

(A) Adoration:

Dear Heavenly Father, the Alpha and the Omega. We just want to praise you for who you are. We praise you because you are graceful and merciful. We praise you because you are omnipotent. My Jehovah Jireh, my provider. God, you are a worthy God – almighty. We praise you as our Savior and our Redeemer.

(C) Confession:

Dear Lord, forgive us of our sins; those we know about and those we don't. Bring to our remembrance those that are known and unknown, and forgive us of our selfishness. Forgive us for not honoring you as we should. Forgive us for not turning to you as we should and not speaking to you daily. Forgive us for any strife that we may have to another person as well as our shortcomings.

(T) Thanksgiving:

Lord, you are awesome! We are thankful for New Life. We are thankful for who you are in our life. We are thankful for growth in you. We are thankful for the mercies that you have given us in spite of ourselves. We are thankful for our children studying the Bible with us. We are thankful for the family, friends, blessings we have received, and will receive. We are thankful to learn how you are telling us to pray, teaching us how to listen in prayer. We are thankful for your Word to “count it all joy” when trials and tribulations come. We thank you for everything, healing, and your power.

(S) Supplication:

Lord, you said that you would supply all our needs and we come to you with needs. God, we ask humbly that you strengthen the bond of marriage, the institution of marriage, and healing for those in marriage. Watch over our children that they are protected from abuse and all hurt, harm, and danger God. Put a hedge of protection around them Lord.

We ask that you go into all our friends' and family's homes and bless them according to your will. Lord, have mercy for those dealing with an addiction; whether drugs, pornography, or bodily sickness. And Lord, uplift your Saints to carry out your will and the strength and confidence to live in this world but not be of this world, and the clarity to know the difference.

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory, forever, Amen.
