What We Do

We match volunteers with community-based opportunities that benefit disadvantaged preschool children, at-risk youth, the elderly, veterans, those with low reading and STEM literacy skills, and by supporting other nonprofit organizations
Join Us!

RSVP Volunteers Choose

The Community Links Program connects volunteers directly to our 200+ partner agencies. Assignment options include:

- Delivering meals-on-wheels or staffing food pantries
- Helping sort donations or assisting with check out at local thrift shops
- Leading programs for seniors on health, wellness and technology
- Comforting hospice patients or visiting lonely veterans
- Staffing local blood drives
- Providing office support to local nonprofit agencies
- Prepare basic tax returns for low income families
- And hundreds more

Through our impact programs, volunteers can directly enhance the lives of individuals

RSVP Impact Programs

Children's Programs

Family Literacy. Work with Head Start preschoolers to help them develop their reading skills and learn to love books.

America Reads. Be a supportive reading coach and help K-4 students to read with more confidence.

Mentoring. Protégé program matches at-risk students with mentors who provide support and guidance encouraging positive behavior, resulting in greater academic and life success.

Tutoring. SAGE volunteers assist teachers and students through vocational programs, conduct museum tours and judge science fairs.

STEM (science, technology, engineering, math) Career Development . Professionals with STEM careers visit classrooms inspiring future STEM specialists through hands-on projects.

Virtual Tutoring/Learning

My Free Tutor. Volunteers work with high school students to increase math and science proficiency via online tutoring.

Math Tutoring for Veterans. My Free Tutor volunteers help to improve math skills of veterans to prepare them to enter college and the workforce. visit www.myfreetutor.org.

Adults and Seniors

Adult Literacy. Help increase economic opportunities for adults through GED, ESL and basic literacy tutoring.

Literacy Training for Families. Volunteers lead workshops for parents of preschoolers to increase family reading time.

Helping Seniors at Home. Help on Call volunteers provide seniors with in-home support in bookkeeping, shopping and transportation to doctor appointments, all while providing social interaction.

Medicare Counseling. APPRISE is a free, confidential public program of the PA Department of Aging. State trained counselors offer advice on Medicare coverage, options and assistance programs.

Nonprofit Agencies

Volunteer Executive Consultants. VEC volunteers are business professionals who help build the management capacity of nonprofits in the region.

Corporate Partnerships

RSVP engages corporate volunteers with on and off-site projects that transform employees into a unified team creating good within their communities. Projects are customized and integrate corporate goals and initiatives. STEM employees can inspire career advancement as a role model for students.

Corporate partners include DOW, Citadel, Independence Blue Cross, Peoples Security, Morgan Lewis Brockius, LLP, PJM, Quaker, Renewal by Andersen, SAP, SEI, and others

Now certified as an Educational Improvement Organization, Corporations may qualify for an EITC tax credit by partnering with RSVP.
