To whom it may concern,

I'm honoured to be able to write a letter of recommendation for Peter Mumme whom I have known for 7 years, originally meeting at The Tibetan Rime Buddhist Institute where he oversaw video and sound production for teachings as well as assisted in the day to day runnings of the centre. As long as we (my husband Tamkey) and I have known Peter, he has always advocated for the arts with a passionate lean towards storytelling through the medium of music, sound and video. When working at the Centre, he was able to draw dialogue and meaning from the Rinpoche there (a senior teacher) and translate that into something that resonated and was shareable amongst the community. I feel that this is a strength he brings to any project he works on, as he continues to seek out arts projects that both draw on his extensive skills and passions. His past it testament to this, with his ongoing advocacy for indigenous community arts projects. What is more remarkable, is that he does this incredible job of bringing together different groups of people and organically finding the story, sharing it, producing it and then has absolutely no ego about it at all, which makes him both a rarity and pleasure to work with. I have no qualms in telling you that in supporting his next big project you'll be investing in a true artist, collaborator and story teller, and something that will open hearts and minds.

Please feel free to contact me if you'd like to talk further.

Warm regards,
