DRESS CODE:

The Gold Coast Railroad Museum is a family oriented and safety conscious organization and therefore, it is expected that any individual interested in participating as a volunteer adheres to the following dress code. Failure to do so will result in the individual being denied the opportunity to volunteer for the day.

General: Volunteers will be provided with a “STAFF” t-shirt which they are expected to return at the end of the day. Individuals with visible tattoos are to cover them up (i.e. long sleeve shirt, sweater, jacket, etc.) while on the premises. For safety reasons all volunteers are to wear “closed toe” shoes. This means that sandals or flip-flops of any kind are not allowed.

Men: Jeans or shorts are recommended however, they MUST be worn at waist level. Any sagging and/or display of undergarments will not be tolerated. Inappropriate images, behavior, profanity and or racial remarks/comments/ or gestures are not welcomed at Gold Coast Railroad Museum.

Women: Jeans/pants are recommended however, shorts are acceptable as long as they are at knee length. No revealing clothing is acceptable.

NOTE:

Fighting or any inappropriate behavior of similar nature will result in removal from the property.
