attendant care expenses for disabled members. Income limits are published for each county in the Exhibits of RD Instruction 3555-D and online at usda.gov/eligibility

Repayment Income	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Repayment income is determined by the stable and dependable income of the borrowers only. The repayment income is used to calculate the DTI. The borrower must have a history of receiving the income and there must be a reasonable expectation the income will continue for the next three (3) years. In addition to wages, income from employed minors, reimbursements for medical expenses, education scholarships paid directly to the student or the educational institution and tuition paid by the government directly to the veteran may also be included in the repayment income. Foster care for children or adults and Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program payments are ineligible for repayment consideration. Refer to RD Instruction 3555-D for additional requirements and allowable repayment income sources.
Non-Taxable Income	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Nontaxable income such as Social Security, Pension, Workers Comp, and Disability Retirement may be grossed up 25%.
Rental Income	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Rental income must be received for 24 months or greater. Two (2) years tax returns and a copy of the signed current lease are required. Positive rental income may be considered for repayment purposes (always considered for annual income). Negative rental income is considered a liability.
Unacceptable Sources of Income	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The following income sources are not acceptable for purposes of qualifying the borrower: Any unverified source of income, foster care income, income determined to be temporary or one-time in nature, retained earnings in a company, rental income received from the borrower's single family primary residence or second home, retained earnings in a company, stock options, trailing spouse income, unverifiable income, and income derived from State approved marijuana dispensary, even if W-2 wages.
Tax Transcripts	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Each adult (18 or older) member of the household must complete and execute an IRS Form 4506-C for the previous two (2) years at the time of application. Note: The information gathered from the IRS on household members not included on the loan is not intended to document income, but to validate the income documentation and disclosures provided by the applicant(s) on all adult members of the household in order to verify eligibility for the loan program only. All IRS Form 4506-C(s) are processed by Roundhouse Lending prior to issuance of Conditional Commitment.
4506-C or 2907 Puerto Rico Tax Returns	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Full income and asset documentation loans only. IRS Form 4506-C must be processed and income validated for the most recent two (2) years. Borrowers with income from Puerto Rico must: Sign form 2903 to obtain tax transcripts, returned Modelo SC 2907 transcripts for two (2) years, and transcripts must be translated to English and notarized by 3rd party. The 4506-C must be in the file with confirmation that states "no records found" when using Puerto Rico tax returns. The confirmation must be from the IRS website and contain the borrower's name and SSN.
Assets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Household Assets – All household assets must be disclosed and documented; household assets in excess of $5000 are added to household income at the rate of 1% or actual income earned per tax returns, whichever is greater. Common sources of household assets include the two (2) month average balance of depository accounts (checking, savings, etc.), current balance of securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds, etc.), earnest money deposits, HUD-1/Closing Disclosure proceeds from the sale of property, and equity in retained real property. Household assets do not include retirement accounts (IRA, 401k, 203b, pensions, etc.). Funds to Close – Must have sufficient liquid assets to close. Acceptable assets include checking, savings, gift funds, stocks/bonds, 401K/retirement, and proceeds from the sale of other real estate owned. Funds borrowed against retirement accounts may be used for loan closing. Unacceptable sources are cash on hand, unsecured borrowed funds, and retirement accounts that restrict withdrawal to retirement/employee separation.
Debt Payoff / Paydown to Qualify	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Payoff of revolving debt is allowed if paid in full prior to or at closing. The account payoff and zero balance must be documented directly from the creditor or the account may be paid on the Closing Disclosure (CD). Account closure may be required at Underwriter discretion where there is a clear impact to qualification.
Minimum Reserves	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> None. Reserves can be used as a compensating factor but must be the borrower's own funds. Reserves are calculated as the two (2) month average balance of depository accounts less funds to close. Retirement assets may be considered at 60% of the vested account value less all loans, provided terms of withdrawal show the asset can be readily converted to cash without retirement or job termination. Gift funds and proceeds from secured loans may not be counted towards reserves.
Gift Funds	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Permitted. Refer to USDA Guidelines for full gift fund documentation details.
Buyer Contribution	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> No minimum investment required. Borrower cannot receive cash back in excess of monies brought to closing by borrower.
