<http://www.mountprospect100.com/#!then-and-now/ctz8>

Using a Venn Diagram, find and record similarities and differences between the pictures.

Depending on the age level and experience of the students, this activity can be done as a whole class discussion or as an individual/independent activity or assignment.

If done as an individual activity, come together at the end to discuss.

As an extension, have students use the completed Venn Diagrams to write a paragraph comparing and contrasting the images.
