

Systematic Theology II Syllabus

The information in this course syllabus provides all the details need to complete this course. Questions beyond what is provided here should be addressed to your academic adviser.

I. Goal

New Testament Survey is designed to familiarize students with a considerable understanding of the doctrines of the biblical faith.

II. Required Reading

The following texts may be purchased at most online booksellers. Read pp. 657-1207 in Systematic Theology, and read the blog article below in its entirety.

Wayne Grudem, Systematic Theology: An Introduction to Biblical Doctrine, (Grand Rapids: Zondervan, 2000), 657-1207.

III. Lectures

Listen all twenty-six Systematic Theology II lectures by Bruce Ware.

IV. Assignments

Assignments are to be submitted together in .doc format to your academic adviser. Using an essay writing style, cite all sources properly.

Using essay style writing, please respond thoroughly to each of the questions below. Compose your answers clearly and precisely, defining all terms. Do not introduce your answer; just answer the question. If the questions consist of several parts, write a paragraph or two on each part and identify each part. Cite all sources properly. Answer each question in two to three double-spaced pages.

1. Provide an explanation and biblical defense of justification.
2. Define the form of church polity you affirm and provide its biblical justification.
3. Explain the synergistic nature of sanctification being sure to describe the relationship between God's grace and moral effort in the Christian life.
4. Provide your understanding of how the Holy Spirit guides Christians today.